Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President or any person designated in writing by him may (i) attend meetings of shareholders of other corporations to represent the Corporation there at and to vote or take action with respect to other shares of any such corporation owned by this Corporation in such manner as he or his designee may determine; and (ii) execute and deliver written consents, waivers of notice and proxies for and in the name of the Corporation with respect to any such shares owned by this Corporation.

He shall, unless the Board provides otherwise, be, ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee and all other committees of the Board of Directors.

If a Chairman of the Board be elected or appointed and designated as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, the President shall perform such duties as may be specifically delegated to him by the Board of Directors as are conferred by law exclusively upon him. In the absence, disability or inability to act of the Chairman of the Board, the President shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chairman of the Board.

Section 8.3 Vice Presidents. Any Vice President elected by the Board of Directors shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to him and shall exercise such powers as may be granted to him by the Board of Directors or by the President of the Corporation. In the absence of the President, the Vice Presidents, in order of their seniority, may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President with the same force and effect as if performed by the President.

Section 8.4 The Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee (if any) and any other committee or committees of the Board in one of the books provided for that purpose.

He shall be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation. He shall see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all certificates for shares prior to the issue thereof and to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and applicable law.

He shall sign with the President or a Vice President, certificates for shares of the Corporation, the issue of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the stock transfer book of the Corporation.

He shall keep a register of the post office address of each shareholder which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such shareholder.

He shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law and that the voting list is prepared for shareholders' meetings.

In general, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.5 The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for the funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors or by any officer of the Corporation to whom such authority has been granted by the Board of Directors.

He shall disburse or permit to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered or authorized generally by the Board.

He shall render to the chief executive officer of the Corporation and the directors whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of those under his jurisdiction and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

In general, he shall perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.6 Assistant Officers. Each assistant officer that may be selected pursuant to these Bylaws shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. In the absence or nonavailability of the principal, the assistant may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the principal with the same force and effect as if performed by the principal. The assistant shall also have such lesser or greater authority and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

Contracts, Checks, Loans and Deposits

Section 9.1 All contracts and agreements authorized by the Board of Directors and all checks, drafts, bills of exchange or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or agent or agents, as may from time to time be permitted by these Bylaws, or as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, the President or such officer or officers as the Board of Directors may appoint. The designation or designations may be general or confined to specific instances. The Board of Directors may authorize the use of facsimile signatures on any such document.

Issuance and Transfer of Stock

Section 10.1 Board Authorization. The issuance of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be authorized by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the Georgia Business Corporation Act.

Section 10.2 Certificates. Certificates of stock of the Corporation shall be numbered and registered as they are issued. They shall exhibit the holder's name and the number of shares and shall be signed by the President or a Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and shall bear the corporate seal, which may be facsimile, engraved or printed. If any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registrar other than the Corporation or an employee of the Corporation, any other signature thereon may be facsimile, engraved or printed. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, such certificate may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person was such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 10.3 Transfers. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney-in-fact, lawfully constituted in writing, upon surrender of such certificate duly and properly endorsed.

Section 10.4 Lost Certificates. In case of the loss or destruction of any certificate of stock, a new certificate may be issued upon the following conditions: The owner shall file with the Secretary an affidavit giving the facts in relation to the ownership and the loss or destruction of said certificate, stating its number and the number of shares represented thereby. The Secretary shall present such affidavit to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that such certificate has been destroyed or lost, and that a new certificate ought to be issued in lieu thereof, the Board may direct the officers of the Corporation to issue a new certificate, or the Board may condition the issuance of a new certificate upon the filing of a bond, in an amount and with a surety acceptable to the Board of Directors, to indemnify the Corporation and save it harmless from any loss, expense, damage or liability occasioned by the issuance of such new certificate. Upon receipt of the Board's direction, or the filing of any required bond, the proper officers of the Corporation shall issue a new certificate for the same number of shares to the owner of the certificate so lost or destroyed.

Section 10.5 Transfer Books. Proper books shall be kept under the direction of the Secretary showing the ownership and transfer of all certificates of stock. These books shall constitute the test of the qualifications of voters at any shareholders' meeting.

ARTICLE 11

Fiscal Year

Section 11.1 The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as established by the Board of Directors.

Dividends

Section 12.1 The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares subject to the limitations and conditions imposed by applicable law and subject also to any restrictions contained in the Articles of Incorporation.

Seal

Section 13.1 The seal of the Corporation shall be in circular form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation and the words "Corporate Seal" and "Georgia." The Board of Directors may, by resolution, change the form of the corporate seal from time to time.

ARTICLE 14

Inspection of Books and Records

Section 14.1 Upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation, a shareholder, acting in good faith and for a proper purpose, may inspect such books and records of the Corporation as shall be specifically identified in the notice, provided that the Corporation shall be required by law to produce the same. The requirement of thirty (30) days' written notice may be reduced to a lesser number of days by the Board of Directors where the shareholder demonstrates a proper need for more immediate inspection of such books and records. The notice requesting inspection shall specify the purpose for which the examination is desired, the probable duration of the examination, and the names of those individuals who desire to be present during the examination. The inspection shall be performed during the Corporation's usual and customary hours of business and in such manner as will not unduly interfere with the regular conduct of the business of the Corporation. The inspection may be supervised by an officer or agent of the Corporation and the inspection shall be conducted at either the Corporation's registered office, the Corporation's principal place of business, or at the office of the Corporation's counsel, as shall be determined by the President. Upon a proper showing of need, a shareholder may utilize the assistance of attorneys, accountants or other experts in connection with the inspection, provided that, if required by the Board of Directors, the shareholder and the experts shall agree to furnish to the Corporation, as promptly as completed or made, a true and correct copy of any and every report or other written memorandum with respect to such inspection made by such experts. No shareholder shall use or permit to be used or acquiesce in the use by others of any information so obtained to the detriment of the Corporation, nor shall furnish or permit to be furnished any information so obtained to any competitor or prospective competitor of the Corporation. The Corporation, as a condition precedent to any shareholder's inspection of the records of the Corporation, may require the shareholder to indemnify the Corporation against any loss or damage which may be suffered by it arising out of or resulting from any unauthorized disclosure made or permitted to be made by such shareholder, his employee or agent of information obtained in the course of inspection.

Amendments

Section 15.1 These Bylaws may be made, altered, amended, or replaced in the manner specified in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 16

Miscellaneous

Section 16.1 Interpretation. Whenever the context so requires, the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural and conversely.

Section 16.2 Inoperative Portion. If any portion of these Bylaws shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder shall be considered valid and operative, and effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

Section 16.3 Table of Contents — Headings. The table of contents and headings are for organization, convenience and clarity and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these Bylaws nor the intent of any provision thereof.

ARTICLE V
DOMESTICATION

The Corporation was incorporated under the laws of Canada on September 12, 1996. Simultaneously with the filing of this Certificate of Incorporation, the Corporation has filed its Certificate of Domestication with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in order to domesticate itself in the State of Delaware. This Certificate of Incorporation amends and superseales in all respects the previously adopted Articles of Incorporation, as amended to date, of the Corporation. The 48,750,001 shares of the common stock of the Corporation outstanding on the effective date of this Certificate of Incorporation shall be, and are hereby, converted into 1,000 shares of the Common Stock without any further action by the Corporation or any stockholder, and each currently outstanding share certificate representing such shares of common stock outstanding on the effective date of this Certificate of Incorporation shall represent a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the number of shares of common stock represented by such certificate divided by 48,750.001 until such share certificate is surrendered for transfer or reissue.

ARTICLE VI

EXISTENCE

The existence of the Corporation is to be perpetual.

ARTICLE VII

NO PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

No stockholder shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to subscribe for or acquire additional, unissued or treasury shares of any class of capital stock of the Corporation whether now or hereafter authorized, or any bonds, debentures or other securities convertible into, or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire such shares, but any shares or other securities convertible into, or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire such shares may be issued or disposed of by the Board of Directors to such persons and on such terms as in its discretion it shall deem advisable.

ARTICLE VIII

NO CUMULATIVE VOTING

At each election of directors, every stockholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy the number of shares owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has a right to vote. No stockholder shall have the right to cumulate his votes in any election of directors.

ARTICLE IX

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The number of directors constituting the Corporation's initial Board of Directors is three, and the name and mailing, address of each person who is to serve as director until the first annual meeting of stockholders or until his successor is elected and qualified is:

Roger A. Ramsey
15880 North Greenway-Hayden Loop
Scottsdale, Arizona 85260

Henry L. Hirvela
15880 North Greenway-Hayden Loop
Scottsdale, Arizona 85260

Thomas H. Van Weelden
15880 North Greenway-Hayden Loop
Scottsdale, Arizona 85260

The number of directors constituting each subsequent Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the Corporation's Bylaws. None of the directors need be a stockholder or a resident of the State of Delaware. Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the Corporation's Bylaws provide otherwise. Except as otherwise provided by law, the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by, or under the direction of its Board of Directors. In furtherance and not in limitation of the rights, powers, privileges and discretionary authority granted or conferred by the DGCL or other statutes or laws of the State of Delaware, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized:

- A. To adopt amend, alter or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation;
- B. To authorize and cause to be executed any mortgage, lien or pledge upon or of the real and personal property and assets of the Corporation;
- C. To declare and pay lawful dividends upon shares of the Corporation's capital stock in accordance with the DGCL, as it may hereafter be amended from time to time;
- D. To set apart out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends, a reserve or reserves for any proper purpose and to reduce or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created; and
- E. To adopt from time to time bylaw provisions with respect to indemnification of directors, officers, employees, agents and other persons as it shall deem expedient and in the best interests of the Corporation, to the extent permitted by law and not inconsistent with other provisions of this Certificate of Incorporation, as it may be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION

A. Mandatory Indemnification. Each person who at any time is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, and is threatened to be or is made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative or investigative (a "Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, member, employee, trustee, agent or similar functionary of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other for-profit or non-profit enterprise, whether the basis of a Proceeding is an alleged action in such person's official capacity or in another capacity while holding such office, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, or any other applicable law as may from time to time be in effect (but, in the case of any such amendment or enactment, only to the extent that such amendment or law permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law prior to such amendment or enactment permitted the Corporation to provide), against all expense, liability and loss (including, without limitation, court costs and attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties, and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection with a Proceeding, and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Corporation or a director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, member, employee, trustee, agent or similar functionary of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other for-profit or non-profit enterprise, and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors and administrators. The Corporation's obligations under this Section A include, but are not limited to, the convening of any meeting, and the consideration of any matter thereby, required by statute in order to determine the eligibility of any person for indemnification.

B. Prepayment of Expenses. Expenses incurred by a director or officer of the Corporation in defending a Proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by, and only in compliance with, the DGCL or any other applicable laws as may from time to time be in effect, including, without limitation, any provision of the DGCL which requires, as a condition precedent to such expense advancement, the delivery, to the Corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under Section A of this Article X or otherwise. Repayments of all amounts so advanced shall be upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Corporation's Board of Directors deems appropriate.

