Based on the anonymous and voluntary reviews shared by Republic Services employees, Mr. Slager received an impressive overall approval rating of 94 percent. In addition, 82 percent of Republic employees would recommend working for the CEO. The list recognizes top leaders admired by their employees, with Mr. Slager earning a top spot on this year's list.

"I'm truly overwhelmed and appreciative of this feedback from our employees," said Slager. "One of the greatest joys of my job is serving our great team of employees. They are out there every day diligently taking care of our 14 million customers by picking up and responsibly handling the nation's recycling and solid waste needs. This recognition tells me that our employees feel fulfilled in their work and they have trust in our senior leadership, which contributes to employee engagement and our Company's long-term success. This is an honor for our entire organization."

When employees submit reviews about their company on Glassdoor, they are asked to rate various factors about their employment experience, including their overall satisfaction and their approval of senior leadership. As part of this survey, employees are asked to rate whether they approve, disapprove or are neutral about the job their CEO is doing.