C. Vesting. The Corporation's obligation to indemnify and to prepay expenses under Sections A and B of this Article X shall arise, and all rights granted to the Corporation's directors and officers hereunder shall vest, at the time of the occurrence of the transaction or event to which a Proceeding relates, or at the time that the action or conduct to which such Proceeding relates was first taken or engaged in (or omitted to be taken or engaged in), regardless of when such Proceeding is first threatened, commenced or completed. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the Corporation, no action taken by the Corporation either by amendment of this Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the Corporation or otherwise, shall diminish or adversely affect any rights to indemnification or prepayment of expenses granted under Sections A and B of this Article X which shall have become vested as aforesaid prior to the date that such amendment or other corporate action is effective or taken, whichever is later.

D. Enforcement. If a claim under Section A or Section B or both Sections A and B of this Article X is not paid in full by the Corporation within thirty (30) days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit in a court of competent jurisdiction against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such suit (other than a suit brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any Proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking, if any is required, has been tendered to the Corporation) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the DGCL or other applicable law to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Corporation. The failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit as to whether indemnification is proper in the circumstances based upon the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the DGCL or other applicable law shall neither be a defense to the action nor create a presumption that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct. The termination of any Proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

E. Nonexclusive. The indemnification provided by this Article X shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under any statute, bylaw, other provisions of this Certificate of Incorporation, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

F. Permissive Indemnification. The rights to indemnification and prepayment of expenses which are conferred to the Corporation's directors and officers by Sections A and B of this Article X may be conferred upon any employee or agent of the Corporation if, and to the extent, authorized by the Board of Directors.

G. Insurance. The Corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance, at its expense on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, member, employee, trustee, agent or similar functionary of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other for-profit or non-profit enterprise against any expense, liability or loss asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the provisions of this Article X, the Corporation's Bylaws, the DGCL or other applicable law.

H. Implementing Arrangements. Without limiting the power of the Corporation to procure or maintain insurance or other arrangement on behalf of any of the persons as described in paragraph G of this Article X, the Corporation may, for the benefit of persons eligible for indemnification by the Corporation, (1) create a trust fund, (2) establish any form of self-insurance, (3) secure its indemnity obligation by grant of a security interest or other lien on the assets of the Corporation, or (4) establish a letter of credit, guaranty or surety arrangement.

ARTICLE XI

LIMITED DIRECTOR LIABILITY

No director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or to its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that this Article XI shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director:

- (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders,
- (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law,
- (3) under Section 174 of the DGCL, as it may hereafter be amended from time to time, for any unlawful payment of a dividend or unlawful stock purchase or redemption, or
- (4) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

If the DGCL is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, as so amended. No amendment to or repeal of this Article XI will apply to, or have any effect on, the liability or alleged liability of any director of the Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of the director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE XII

AMENDMENT

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute and all rights conferred upon stockholders are granted subject to this reservation.

ARTICLE XIII
SECTION 203 ELECTION

The Corporation expressly elects not to be governed by Section 203 of the DGCL.

ARTICLE XIV
INCORPORATOR

The name and mailing address of the incorporator is:

Steven M. Helm
15880 North Greenway-Loop
Suite 100

[SIGNATURE PAGE FOLLOWS]

I, the undersigned, being the incorporator hereinbefore named, for the purpose of forming a corporation pursuant to the DGCL, do make this certificate, hereby declaring under the penalties of perjury that this is my act and deed and that the facts stated herein are true, and accordingly have hereunto set my hand this 17th day of December, 1997.

SCHEDULE A

1. PROVISIONS ATTACHING TO THE CLASS A PREFERENCE SHARES

The Class A Preference shares, as a class, shall have attached thereto the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:

1.1 Directors' Authority to Issue in One or More Series

The board of directors of the Corporation may issue the Class A Preference shares at any time and from time to time in one or more series. Before the first shares of a particular series are issued, the board of directors of the Corporation shall fix the number of shares in such series and shall determine, subject to the limitations set out in the articles, the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions to be attached to the shares of such series including, without limitation, the rate or rates, amount or method or methods of calculation of dividends thereon, the time and place of payment of dividends, whether cumulative or non-cumulative or partially cumulative and whether such rate, amount or method of calculation shall be subject to change or adjustment in the future, the currency or currencies of payment of dividends, the consideration and the terms and conditions of any purchase for cancellation, retraction or redemption rights (if any), the conversion or exchange rights attached thereto (if any), the voting rights attached thereto (if any), and the terms and conditions of any share purchase plan or sinking fund with respect thereto. Before the issue of the first shares of a series, the board of directors of the Corporation shall send to the Director (as defined in the Canada Business Corporations Act) articles of amendment containing a description of such series including the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions determined by the board of directors of the Corporation.

1.2 Ranking of Class A Preference Shares

No rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attached to a series of Class A Preference shares shall confer upon a series a priority in respect of dividends or return of capital over any other series of Class A Preference shares then outstanding. The Class A Preference shares shall be entitled to priority over the common shares of the Corporation and over any other shares of the Corporation ranking junior to the Class A Preference shares with respect to priority in the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs. If any cumulative dividends or amounts payable on a return of capital in respect of a series of Class A Preference shares are not paid in full, the Class A Preference shares of all series shall participate rateably in respect of such dividends, including accumulations, if any, in accordance with the sums that would be payable on such shares if all such dividends were declared and paid in full, and in respect of any repayment of capital in accordance with the sums that would be payable on such repayment of capital if all sums so payable were paid in full; provided, however, that in the event of there being insufficient assets to satisfy in full all such claims to dividends and return of capital, the claims of the holders of the Class A Preference shares with respect to repayment of capital shall first be paid and satisfied and any assets remaining thereafter shall be applied towards the payment and satisfaction of claims in respect of dividends. The Class A Preference shares of any series may also be given such other preferences, not inconsistent with sections 1.1 to 1.4 hereof, over the common shares and over any other shares ranking junior to the Class A Preference shares as may be determined in the case of such series of Class A Preference shares.

1.3 Voting Rights

Except as hereinafter referred to or as otherwise required by law or in accordance with any voting rights which may from time to time be attached to any series of Class A Preference shares, the holders of the Class A Preference shares as a class shall not be entitled as such to receive notice of, to attend or to vote at any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation.

1.4 Approval of Holders of Class A Preference shares

The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Class A Preference shares as a class may be added to, changed or removed but only with the approval of the holders of the Class A Preference shares given as hereinafter specified.

The approval of the holders of Class A Preference shares to add to, change or remove any right, privilege, restriction or condition attaching to the Class A Preference shares as a class or to any other matter requiring the consent of the holders of the Class A Preference shares as a class may be given in such manner as may then be required by law, subject to a minimum requirement that such approval shall be given by resolution passed by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of the holders of Class A Preference shares duly called for that purpose. The formalities to be observed in respect of the giving of notice of any such meeting or any adjourned meeting and the conduct thereof shall be those from time to time required by the Canada Business Corporations Act (as from time to time amended, varied or replaced) and prescribed in the by-laws of the Corporation with respect to meetings of shareholders. On every poll taken at a meeting of holders of Class A Preference shares as a class, each holder entitled to vote thereat shall have one vote in respect of each Class A share held by him.

2. PROVISIONS ATTACHING TO COMMON SHARES

The common shares of the Corporation shall have attached thereto the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:

2.1 Dividends

Subject to the prior rights of the holders of the Class A Preference shares and any other shares ranking senior to the common shares with respect to priority in the payment of dividends, the holders of common shares shall be entitled to receive dividends and the Corporation shall pay dividends thereon, as and when declared by the board of directors of the Corporation out of moneys properly applicable to the payment of dividends, in such amount and in such form as the board of directors of the Corporation may from time to time determine, and all dividends which the board of directors of the Corporation may declare on the common shares shall be declared and paid in equal amounts per share on all common shares at the time outstanding.

2.2 Dissolution

In the event of the dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, subject to the prior rights of the holders of the Class A Preference shares and any other shares ranking senior to the common shares with respect to priority in the distribution of assets upon dissolution, liquidation, winding-up or distribution for the purpose of winding-up, the holders of the common shares shall be entitled to receive the remaining property and assets of the Corporation.

2.3 Voting Rights

The holders of the common shares shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend all meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation and shall have one vote for each common share held at all meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation, except meetings at which only holders of another specified class or series of shares of the Corporation are entitled to vote separately as a class or series.

This is Schedule B referred to in the foregoing articles of incorporation.

The right to transfer shares of the Corporation shall be restricted in that no shareholder shall be entitled to transfer any share or shares in the capital of the Corporation without either

- (a) the express sanction of the holders of more than 50% of the common shares of the Corporation for the time being outstanding expressed by a resolution passed at a meeting of the shareholders or by an instrument or instruments in writing signed by the holders of more than 50% of such shares, or
 - (b) the express sanction of the directors of the Corporation expressed by a resolution passed by the votes of a majority of the directors of the Corporation at a meeting of the board of directors or by an instrument or instruments in writing signed by a majority of the directors.

This is Schedule C referred to in the foregoing articles of incorporation.

1. The number of shareholders of the Corporation, exclusive of persons who are in its employment and exclusive of persons who, having been formerly in the employment of the Corporation were, while in that employment, and have continued after the termination of that employment to be, shareholders of the Corporation, is limited to not more than 50, 2 or more persons who are the joint registered owners of 1 or more shares being counted as 1 shareholder.
2. Any invitation to the public to subscribe for securities of the Corporation is prohibited.
3. The board of directors of the Corporation may, without authorization of the shareholders of the Corporation, from time to time, in such amounts and on such terms as it deems expedient:
 - (a) borrow money upon the credit of the Corporation;
 - (b) issue, reissue, sell or pledge debt obligations of the Corporation;
 - (c) give a guarantee on behalf of the Corporation to secure performance of an obligation of any person; and
 - (d) charge, mortgage, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise create a security interest in all or any of the currently owned or subsequently acquired property and assets of the Corporation, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, real and personal property, movable and immovable property, tangible and intangible assets, book debts, rights, powers, franchise and undertaking, to secure any obligation of the Corporation.

The board of directors may from time to time by resolution delegate to a committee of directors or to one or more of the directors or officers of the Corporation all or any of the powers hereby conferred upon the board to such extent and in such manner as the board shall determine at the time of each such delegation. Nothing in this section shall limit or restrict the borrowing of money by the Corporation on bills of exchange or promissory notes made, drawn, accepted or endorsed by or on behalf of the Corporation.

4. The number of directors of the Corporation shall be determined from time to time as follows:
 - (a) where directors are to be elected at a meeting of shareholders, the number shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors and set out in the notice calling the meeting of shareholders; and
 - (b) where directors are to be elected by way of a written resolution of shareholders, the number shall be set out in the resolution; provided that the number of directors may not be less than the minimum number nor more than the maximum number of directors set out in the articles.

AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS
OF
ALLIED WASTE HOLDINGS (CANADA) LTD.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, often percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article H or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as may be allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as maybe determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

ALLIED WASTE INDUSTRIES (ARIZONA), INC.

Offices

Section 1.1 The principal business office of the Corporation shall be, until changed by the Board of Directors, at 6575 West Loop South, Suite 250, Bellaire, Texas 77401. The Corporation may also have offices and branch offices at such other places within and without the State of Arizona as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

Shareholders Meetings

Section 2.1 Place. Except as hereinafter provided, any annual or special meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such place within or without the State of Arizona as may be selected by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee. If the Board of Directors or Executive Committee fails to designate a place for the meeting to be held, then the same shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation. Special meetings called for the purpose of removing directors shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Arizona or in the city or county in the State of Arizona in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located.

Section 2.2 Date of Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held the 30th day in the month of September in each year at such time as may be specified in the notice of meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a holiday, such annual meeting shall be held on the next business day.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special Meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors or the shareholders.

Section 2.4 Notice of Shareholders' Meetings, Annual or Special. Written or printed notice of each meeting of shareholders shall be delivered or given either personally or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Any notice of a shareholders' meeting given by mail shall be deemed delivered when mailed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the Corporation.

Section 2.5 Persons Authorized to Give Notice. Notice of an annual or special meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be given or delivered by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors.

Section 2.6 Written Waiver of Notice. Any notice required by these Bylaws may be waived by any person entitled thereto signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 2.7 Waiver of Attendance. Attendance of a shareholder at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 2.8 Quorum. A majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at any meeting, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act unless a larger vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law. If the holders of the number of shares necessary to constitute a quorum shall fail to attend in person or by proxy, a majority in interest of the shareholders present in person or by proxy shall have the right successively to adjourn the meeting to a specified date not longer than ninety (90) days after such adjournment. No notice need be given of such adjournment to shareholders not present at the meeting if the time and place of the adjourned meeting are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each shareholder or record entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 2.9 Persons Authorized to Convene Meetings. Every meeting shall be convened by the President, the Secretary or some other officer or other person designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.10 Shareholder Action Without Meeting. Any action required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws to be taken at a meeting of shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the shareholders.

Voting Procedure

Section 3.1 List of Voters. The officer having charge of the transfer book for shares of the Corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting at least ten (10) days before such meeting. Said list shall be arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the number of shares held by each shareholder. Said list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to the meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Said list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at any meeting.

Section 3.2 Inspectors. At any meeting called for the election of directors, if the presiding officer of the Corporation or a majority in number of shares present at such meeting desire, the president or other person presiding at the meeting shall appoint not less than two (2) persons, who are not directors, as inspectors to receive and canvass the votes given at such meeting and certify the result to him. Any inspector, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the following oath before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear, that I will execute the duties of an inspector of the election now to be held with strict impartiality, and according to the best of my ability."

Section 3.3 Record Date/Close of Transfer Books. The Board of Directors shall have the power to close the stock transfer books of the Corporation for a period not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or, in lieu thereof, to fix in advance a date not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting. If the Board of Directors shall not have closed the transfer books or fixed a record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, a meeting of shareholders, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the close of business on the 20th day preceding the date of the meeting shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting; except that if, prior to the meeting, written waivers of notice of the meeting are signed and delivered to the Corporation by all of the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened shall be entitled to vote at the meeting, and any adjournment of the meeting.

Votes

Section 4.1 Eligible Votes. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share entitled to vote under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall be entitled to one vote (or a fractional vote for each fractional share) on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. At each election for directors, every shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote the number of shares owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has a right to vote, or to cumulate his votes by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates.

Section 4.2 Proxies. A shareholder may vote, with respect to any matter, including but not limited to the election of directors, which may come before a meeting of shareholders, either in person, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by applicable law, by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only so long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power of attorney. The interest with which it is coupled need not be an interest in the shares themselves. In any case in which applicable law requires, as a condition to the validity of a proxy, that it provide that it is condition to the validity of a proxy, that it provide that it is revocable, a proxy which does not provide that it is revocable shall be wholly invalid, and not valid but revocable.

Section 4.3 Corporate Shareholders. Shares of stock, of the Corporation standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provisions, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Section 4.4 Deceased Shareholders. Shares of stock standing in the name of a deceased person may be voted by his personal representative, either in person or by proxy.

Section 4.5 Conservators and Trustees. Shares standing in the name of an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by such fiduciary, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee, other than a trustee in bankruptcy, may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, but no such trustee shall be entitled to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Section 4.6 Receivers and Trustees in Bankruptcy. Shares standing in the name of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do is conferred by applicable law or is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy was appointed.

Section 4.7 Pledges. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Section 5.1 Management and Number. The property, business and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled and managed by a Board of Directors consisting of no more than eight members, none of whom need be shareholders or residents of any particular state. Unless fixed by the Articles of Incorporation, the number of directors may at any time be increased or decreased by amendment of these Bylaws. Any changes in the number of directors effected by an amendment to these Bylaws shall be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) calendar days following such change.

Section 5.2 Election and Vacancies. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his death, resignation, or removal. Vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors to constitute the Board of Directors must be filled by an unanimous vote of directors and shareholders at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 5.3 Quorum. A majority of the full Board of Directors, which majority shall consist of at least one director/representative of the sole shareholder of the corporation, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, such meeting may be adjourned any number of times, without further notice, by a majority of the directors present.

Section 5.4 Place/Manner of Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that in the event of adjournment of said annual meeting of the Board of Directors the meeting may be reconvened at any place within or without the State of Arizona, as may be designated by the directors adjourning said meeting. All regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation or at such other place within or without the State of Arizona as may be designated by the Board of Directors or the officer calling the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the Board of Directors may participate in any regular or special meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in any such meeting by such means shall constitute presence and attendance at such meeting for all purposes.

Section 5.5 Time of Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that if a quorum cannot then be assembled, said meeting shall be adjourned until such time as a quorum may be assembled, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the annual meeting of the shareholders. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently and at such times as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon call of the Chairman of the Board (if one be elected), the President, or a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.6 Notice. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission addressed to him at his usual business address at least five (5) days prior to the meeting in case of notice by mail and at least 48 hours prior to the meeting in case of notice by telegram or facsimile transmission, or by communicating notice to a director directly (and not through a secretary, family member or other person), either orally or in writing at a face-to-face meeting or by telephone, at least 24 hours prior to the meeting. A notice given by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission shall be deemed given to any director when directed to such director at his address or (in the case of notice by facsimile transmission) facsimile transmission number as it appears in the records of the Corporation and when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, when delivered to an appropriate telegraph office, charges prepaid, or when the sender's facsimile transmission equipment indicates that transmission has been completed, as the case may be. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 5.7 Waiver. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Notice may also be waived by a director by signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting. Any waiver of notice by either of the means specified in this Section 5.7 shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 5.8 Action by Directors Without Meeting. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting of the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the directors at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.9 Compensation. The compensation of the directors may be set from time to time by unanimous approval of the Board of Directors and the shareholders, and a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude a director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 5.10 Removal. At a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the following manner. Such meeting shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Arizona or in the city or county in the State of Arizona in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located. One or more directors or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors; provided, however, that if less than the entire Board is to be removed and if the articles of incorporation or these bylaws provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors.

Committees

Section 6.1 Executive Committee. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, may designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution and in any subsequent resolution delegating additional authority or revoking any previous delegation of authority, shall have and exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation, but no such committee shall have the authority of the board of directors in reference to the following matters:

- (a) The submission to shareholders pursuant to the requirement of this chapter of any action that requires shareholders' authorization and approval under this chapter.
- (b) The filling of vacancies on the board of directors or in any committee of the board of directors.
- (c) The amendment or repeal of the bylaws, or the adoption of new bylaws.

(d) The fixing of compensation of directors for serving on the board or on any committee of the board of directors.

The designation of such an Executive Committee and the delegation thereto of authority by the Board of Directors shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law.

Section 6.2 Other Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors to constitute such other committees not having or exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation, but to deal with, address and study specific subjects or issues and to make reports and recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect thereto, all as specified by the Board.

Section 6.3 Committee Procedure. The majority of all the members of the executive Committee or any other committee may fix its rules of procedure, determine its action and fix the time and place (whether within or without the State of Arizona) of its meetings and specify what notice thereof, if any, shall be given, unless the Board of Directors shall provide otherwise by resolution. Members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Actions taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, shall have the power to fill vacancies, to appoint one or more directors to serve as alternate members of the Executive Committee or other committees, and, at any time, to abolish the Executive Committee or any other committee or remove any directors therefrom, either with or without cause.

Section 6.4 Action by Unanimous Consent. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors who are members of said committee. Each such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the committee. Such a consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the members of the committee taken at a meeting thereof.

Officers

Section 7.1 Required and Permitted Officers. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Secretary and such other officers, including a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers, and other assistant officers as the Board of Directors and shareholders may from time to time elect. If more than one Vice President be elected, the Board of Directors and shareholders may determine the seniority of each of said Vice Presidents. Any two or more offices may be held by the same individual, except the offices of President and Secretary.

Section 7.2 Election and Term. The President and Secretary shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors and the shareholders at their first meeting following the annual meeting of the shareholders and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and the shareholders. The Board of Directors and the shareholders may elect other officers at any meeting. Any such other officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and the shareholders. Unanimous approval of the Board of Directors and all shareholders is required for election of an officer.

Section 7.3 Removal. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors and shareholders may be removed by the Board of Directors and the shareholders whenever in their judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served by such removal, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights of the person so removed under any contract between such person and the corporation, except to the extent provided in any such contract. Removal of an officer requires unanimous approval of the Board of Directors and all shareholders.

Section 7.4 Vacancies. In case any office shall become vacant by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the directors then in office, and all shareholders, may, by a unanimous vote, choose a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

Section 7.5 Compensation of Officers. The Board of Directors and the shareholders, or such officer as they may designate, may fix the compensation for the officers of the Corporation and may fix the compensation for such other officers and agents as may from time to time be appointed.

Section 7.6 Bond. The Board of Directors and the shareholders, by unanimous vote may require any and all of the officers to give bond to the Corporation, with sufficient surety or sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and to comply with such other conditions as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors and the shareholders.

Duties of Officers

Section 8.1 Chairman of the Board. If a Chairman of the Board be elected, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he may be present. The Board of Directors may delegate such other authority and assign such additional duties to the Chairman of the Board, other than those conferred by law exclusively upon the President, as it may from time to time determine. The Board also may designate the Chairman of the Board as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, with all of the powers otherwise conferred upon the President of the Corporation. The Board also may provide that the Chairman of the Board shall have the powers of the chief executive officer coextensively with the President, or it may, from time to time, divide the powers, responsibilities, duties and authority of the chief executive officer between the Chairman of the Board and the President.

Section 8.2 The President. Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation with such general executive powers and duties of supervision and management as are usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation.

He shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect, subject to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers to any other officer or officers of the Corporation.

He shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, at meetings of the Board of Directors.

He, along with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the Corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, may sign certificates for shares of the Corporation, deeds, conveyances, bonds, mortgages, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, and unless the Board of Directors shall order otherwise by resolution, he may make such contracts and execute such certificates, documents and other instruments as may be incident thereto, as the ordinary conduct of the Corporation's business may require.

Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President or any person designated in writing by him may (i) attend meetings of shareholders of other corporations to represent the Corporation thereat and to vote or take action with respect to other shares of any such corporation owned by this Corporation in such manner as he or his designee may determine, and (ii) execute and deliver written consents, waivers of notice and proxies for and in the name of the Corporation with respect to any such shares owned by this Corporation.

He shall, unless the Board provides otherwise, be, ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee and all other committees of the Board of Directors.

He shall have such other or further duties and authority as may be prescribed elsewhere in these Bylaws or from time to time by the Board of Directors.

If a Chairman of the Board be elected or appointed and designated as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, the President shall perform such duties as may be specifically delegated to him by the Board of Directors as are conferred by law exclusively upon him. In the absence, disability or inability to act of the Chairman of the Board, the President shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chairman of the Board.

Section 8.3 Vice Presidents. Any Vice President elected by the Board of Directors shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to him and shall exercise such powers as may be granted to him by the Board of Directors or by the President of the Corporation. In the absence of the President, the Vice Presidents, in order of their seniority, may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President with the same force and effect as if performed by the President.

Section 8.4 The Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee (if any) and any other committee or committees of the Board in one of the books provided for that purpose.

He shall be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation. He shall see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all certificates for shares prior to the issue thereof and to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and applicable law.

He shall sign with the President, or a Vice President, certificates for shares of the Corporation, the issue of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the stock transfer books of the Corporation.

He shall keep a register of the post office address of each shareholder which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such shareholder.

He shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law and that the voting list is prepared for shareholders' meetings.

In general, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.5 The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for the funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall receive and give receipts for moneys due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such moneys in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors or by any officer of the Corporation to whom such authority has been granted by the Board of Directors.

He shall disburse or permit to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered or authorized generally by the Board.

He shall render to the chief executive officer of the Corporation and the directors whenever they may require it an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of those under his jurisdiction and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

In general, he shall perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.6 Assistant Officers. Each assistant officer that may be selected pursuant to these Bylaws shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and the shareholders. In the absence or nonavailability of the principal, the assistant may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the principal with the same force and effect as if performed by the principal. The assistant shall also have such lesser or greater authority and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors and the shareholders may prescribe.

Contracts, Checks, Loans and Deposits

Section 9.1 All contracts and agreements authorized by the Board of Directors and all checks, drafts, bills of exchange or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or agent or agents, as may from time to time be permitted by these Bylaws, or as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, the President or such officer or officers as the Board of Directors may appoint. The designation or designations may be general or confined to specific instances. The Board of Directors may authorize the use of facsimile signatures on any such document.

Issuance and Transfer of Stock

Section 10.1 Board Authorization. The issuance of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be authorized by the Board of Directors and shareholders in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the General and Business Corporation Law of Arizona. Unanimous approval of the Board of Directors and the shareholders is required for the issuance of shares of capital stock of the Corporation.

Section 10.2 Certificates. Certificates of stock of the Corporation shall be numbered and registered as they are issued. They shall exhibit the holder's name and the number of shares and shall be signed by the President or a Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary and shall bear the corporate seal, which may be facsimile, engraved or printed. If any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registrar other than the Corporation or an employee of the Corporation, any other signature thereon may be facsimile, engraved or printed. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, such certificate may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person was such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 10.3 Transfers. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney-in-fact, lawfully constituted in writing, upon surrender of such certificate duly and properly endorsed.

Section 10.4 Lost Certificates. In case of the loss or destruction of any certificate of stock, a new certificate may be issued upon the following conditions: The owner shall file with the Secretary an affidavit giving the facts in relation to the ownership and the loss or destruction of said certificate, stating its number and the number of shares represented thereby. The Secretary shall present such affidavit to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that such certificate has been destroyed or lost, and that a new certificate ought to be issued in lieu thereof, the Board may direct the officers of the Corporation to issue a new certificate, or the Board may condition the issuance of a new certificate upon the filing of a bond, in an amount and with a surety acceptable to the Board of Directors, to indemnify the Corporation and save it harmless from any loss, expense, damage or liability occasioned by the issuance of such new certificate. Upon receipt of the Board's direction, or the filing of any required bond, the proper officers of the Corporation shall issue a new certificate for the same number of shares to the owner of the certificate so lost or destroyed.

Section 10.5 Transfer Books. Proper books shall be kept under the direction of the Secretary showing the ownership and transfer of all certificates of stock. These books shall constitute the test of the qualifications of voters at any shareholders meeting.

Fiscal Year

Section 11.1 The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as established by the Board of Directors.

Dividends

Section 12.1 The Board of Directors and shareholders of the Corporation may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares subject to the limitations and conditions imposed by applicable law and subject also to any restrictions contained in the Articles of Incorporation. Unanimous approval of the Board of Directors and the shareholders is required in order to declare dividends under this section.

Seal

Section 13.1 The seal of the Corporation shall be in circular form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation and the words "Corporate Seal" and "Arizona." The Board of Directors may, by resolution, change the form of the corporate seal from time to time.

Inspection of Books and Records

Section 14.1 Any person who shall have been a holder of record of shares or of voting trust beneficial interest therefor at least six months immediately preceding his demand or shall be the holder of record of, or the holder of record of voting trust beneficial interest for, at least 5% of all the outstanding shares of the Corporation, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, shall have the right to examine, in person, or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose its relevant books and records of accounts, minutes and record of shareholders and to make copies of or extracts therefrom.

Amendments

Section 15.1 These Bylaws may be made, altered, amended, or repealed in the manner specified in the Articles of Incorporation.

Miscellaneous

Section 16.1 Interpretation. Whenever the context so requires, the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural and conversely.

Section 16.2 Inoperative Portion. If any portion of these Bylaws shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as it reasonable and possible, the remainder shall be considered valid and operative, and effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

Section 16.3 Table of Contents — Headings. The table of contents and headings are for organization, convenience and clarity and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these Bylaws nor the intent of any provision thereof.

ADOPTION OF BYLAWS BY UNANIMOUS WRITTEN CONSENT

The undersigned, being all of the directors of Allied Waste Industries (Arizona), Inc., an Arizona corporation (the "Corporation"), do hereby adopt the foregoing Bylaws as the initial Bylaws of the Corporation.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this consent as of the 27th day of September, 1991.

ALLIED WASTE INDUSTRIES (ARIZONA), INC.
CONSENT OF SHAREHOLDERS
IN LIEU OF SPECIAL MEETING

Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 10-145 of the Arizona General Corporation Law, the undersigned, being the sole shareholder of Allied Waste Industries (Arizona), Inc., an Arizona corporation (the "Corporation"), hereby waives meeting and notice of meeting and hereby consents to the following, such consent to have the same force and effect as if adopted at a duly called meeting of the shareholders:

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

WHEREAS, the undersigned, in its capacity as the sole shareholder of the Corporation desires to appoint the following persons as the duly constituted board of directors of the Corporation and to remove and replace the current board of directors.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that to the extent that any provisions of the bylaws of the Corporation or any resolutions of the Corporation do not allow for or contemplate the removal and election of directors by written consent of the shareholders in lieu of a meeting of the shareholders, and to the extent that such provisions or resolutions require or contemplate the giving of notice of the removal of directors or otherwise specify a procedure for the removal and election of the directors inconsistent with this consent, such provisions or resolutions be and hereby are rescinded and amended and restated as follows:

"The shareholders of the Corporation may remove and elect directors, with or without cause, without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders not less than one-half of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote on the election of directors and shall be delivered to the Corporation."

RESOLVED FURTHER, that to the extent that any of the current directors of the Corporation are not elected to serve as the directors of the Corporation in the penultimate paragraph hereof, such persons be and hereby are removed as directors of the Corporation effective as of the date hereof;

RESOLVED FURTHER, that to the extent that any provisions of the bylaws of the Corporation or any resolutions of the Corporation provide for fewer or more than three directors, such provisions or resolutions be and hereby are rescinded and amended and restated as follows:

"The number of directors that shall constitute the whole board of directors of the Corporation shall be three or that number specified in a subsequent resolution of the shareholders or the board of directors of the Corporation."

RESOLVED FURTHER, that, effective as of the date hereof, the following persons be and hereby are elected to serve as the directors of the Corporation until the next annual meeting of the shareholders or until their successors are duly elected and qualified:

Daniel J. Ivan
Thomas Van Weelden
Larry D. Henk.

RATIFICATION OF PREVIOUS ACTS

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that any lawful act heretofore taken by the directors or the appropriate officers on behalf of the Corporation since the last meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation be and hereby is approved, adopted, ratified and confirmed as the valid and binding act of the Corporation.

EXECUTED effective as of the 30th day of March, 1995.

BYLAWS OF
ALLIED WASTE INDUSTRIES (NEW MEXICO) INC.

1. ARTICLE I — MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

1.1 Annual Meetings. Annual meetings of the shareholders of Allied Waste Industries (New Mexico), Inc., (the “Corporation”) shall be held at such date, time and place, within or without the State of New Mexico, as shall be designated by the Board of Directors.

1.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation may be called at any time by the Board of Directors or the President and shall be called by the Board of Directors if the Secretary receives written, dated and signed demands for a special meeting, describing in reasonable detail the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held, from the holders of shares representing at least twenty-five percent (25%) of all votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting. If the Secretary receives one or more proper written demands for a special meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors may set a record date for determining shareholders entitled to make such demand. The Board of Directors or the President, as the case may be, calling a special meeting of shareholders shall set the date, time and place of such meeting which may be held within or without the State of New Mexico.

1.3 Notices. A written notice, stating the date, time and place of any meeting of the shareholders and in the case of a special meeting the purpose or purposes for which such meeting is called, shall be delivered or mailed by the Secretary of the Corporation, to each shareholder of record of the Corporation entitled to notice of or to vote at such meeting no fewer than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, or as otherwise provided by the Corporation Law. In the event of a special meeting of shareholders required to be called as a result of a demand therefor made by shareholders, such notice shall be given no later than the sixtieth day after the Corporation’s receipt of the demand requiring the meeting to be called. Notice of shareholders’ meetings, if mailed, shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to each shareholder at his address shown in the Corporation’s current record of shareholders.

A shareholder or his proxy may at any time waive notice of a meeting if the waiver is in writing and is delivered to the Corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the Corporation’s records. A shareholder’s attendance at a meeting, whether in person or by proxy (a) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the shareholder or his proxy at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and (b) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice, unless that shareholder or his proxy objects to considering the matter when it is presented. Each shareholder who has in the manner described above waived notice or objection to notice of the shareholder's meeting shall be conclusively presumed to have been given due notice of such meeting (including the purpose or purposes thereof if such shareholder in the manner described above waived objection to the consideration of a particular matter).

If an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time or place if the new date, time or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment, unless a new record date is or must be established for the adjourned meeting.

1.4 Participation by Conference Telephone. Any or all shareholders may participate in a regular or special meeting by, or through the use of any means of communication, such as conference telephone, by which all Shareholders participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A shareholder participating in a meeting by such means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

1.5 Written Consents. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all shareholders. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each shareholder and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. Action taken under this Section 1.5 is effective when the last shareholder signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different, prior or subsequent effective date, in which case the action is effective on or as of the specified date. A consent signed under this Section 1.5 has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

1.6 Voting. Except as otherwise provided by the Corporation Law or the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, each capital share of any class of the Corporation that is outstanding at the record date and represented in person or by proxy at the annual or special meeting shall entitle the record holder thereof or his proxy, to one vote on each matter voted on at the meeting.

1.7 Quorum. Unless the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation or the Corporation Law provide otherwise, at all meetings of shareholders a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on a matter, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum for action on the matter. Action may be taken at a shareholders' meeting only on matters with respect to which a quorum for action on the matter. Action may be taken at a shareholders' meeting only on matters with respect to which a quorum exists; provided, however, that any meeting of shareholders, including annual and special meetings and any adjournments thereof, may be adjourned to a later date although less than a quorum is present. Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any meeting held pursuant to an adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting.

1.8 Vote Required to Take Action. If a quorum exists as to a matter to be considered at a meeting of shareholders, action on such matter (other than the election of Directors) is approved if the votes properly cast favoring the action exceed the votes properly cast opposing the action, unless the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation or the Corporation Law requires a greater number of affirmative votes. Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes properly cast.

1.9 Record Date. Only such persons shall be entitled to notice of or to vote, in person or by proxy, at any shareholders' meeting as shall appear as shareholders upon the books of the Corporation as of record date as the Board of Directors shall determine, which date may not be earlier than the date seventy days immediately preceding the meeting unless otherwise permitted by the Corporation Law. In the absence of such determination, the record date shall be the fiftieth day immediately preceding the date of such meeting. Unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors, shareholders shall be determined as of the close of business on the record date.

1.10 Proxies. A shareholder may vote his shares either in person or by proxy. A shareholder may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the shareholder (including authorizing the proxy to receive or to waive notice of any shareholders' meetings within the effective period of such proxy) by signing an appointment form, either personally or by the shareholder's attorney-in-fact. An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the Secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes and is effective for eleven (11) months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form. The proxy's authority may be limited to a particular meeting or may be general and authorize the proxy to represent the shareholder at any meeting of shareholders held within the time provided in the appointment form. Subject to the Corporation Law and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, the Corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the appointment.

2. ARTICLE 2 — DIRECTORS.

2.1 Number and Term; Authority. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of at least one Director and no more than five Directors. The exact number of Directors of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors within the range established by the preceding sentence, and may be changed within that range from time to time by the Board of Directors. Each Director shall be elected for a term of office to expire at the annual meeting of shareholders next following his election. The Director shall continue to serve until his successor is elected and qualified, or until the earlier of his death, resignation, disqualification or removal by shareholders, or until there is a decrease in the number of Directors; provided, however, that a Director cannot be removed by such decrease unless in connection with an election of Directors by Shareholders.

The Directors and each of them shall have no authority to bind the Corporation except when acting as a Board or a Committee established by the Board and granted authority to bind the Corporation.

2.2 Quorum and Vote Required to Take Action. A majority of the whole Board of Directors (the size of which shall be determined in accordance with the latest action of the Board of Directors fixing the number of Directors) shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, except the filling of vacancies. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the Corporation Law, the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

2.3 Annual and Regular Meetings. The Board of Directors shall meet annually, without notice, on the same day as the annual meeting of the shareholders, for the purpose of transacting such business as properly may come before the meeting. Other regular meetings of the Board of Directors, in addition to said annual meeting, shall be held on such dates, at such times and at such places as shall be fixed by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors or otherwise communicated to the Directors. The Board of Directors may at any time alter the date for the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors.

2.4 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or any member of the Board of Directors upon not less than twenty-four (24) hours' notice given to each Director of the date, time and place of the meeting, which notice need not specify the purpose or purposes of the special meeting. Such notice may be communicated in person (either in writing or orally), by telephone, telegraph, teletype or other form of wire or wireless communication or by mail and shall be effective at the earlier of the time of its receipt or, if mailed, five (5) days after its mailing. Notice of any meeting of the Board may be waived in writing at any time if the waiver is signed by the Director entitled to the notice and is filed with the minutes or corporate records. A Director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice to the Director of the meeting, unless the Director at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon the Director's arrival) objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

2.5 Written Consents. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the Board. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each Director, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. Action taken under this Section 2.5 is effective when the last Director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different, prior or subsequent effective date, in which case the action is effective on or as of the specified date. A consent signed under this Section 2.5 has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

2.6 Participation by Conference Telephone. The Board of Directors may permit any or all Directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or through the use of any means of communication, such as conference telephone, by which all Directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A Director participating in a meeting by such means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

2.7.a The Board of Directors may create one or more committees and appoint members of the Board of Directors to serve on them, by resolution of the Board of Directors adopted by a majority of all the Directors in office when the resolution is adopted. Each committee may have one or more members, and all the members of a committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

2.7.b To the extent specified by the Board of Directors in the resolutions creating a committee, each committee may exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that a committee may not:

2.7.b(i) authorize dividends or other distributions as defined by the Corporate Law, except a committee may authorize or approve a reacquisition of shares if done according to a formula or method prescribed by the Board of Directors;

2.7.b(ii) approve or propose to shareholders action that is required to be approved by shareholders;

2.7.b(iii) fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or on any of its committees;

2.7.b(iv) amend the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation;

2.7.b(v) adopt, amend, repeal or waive any provision of these Bylaws; or

2.7.b(vi) approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval.

2.7.c Except to the extent inconsistent with the resolutions creating a committee, Sections 2.1 through 2.6 of these Bylaws, which govern meetings, actions without meetings, notices and waivers of notice, quorum and voting requirements and telephone participation in meetings of the Board of Directors, shall apply to the committee and its members.

3. ARTICLE 3 — OFFICERS.

3.1 Designation, Selection and Terms. The officers of the Corporation shall consist of the President and Secretary. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may also elect a Treasurer, Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries and such other officers or assistant officers as it may from time to time determine by resolution creating the office and defining the duties thereof. In defining the duties of officers, the Board of Directors may designate a chief executive officer a chief operating officer, a chief administrative officer, a chief financial officer, a chief accounting officer or similar functional titles. Officers need not be selected from among the members of the Board of Directors. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. The election or appointment of an officer does not itself create contract rights.

3.2 Removal. The Board of Directors may remove any officer at any time with or without cause. Vacancies in such offices, however occurring, may be filled by the Board of Directors at any meeting of the Board of Directors.

3.3 President. The President shall have and may exercise all of the powers and duties as are incident to his office or may from time to time be delegated to him by the Board of Directors.

3.4 Secretary. The Secretary shall be the custodian of the books, papers and records of the Corporation and of its corporate seal, if any, and shall be responsible for seeing that the Corporation maintains the records required by the Corporation Law (other than accounting records) and that the Corporation files with the State Corporation Commission of New Mexico the annual report required by the Corporation Law. The Secretary shall be responsible for preparing minutes of the meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and for authenticating records of the Corporation and he shall perform all of the other duties customary to the officer of the Secretary of the Corporation.

4. ARTICLE 4 — Indemnification of Officers, Directors and Other Eligible Persons.

4.1 General. To the extent not inconsistent with applicable law, every Eligible Person shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all Liability and reasonable Expense that may be incurred by him in connection with or resulting from any Claim:

4.1.a If such Eligible Person is Wholly Successful with respect to the Claim; or

4.1.b If not Wholly Successful, then if such Eligible Person is determined, as provided in either Section 4.3(a) or 4.3(b) of this Article 4, to have:

4.1.b(i) conducted himself in good faith; and

4.1.b(ii) reasonably believed:

4.1.b(ii)(1) in the case of conduct in his official capacity with the Corporation, that his conduct was in its best interest; and

4.1.b(ii)(2) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the best interest of the Corporation; and

4.1.b(iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding either:

4.1.b(iii)(1) had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful; or

4.1.b(iii)(2) had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

The termination of any Claim, by judgment, order, settlement (whether with or without court approval), or conviction or upon a plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, shall not create a presumption that an Eligible Person did not meet the standards of conduct set forth in clause (b) of this Section 4.1. The actions of an Eligible Person with respect to an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 shall be deemed to have been taken in what the Eligible Person reasonably believed to be the best interest of the Corporation or at least not opposed to its best interest if the Eligible Person reasonably believed he was acting in conformity with the requirements of such Act or he reasonably believed his actions to be in the interest of the participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

4.2 Definitions.

4.2.a The term "Claim" as used in this Article 4 shall include every pending, threatened or completed claim, action, suit, or proceeding and all appeals thereof (whether brought by or in the right of this Corporation or any other corporation or otherwise), whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, formal or informal, in which an Eligible Person may become involved, as a party or otherwise : (i) by reason of his being or having been an Eligible Person; or (ii) by reason of any action taken or not taken by him in his capacity as an Eligible Person, whether or not he continued in such capacity at the time a Liability or Expense shall have been incurred in connection with a Claim.

4.2.b The term "Eligible Person" as used in this Article 4 shall mean every person (and the estate, heirs and personal representatives of such person) who is or was a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, officer, employee, agent or fiduciary of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other organization or entity, whether for profit or not. An Eligible Person shall also be considered to have been serving an employee benefit plan at the request of the Corporation if his duties to the Corporation also imposed duties on, or otherwise involved services by him to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

4.2.c The terms "Liability" and "Expense" as used in this Article 4 shall include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and disbursements and amounts of judgments, fines or penalties against (including excise taxes assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), and amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of and Eligible Person.

4.2.d The term "Wholly Successful" as used in this Article 4 shall mean (i) termination of any Claim against the Eligible Person in question without any finding of liability or guilt against him; (ii) approval by a court, with knowledge of the indemnity herein provided, of a settlement of any Claim; or (iii) the expiration of a reasonable period of time after making or threatened making of any Claim without the institution of the same, without any payment or promise made to induce a settlement.

4.3 Procedure.

4.3.a Every Eligible Person claiming indemnification hereunder (other than one who has been Wholly Successful with respect to any Claim) shall be entitled to indemnification if it is determined, as provided in this Section 4.3.a, that such Eligible Person has met the standards of conduct set forth in clause (b) of Section 4.1. The determination whether an Eligible Person has met the required standards of conduct shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors not at the time parties to the Claim, and if such a quorum cannot be obtained; then (ii) by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors (in which designation, Directors who are parties to the Claim may participate) consisting solely of two (2) or more Directors not at the time parties to the Claim; and if such a committee cannot be constituted; then (iii) by the shareholders (but shares owned by or voted under the control of a Director who is at the time a party to the Claim may not be voted on the determination), and if there are no shareholders who are entitled to vote pursuant to the requirements of paragraph (iii); then (iv) by special legal counsel selected by a majority vote of the full Board of Directors (in which selection, a Director who is a party to the Claim may participate). If an Eligible Person is found to be entitled to indemnification pursuant to the preceding sentence, the reasonableness of the Eligible Person's Expenses shall be determined by the procedure set forth in the preceding sentence, except that if such determination is by special legal counsel, the reasonableness of Expenses shall be determined by a majority vote of the full Board of Directors (in which determination, a Director who is a party to the Claim may participate).

4.3.b If an Eligible Person claiming indemnification pursuant to Section 4.3.a of this Article 4 is found not to be entitled thereto, the Eligible Person may apply for indemnification with respect to a Claim to a court of competent jurisdiction, including a court in which the Claim is pending against the Eligible Person. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving notice to the Corporation and giving the Corporation ample opportunity to present to the court any information or evidence relating to the claim for indemnification that the Corporation deems appropriate, may order indemnification if it determines that the Eligible Person is entitled to indemnification with respect to the Claim because such Eligible Person met the standards of conduct set forth in clause (b) of Section 4.1 of this Article 4. If the court determines that the Eligible Person is entitled to indemnification, the court shall also determine the reasonableness of the Eligible Person's Expenses.

4.4 Nonexclusive Rights. The right of indemnification provided in this Article 4 shall be in addition to any rights to which any Eligible Person may otherwise be entitled. Irrespective of the provisions of this Article 4, the Board of Directors may, at any time and from time to time, (a) approve indemnification of any Eligible Person to the full extent permitted by the provisions of applicable law at the time in effect, whether on account of past or future transactions; and (b) authorize the Corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Eligible Person against any Liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such Liability.

4.5 Expenses. Expenses incurred by an Eligible Person with respect to any Claim shall be advanced by the Corporation (by action of the Board of Directors, whether or not a disinterested quorum exists) prior to the final disposition thereof if:

4.5.a The Eligible Person furnishes the Corporation a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standards of conduct specified in Section 4.1.b.

4.5.b The Eligible Person furnishes the Corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on the Eligible Person's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the Eligible Person did not meet the standards of conduct specified in Section 4.1.b.

4.5.c The Board of Directors makes a determination that the facts then known would not preclude indemnification of the Eligible Person.

4.6 Contract. The provisions of this Article 4 shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each Eligible Person and an Eligible Person's rights hereunder with respect to a Claim shall not be diminished or otherwise adversely affected by any repeal, amendment or modification of this Article 4 that occurs subsequent to the date of any action taken or not taken by reason of which such Eligible Person becomes involved in a Claim.

4.7 Effective Date. The provisions of this Article 4 shall be applicable to Claims made or commenced after the adoption hereof, whether arising from acts or omissions to act occurring before or after the adoption hereof.

5. ARTICLE 5 — CHECKS. All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money shall be signed in the name of the Corporation by such officers or persons as shall be designated from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors and included in the minute book of the Corporation.

6. ARTICLE 6 — LOANS. Such of the officers of the Corporation as shall be designated from time to time by any resolution adopted by the Board of Directors and included in the minute book of the Corporation shall have the power with such limitations thereon as may be fixed by the Board of Directors, to borrow money in the Corporation's behalf, to establish credit, to discount bills and papers, to pledge collateral and to execute such notices, bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness and such mortgages, trust indentures and other instruments in connection therewith, as may be authorized from time to time by such Board of Directors.

7. ARTICLE 7 — EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS. The President or any officer designated by the President may, in the Corporation's name, sign all deeds, leases, contracts or similar documents that may be authorized by the Board of Directors unless execution is otherwise provided for, required or directed by the Board of Directors, the corporation's Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation Law or other law.

8. ARTICLE 8 — SHARES.

8.1 Execution. Certificates for capital shares of the Corporation shall be signed by the President and the Secretary or two officers designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and the seal of the Corporation (or a facsimile thereof), if any, may be thereto affixed. Where any such certificate is also signed by a transfer agent or a registrar, or both, the signatures of the officers of the Corporation may be facsimiles. The Corporation may issue and deliver any such certificate notwithstanding that any such officer who shall have signed, or whose facsimile signature shall have been imprinted on, such certificate shall have ceased to be such officer.

8.2 Contents. Each certificate shall state on its face the name of the Corporation and that it is organized under the laws of the State of New Mexico, the name of the person to whom it is issued and the number and class and the designation of the series, if any, of shares the certificate represents and, whenever the corporation is authorized to issue more than one class of shares or different series within a class, each certificate issued after the effectiveness of such authorization shall further state conspicuously on its front or back that the Corporation will furnish the shareholder, upon his written request and without charge, a summary of the designations, relative rights, preferences and limitations applicable to each class and series and the authority of the Board of Directors to determine variations in rights, preferences and limitations for future series.

8.3 Transfers. Except as otherwise provided by law or by resolution of the Board of Directors, transfers of shares of the Corporation shall be made only on the books of the Corporation by the holder thereof in person or by duly authorized attorney, on payment of all taxes thereon and surrender for cancellation of the certificate or certificates for such shares (except as hereinafter provided in the case of loss, destruction or mutilation of certificates) properly endorsed by the holder thereof or accompanied by the proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer and delivered to the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary.

8.4 Share Transfer Records. There shall be entered upon the share record of the Corporation the number of each certificate issued; the name and address of the registered holder of such certificate; the number, kind and class or series of shares represented by such certificate; the date of issue; whether the shares are originally issued or transferred; the registered holder from whom transferred; and such other information as is commonly required to be shown by such records. The share records of the Corporation shall be kept at its principal office, unless the Corporation appoints a transfer agent or registrar, in which case the Corporation shall keep at its principal office a complete and accurate shareholders' list giving the name and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of shares held by each. If a transfer agent is appointed by the Corporation, shareholders shall give written notice of any changes in their addresses from time to time the transfer agent.

8.5 Transfer Agents and Registrars. The Board of Directors may appoint one or more transfer agents and one or more registrars and may require each share certificate to bear the signature of either or both.

8.6 Loss, Destruction or Mutilation of Certificate. The holder of any of the shares of the Corporation shall immediately notify the Corporation of any loss, destruction or mutilation of the certificate therefor, and the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, cause to be issued to him a new certificate or certificates of shares upon the surrender of the mutilated certificate or, in the case of loss or destruction, upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction. The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, require the holder of the lost or destroyed certificate or his legal representative to give the Corporation a bond in such sum and in such form, and with such surety or sureties as it may direct, to indemnify the Corporation, its transfer agents and its registrars, if any, against any claim that may be made against them or any of them with respect to the shares represented by the certificate or certificates alleged to have been lost or destroyed, but the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a new certificate or certificates, save upon the order of a court having jurisdiction in such matters.

8.7 Form of Certificates. The form of the certificates for shares of the Corporation shall conform to the requirements of Section 8.2 of these Bylaws and be in such printed form as shall from time to time be approved by resolution of the Board of Directors.

9. ARTICLE 9 — SEAL. The corporate seal of the Corporation shall, if the Corporation elects to have one, be in the form of a disc, with the name of the Corporation on the periphery thereof and the word "SEAL" in the center.

10. ARTICLE 10 — MISCELLANEOUS.

10.1 Corporation Law. The provisions of the Corporation Law, as it may from time to time be amended, applicable to all matters relevant to, but not specifically covered by, these Bylaws are hereby, by reference, incorporated in and made a part of these Bylaws. The term "Corporation Law" as used in these Bylaws means the New Mexico Business Corporation Law, as it may hereafter from time to time be amended and any statute which may in the future supersede or replace, in whole or in part the Corporation Law.

10.2 Definition of Articles of Incorporation. The term "Articles of Incorporation" as used in these Bylaws means the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, as amended and restated from time to time.

10.3 Amendments. These Bylaws may be rescinded, changed or amended and provisions hereof may be waived, at any annual, regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors by the affirmative vote of a majority of the number of Directors then in office, except as otherwise required by the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation or by the Corporation Law.

ALLIED WASTE INDUSTRIES (SOUTHWEST), INC.

Offices

Section 1.1 The principal office of the Corporation shall be, until changed by the Board of Directors, at Thunderbird Executive Park, 7585 East Redfield Road, Suite #106, Scottsdale, Arizona 85260. The Corporation may also have offices and branch offices at such other places within and without the State of Arizona as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

Shareholders Meetings

Section 2.1 Place. Except as hereinafter provided, any annual or special meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such place within or without the State of Arizona as may be selected by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors fails to designate a place for the meeting to be held, then the same shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation. Special meetings called for the purpose of removing directors shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Arizona or in the city or county in the State of Arizona in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located.

Section 2.2 Date of Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the 30th day in the month of December in each year at such time as may be specified in the notice of meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a holiday, such annual meeting shall be held on the next business day.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.4 Notice of Shareholders' Meetings, Annual or Special. Written or printed notice of each meeting of shareholders shall be delivered or given either personally or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Any notice of a shareholders' meeting given by mail shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid and addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation.

Section 2.5 Persons Authorized to Give Notice. Notice of an annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be given or delivered by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors.

Section 2.6 Written Waiver of Notice. Any notice required by these Bylaws may be waived by any person entitled thereto signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 2.7 Waiver of Attendance. Attendance of a shareholder at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 2.8 Quorum. A majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at any meeting, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act unless a larger vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law. If the holders of the number of shares necessary to constitute a quorum shall fail to attend in person or by proxy, a majority in interest of the shareholders present in person or by proxy shall have the right successively to adjourn the meeting to a specified date not longer than ninety (90) days after such adjournment. No notice need be given of such adjournment to shareholders not present at the meeting.

Section 2.9 Persons Authorized to Convene Meetings. Every meeting shall be convened by the President, the Secretary or some other officer or other person designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.10 Shareholder Action Without Meeting. Any action required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws to be taken at a meeting of shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the shareholders.

Voting Procedure

Section 3.1 List of Voters. The officer having charge of the transfer book for shares of the Corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting at least ten (10) days before such meeting. Said list shall be arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the number of shares held by each shareholder. Said list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to the meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Said list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at any meeting.

Section 3.2 Inspectors. At any meeting called for the election of directors, if the presiding officer of the Corporation or a majority in number of shares present at such meeting desire, the President or other person presiding at the meeting shall appoint not less than two (2) persons, who are not directors, as inspectors to receive and canvass the votes given at such meeting and certify the result to him. Any inspector, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the following oath before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear, that I will execute the duties of an inspector of the election now to be held with strict impartiality, and according to the best of my ability."

Section 3.3 Record Date/Close of Transfer Books. The Board of Directors shall have the power to close the stock transfer books of the Corporation for a period not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or, in lieu thereof, to fix in advance a date not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting. If the Board of Directors shall not have closed the transfer books or fixed a record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, a meeting of shareholders, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the close of business of the 20th day preceding the date of the meeting shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting; except that if, prior to the meeting, written waivers of notice of the meeting are signed and delivered to the Corporation by all of the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened shall be entitled to vote at the meeting, and any adjournment of the meeting.

Votes

Section 4.1 Eligible Votes. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share entitled to vote under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall be entitled to one vote (or a fractional vote for each fractional share) on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. No cumulative voting shall be permitted with respect to the election of directors or any other matter.

Section 4.2 Proxies. A shareholder may vote, with respect to any matter, including but not limited to the election of directors, which may come before a meeting of shareholders, either in person, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by applicable law, by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only so long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power of attorney. The interest with which it is coupled need not be an interest in the shares themselves. In any case in which application law requires, as a condition to the validity of a proxy, that it provide that it is revocable, a proxy which does not provide that it is revocable shall be wholly invalid, and not valid but revocable.

Section 4.3 Corporate Shareholders. Shares of stock of the Corporation standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provisions, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Section 4.4 Deceased Shareholders. Shares of stock standing in the name of a deceased person may be voted by his personal representative, either in person or by proxy.

Section 4.5 Conservators and Trustees. Shares standing in the name of a conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) may be voted by such fiduciary, either in person or by proxy, but no conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) shall be entitled, as such fiduciary, to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Section 4.6 Receivers and Trustees in Bankruptcy. Shares standing in the name of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do is conferred by applicable law or is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy was appointed.

Section 4.7 Pledges. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Board of Directors

Section 5.1 Management and Number. The property, business and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled and managed by a Board of Directors consisting of three members, none of whom need be shareholders or residents of any particular state. Unless fixed by the Articles of Incorporation, the number of directors may at any time be increased or decreased by amendment of these Bylaws. Any changes in the number of directors effected by an amendment to these Bylaws shall be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) calendar days following such change.

Section 5.2 Election and Vacancies. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal. Vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors to constitute the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, until the next election of directors by the shareholders at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 5.3 Quorum. A majority of the full Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, such meeting may be adjourned any number of times, without further notice, by a majority of the directors present.

Section 5.4 Place/Manner of Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that in the event of adjournment of said annual meeting of the Board of Directors the meeting may be reconvened at any place within or without the State of Arizona, as may be designated by the directors adjourning said meeting. All regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation or at such other place within or without the State of Arizona as may be designated by the Board of Directors or the officer calling the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the Board of Directors may participate in any regular or special meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in any such meeting by such means shall constitute presence and attendance at such meeting for all purposes.

Section 5.5 Time of Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that if a quorum cannot then be assembled, said meeting shall be adjourned until such time as a quorum may be assembled, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the annual meeting of shareholders. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently and at such times as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon call of the Chairman of the Board (if one be elected), the President, or a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.6 Notice. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission addressed to him at his usual business address at least five (5) days prior to the meeting in case of notice by mail at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting in case of notice by telegram or facsimile transmission, or by communicating notice to a director directly (and not through a secretary, family member or other person), either orally or in writing at a face-to-face meeting or by telephone, at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting. A notice given by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission shall be deemed given to any director when directed to such director at his address or (in the case of notice by facsimile transmission) facsimile transmission number as it appears in the records of the Corporation and when deposited in the United States Mail, postage prepaid, when delivered to an appropriate telegraph office, charges prepaid, or when the sender's facsimile transmission equipment indicates that transmission has been completed, as the case may be. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 5.7 Waiver. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Notice may also be waived by a director by signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting. Any waiver of notice by either of the means specified in this Section 5.7 shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 5.8 Action by Directors Without Meeting. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.9 Compensation. The compensation of the directors may be set from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, and a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude a director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 5.10 Removal. At a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the following manner. Such meeting shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Arizona or in the city or county in the State of Arizona in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located. One or more directors or the entire Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors; provided, however, that if less than the entire Board is to be removed and if the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him in then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors.

Committees

Section 6.1 Executive Committee. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, may designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution and in any subsequent resolution delegating additional authority or revoking any previous delegation of authority, shall have and exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation. The designation of such an Executive Committee and the delegation thereto of authority by the Board of Directors shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law.

Section 6.2 Other Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors to constitute such other committees not having or exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation, but to deal with, address and study specific subjects or issues and to make reports and recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect thereto, all as specified by the Board.

Section 6.3 Committee Procedure. The majority of all the members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may fix its rules of procedure, determine its action and fix the time and place (whether within or without the State of Arizona) of its meetings and specify what notice thereof, if any, shall be given, unless the Board of Directors shall provide otherwise by resolution. Members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Actions taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, shall have the power to fill vacancies, to appoint one or more directors to serve as alternate members of the Executive Committee or other committees, and, at any time, to abolish the Executive Committee or any other committee or remove any directors therefrom, either with or without cause.

Section 6.4 Action by Unanimous Consent. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors who are members of said committee. Each such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the committee. Such a consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the members of the committee taken at a meeting thereof.

Officers

Section 7.1 Required and Permitted Officers. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Secretary and such other officers, including a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, and other assistant officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time elect. If more than one Vice President be elected, the Board may determine the seniority of each of said Vice Presidents. Any two or more offices may be held by the same individual.

Section 7.2 Election and Term. The President and Secretary shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the shareholders and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may elect other officers at any meeting of the Board. Any such other officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.3 Removal. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served by such removal, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights of the person so removed under any contract between such person and the corporation, except to the extent provided in any such contract.

Section 7.4 Vacancies. In case any office shall become vacant by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the directors then in office, although less than a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may, by a majority vote of those voting, choose a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

Section 7.5 Compensation of Officers. The Board of Directors, or such officer as it may designate, may fix the compensation for the officers of the Corporation and may fix the compensation for such other officers and agents as may from time to time be appointed.

Section 7.6 Bond. The Board of Directors, by resolution, may require any and all of the officers to give bond to the Corporation, with sufficient surety or sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and to comply with such other conditions as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors.

Duties of Officers

Section 8.1 Chairman of the Board. If a Chairman of the Board be elected, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he may be present. The Board of Directors may delegate such other authority and assign such additional duties to the Chairman of the Board, other than those conferred by law exclusively upon the President, as it may from time to time determine. The Board also may designate the Chairman of the Board as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, with all of the powers otherwise conferred upon the President of the Corporation.

The Board also may provide that the Chairman of the Board shall have the powers of the chief executive officer coextensively with the President, or it may, from time to time, divide the powers, responsibilities, duties and authority of the chief executive officer between the Chairman of the Board and the President.

Section 8.2 The President. Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation with such general executive powers and duties of supervision and management as are usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation.

He shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect, subject to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers to any other officer or officers of the Corporation.

He shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, at meetings of the Board of Directors.

He, along with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the Corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, may sign certificates for shares of the Corporation, deeds, conveyances, bonds, mortgages, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, and unless the Board of Directors shall order otherwise by resolution, he may make such contracts and execute such certificates, documents and other instruments as may be incident thereto, as the ordinary conduct of the Corporation's business may require.

Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President or any person designated in writing by him may (i) attend meetings of shareholders of other corporations to represent the Corporation there at and to vote or take action with respect to other shares of any such corporation owned by this Corporation in such manner as he or his designee may determine; and (ii) execute and deliver written consents, waivers of notice and proxies for and in the name of the Corporation with respect to any such shares owned by this Corporation.

He shall, unless the Board provides otherwise, be, ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee and all other committees of the Board of Directors.

If a Chairman of the Board be elected or appointed and designated as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, the President shall perform such duties as may be specifically delegated to him by the Board of Directors as are conferred by law exclusively upon him. In the absence, disability or inability to act of the Chairman of the Board, the President shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chairman of the Board.

Section 8.3 Vice Presidents. Any Vice President elected by the Board of Directors shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to him and shall exercise such powers as may be granted to him by the Board of Directors or by the President of the Corporation. In the absence of the President, the Vice Presidents, in order of their seniority, may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President with the same force and effect as if performed by the President.

Section 8.4 The Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee (if any) and any other committee or committees of the Board in one of the books provided for that purpose.

He shall be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation. He shall see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all certificates for shares prior to the issue thereof and to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and applicable law.

He shall sign with the President or a Vice President, certificates for shares of the Corporation, the issue of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the stock transfer book of the Corporation.

He shall keep a register of the post office address of each shareholder which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such shareholder.

He shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law and that the voting list is prepared for shareholders' meetings.

In general, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.5 The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for the funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors or by any officer of the Corporation to whom such authority has been granted by the Board of Directors.

He shall disburse or permit to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered or authorized generally by the Board.

He shall render to the chief executive officer of the Corporation and the directors whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of those under his jurisdiction and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

In general, he shall perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.6 Assistant Officers. Each assistant officer that may be selected pursuant to these Bylaws shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. In the absence or nonavailability of the principal, the assistant may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the principal with the same force and effect as if performed by the principal. The assistant shall also have such lesser or greater authority and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

Contracts, Checks, Loans and Deposits

Section 9.1 All contracts and agreements authorized by the Board of Directors and all checks, drafts, bills of exchange or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or agent or agents, as may from time to time be permitted by these Bylaws, or as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, the President or such officer or officers as the Board of Directors may appoint. The designation or designations may be general or confined to specific instances. The Board of Directors may authorize the use of facsimile signatures on any such document.

Issuance and Transfer of Stock

Section 10.1 Board Authorization. The issuance of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be authorized by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the Arizona Business Corporation Act.

Section 10.2 Certificates. Certificates of stock of the Corporation shall be numbered and registered as they are issued. They shall exhibit the holder's name and the number of shares and shall be signed by the President or a Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and shall bear the corporate seal, which may be facsimile, engraved or printed. If any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registrar other than the Corporation or an employee of the Corporation, any other signature thereon may be facsimile, engraved or printed. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, such certificate may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person was such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 10.3 Transfers. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney-in-fact, lawfully constituted in writing, upon surrender of such certificate duly and properly endorsed.

Section 10.4 Lost Certificates. In case of the loss or destruction of any certificate of stock, a new certificate may be issued upon the following conditions: The owner shall file with the Secretary an affidavit giving the facts in relation to the ownership and the loss or destruction of said certificate, stating its number and the number of shares represented thereby. The Secretary shall present such affidavit to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that such certificate has been destroyed or lost, and that a new certificate ought to be issued in lieu thereof, the Board may direct the officers of the Corporation to issue a new certificate, or the Board may condition the issuance of a new certificate upon the filing of a bond, in an amount and with a surety acceptable to the Board of Directors, to indemnify the Corporation and save it harmless from any loss, expense, damage or liability occasioned by the issuance of such new certificate. Upon receipt of the Board's direction, or the filing of any required bond, the proper officers of the Corporation shall issue a new certificate for the same number of shares to the owner of the certificate so lost or destroyed.

Section 10.5 Transfer Books. Proper books shall be kept under the direction of the Secretary showing the ownership and transfer of all certificates of stock. These books shall constitute the test of the qualifications of voters at any shareholders' meeting.

Fiscal Year

Section 11.1 The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as established by the Board of Directors.

Dividends

Section 12.1 The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares subject to the limitations and conditions imposed by applicable law and subject also to any restrictions contained in the Articles of Incorporation.

Seal

Section 13.1 The seal of the Corporation shall be in circular form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation and the words "Corporate Seal" and "Arizona." The Board of Directors may, by resolution, change the form of the corporate seal from time to time.

Inspection of Books and Records

Section 14.1 Upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation, a shareholder, acting in good faith and for a proper purpose, may inspect such books and records of the Corporation as shall be specifically identified in the notice, provided that the Corporation shall be required by law to produce the same. The requirement of thirty (30) days' written notice may be reduced to a lesser number of days by the Board of Directors where the shareholder demonstrates a proper need for more immediate inspection of such books and records. The notice requesting inspection shall specify the purpose for which the examination is desired, the probable duration of the examination, and the names of those individuals who desire to be present during the examination. The inspection shall be performed during the Corporation's usual and customary hours of business and in such manner as will not unduly interfere with the regular conduct of the business of the Corporation. The inspection may be supervised by an officer or agent of the Corporation and the inspection shall be conducted at either the Corporation's registered office, the Corporation's principal place of business, or at the office of the Corporation's counsel, as shall be determined by the President. Upon a proper showing of need, a shareholder may utilize the assistance of attorneys, accountants or other experts in connection with the inspection, provided that, if required by the Board of Directors, the shareholder and the experts shall agree to furnish to the Corporation, as promptly as completed or made, a true and correct copy of any and every report or other written memorandum with respect to such inspection made by such experts. No shareholder shall use or permit to be used or acquiesce in the use by others of any information so obtained to the detriment of the Corporation, nor shall furnish or permit to be furnished any information so obtained to any competitor or prospective competitor of the Corporation. The Corporation, as a condition precedent to any shareholder's inspection of the records of the Corporation, may require the shareholder to indemnify the Corporation against any loss or damage which may be suffered by it arising out of or resulting from any unauthorized disclosure made or permitted to be made by such shareholder, his employee or agent of information obtained in the course of inspection.

Amendments

Section 15.1 These Bylaws may be made, altered, amended, or replaced in the manner specified in the Articles of Incorporation.

Miscellaneous

Section 16.1 Interpretation. Whenever the context so requires, the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural and conversely.

Section 16.2 Inoperative Portion. If any portion of these Bylaws shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder shall be considered valid and operative, and effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

Section 16.3 Table of Contents — Headings. The table of contents and headings are for organization, convenience and clarity and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these Bylaws nor the intent of any provision thereof.

BYLAWS OF ALLIED WASTE INDUSTRIES OF GEORGIA, INC.

Offices

Section 1.1 The principal office of the Corporation shall be, until changed by the Board of Directors, at 4696 South Cobb Drive, Smyrna, Georgia 30080. The Corporation may also have offices and branch offices at such other places within and without the State of Georgia as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

Shareholders Meetings

Section 2.1 Place. Except as hereinafter provided, any annual or special meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such place within or without the State of Georgia as may be selected by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors fails to designate a place for the meeting to be held, then the same shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation. Special meetings called for the purpose of removing directors shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Georgia or in the city or county in the State of Georgia in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located.

Section 2.2 Date of Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the 30th day in the month of April in each year at such time as may be specified in the notice of meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a holiday, such annual meeting shall be held on the next business day.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.4 Notice of Shareholders' Meetings, Annual or Special. Written or printed notice of each meeting of shareholders shall be delivered or given either personally or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Any notice of a shareholders' meeting given by mail shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid and addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation.

Section 2.5 Persons Authorized to Give Notice. Notice of an annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be given or delivered by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors.

Section 2.6 Written Waiver of Notice. Any notice required by these Bylaws may be waived by any person entitled thereto signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 2.7 Waiver of Attendance. Attendance of a shareholder at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 2.8 Quorum. A majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at any meeting, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act unless a larger vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law. If the holders of the number of shares necessary to constitute a quorum shall fail to attend in person or by proxy, a majority in interest of the shareholders present in person or by proxy shall have the right successively to adjourn the meeting to a specified date not longer than ninety (90) days after such adjournment. No notice need be given of such adjournment to shareholders not present at the meeting.

Section 2.9 Persons Authorized to Convene Meetings. Every meeting shall be convened by the President, the Secretary or some other officer or other person designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.10 Shareholder Action Without Meeting. Any action required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws to be taken at a meeting of shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the shareholders.

Voting Procedure

Section 3.1 List of Voters. The officer having charge of the transfer book for shares of the Corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting at least ten (10) days before such meeting. Said list shall be arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the number of shares held by each shareholder. Said list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to the meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Said list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at any meeting.

Section 3.2 Inspectors. At any meeting called for the election of directors, if the presiding officer of the Corporation or a majority in number of shares present at such meeting desire, the President or other person presiding at the meeting shall appoint not less than two (2) persons, who are not directors, as inspectors to receive and canvass the votes given at such meeting and certify the result to him. Any inspector, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the following oath before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear, that I will execute the duties of an inspector of the election now to be held with strict impartiality, and according to the best of my ability."

Section 3.3 Record Date/Close of Transfer Books. The Board of Directors shall have the power to close the stock transfer books of the Corporation for a period not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or, in lieu thereof, to fix in advance a date not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting. If the Board of Directors shall not have closed the transfer books or fixed a record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, a meeting of shareholders, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the close of business of the 20th day preceding the date of the meeting shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting; except that if, prior to the meeting, written waivers of notice of the meeting are signed and delivered to the Corporation by all of the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened shall be entitled to vote at the meeting, and any adjournment of the meeting.

Votes

Section 4.1 Eligible Votes. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share entitled to vote under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall be entitled to one vote (or a fractional vote for each fractional share) on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. No cumulative voting shall be permitted with respect to the election of directors or any other matter.

Section 4.2 Proxies. A shareholder may vote, with respect to any matter, including but not limited to the election of directors, which may come before a meeting of shareholders, either in person, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by applicable law, by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only so long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power of attorney. The interest with which it is coupled need not be an interest in the shares themselves. In any case in which application law requires, as a condition to the validity of a proxy, that it provide that it is revocable, a proxy which does not provide that it is revocable shall be wholly invalid, and not valid but revocable.

Section 4.3 Corporate Shareholders. Shares of stock of the Corporation standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provisions, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Section 4.4 Deceased Shareholders. Shares of stock standing in the name of a deceased person may be voted by his personal representative, either in person or by proxy.

Section 4.5 Conservators and Trustees. Shares standing in the name of a conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) may be voted by such fiduciary, either in person or by proxy, but no conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) shall be entitled, as such fiduciary, to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Section 4.6 Receivers and Trustees in Bankruptcy. Shares standing in the name of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do is conferred by applicable law or is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy was appointed.

Section 4.7 Pledges. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Board of Directors

Section 5.1 Management and Number. The property, business and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled and managed by a Board of Directors consisting of three members, none of whom need be shareholders or residents of any particular state. Unless fixed by the Articles of Incorporation, the number of directors may at any time be increased or decreased by amendment of these Bylaws. Any changes in the number of directors effected by an amendment to these Bylaws shall be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) calendar days following such change.

Section 5.2 Election and Vacancies. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal. Vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors to constitute the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, until the next election of directors by the shareholders at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 5.3 Quorum. A majority of the full Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, such meeting may be adjourned any number of times, without further notice, by a majority of the directors present.

Section 5.4 Place/Manner of Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that in the event of adjournment of said annual meeting of the Board of Directors the meeting may be reconvened at any place within or without the State of Georgia, as may be designated by the directors adjourning said meeting. All regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation or at such other place within or without the State of Georgia as may be designated by the Board of Directors or the officer calling the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the Board of Directors may participate in any regular or special meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in any such meeting by such means shall constitute presence and attendance at such meeting for all purposes.

Section 5.5 Time of Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that if a quorum cannot then be assembled, said meeting shall be adjourned until such time as a quorum may be assembled, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the annual meeting of shareholders. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently and at such times as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon call of the Chairman of the Board (if one be elected), the President, or a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.6 Notice. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission addressed to him at his usual business address at least five (5) days prior to the meeting in case of notice by mail at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting in case of notice by telegram or facsimile transmission, or by communicating notice to a director directly (and not through a secretary, family member or other person), either orally or in writing at a face-to-face meeting or by telephone, at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting. A notice given by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission shall be deemed given to any director when directed to such director at his address or (in the case of notice by facsimile transmission) facsimile transmission number as it appears in the records of the Corporation and when deposited in the United States Mail, postage prepaid, when delivered to an appropriate telegraph office, charges prepaid, or when the sender's facsimile transmission equipment indicates that transmission has been completed, as the case may be. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 5.7 Waiver. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Notice may also be waived by a director by signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting. Any waiver of notice by either of the means specified in this Section 5.7 shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 5.8 Action by Directors Without Meeting. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.9 Compensation. The compensation of the directors may be set from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, and a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude a director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 5.10 Removal. At a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the following manner. Such meeting shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Georgia or in the city or county in the State of Georgia in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located. One or more directors or the entire Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors; provided, however, that if less than the entire Board is to be removed and if the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him in then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors.

Committees

Section 6.1 Executive Committee. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, may designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution and in any subsequent resolution delegating additional authority or revoking any previous delegation of authority, shall have and exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation. The designation of such an Executive Committee and the delegation thereto of authority by the Board of Directors shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law.

Section 6.2 Other Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors to constitute such other committees not having or exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation, but to deal with, address and study specific subjects or issues and to make reports and recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect thereto, all as specified by the Board.

Section 6.3 Committee Procedure. The majority of all the members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may fix its rules of procedure, determine its action and fix the time and place (whether within or without the State of Georgia) of its meetings and specify what notice thereof, if any, shall be given, unless the Board of Directors shall provide otherwise by resolution. Members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Actions taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, shall have the power to fill vacancies, to appoint one or more directors to serve as alternate members of the Executive Committee or other committees, and, at any time, to abolish the Executive Committee or any other committee or remove any directors therefrom, either with or without cause.

Section 6.4 Action by Unanimous Consent. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors who are members of said committee. Each such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the committee. Such a consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the members of the committee taken at a meeting thereof.

Officers

Section 7.1 Required and Permitted Officers. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Secretary and such other officers, including a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, and other assistant officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time elect. If more than one Vice President be elected, the Board may determine the seniority of each of said Vice Presidents. Any two or more offices may be held by the same individual.

Section 7.2 Election and Term. The President and Secretary shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the shareholders and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may elect other officers at any meeting of the Board. Any such other officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.3 Removal. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served by such removal, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights of the person so removed under any contract between such person and the corporation, except to the extent provided in any such contract.

Section 7.4 Vacancies. In case any office shall become vacant by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the directors then in office, although less than a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may, by a majority vote of those voting, choose a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

Section 7.5 Compensation of Officers. The Board of Directors, or such officer as it may designate, may fix the compensation for the officers of the Corporation and may fix the compensation for such other officers and agents as may from time to time be appointed.

Section 7.6 Bond. The Board of Directors, by resolution, may require any and all of the officers to give bond to the Corporation, with sufficient surety or sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and to comply with such other conditions as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors.

Duties of Officers

Section 8.1 Chairman of the Board. If a Chairman of the Board be elected, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he may be present. The Board of Directors may delegate such other authority and assign such additional duties to the Chairman of the Board, other than those conferred by law exclusively upon the President, as it may from time to time determine. The Board also may designate the Chairman of the Board as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, with all of the powers otherwise conferred upon the President of the Corporation.

The Board also may provide that the Chairman of the Board shall have the powers of the chief executive officer coextensively with the President, or it may, from time to time, divide the powers, responsibilities, duties and authority of the chief executive officer between the Chairman of the Board and the President.

Section 8.2 The President. Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation with such general executive powers and duties of supervision and management as are usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation.

He shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect, subject to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers to any other officer or officers of the Corporation.

He shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, at meetings of the Board of Directors.

He, along with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the Corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, may sign certificates for shares of the Corporation, deeds, conveyances, bonds, mortgages, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, and unless the Board of Directors shall order otherwise by resolution, he may make such contracts and execute such certificates, documents and other instruments as may be incident thereto, as the ordinary conduct of the Corporation's business may require.

Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President or any person designated in writing by him may (i) attend meetings of shareholders of other corporations to represent the Corporation there at and to vote or take action with respect to other shares of any such corporation owned by this Corporation in such manner as he or his designee may determine; and (ii) execute and deliver written consents, waivers of notice and proxies for and in the name of the Corporation with respect to any such shares owned by this Corporation.

He shall, unless the Board provides otherwise, be, ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee and all other committees of the Board of Directors.

If a Chairman of the Board be elected or appointed and designated as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, the President shall perform such duties as may be specifically delegated to him by the Board of Directors as are conferred by law exclusively upon him. In the absence, disability or inability to act of the Chairman of the Board, the President shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chairman of the Board.

Section 8.3 Vice Presidents. Any Vice President elected by the Board of Directors shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to him and shall exercise such powers as may be granted to him by the Board of Directors or by the President of the Corporation. In the absence of the President, the Vice Presidents, in order of their seniority, may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President with the same force and effect as if performed by the President.

Section 8.4 The Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee (if any) and any other committee or committees of the Board in one of the books provided for that purpose.

He shall be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation. He shall see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all certificates for shares prior to the issue thereof and to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and applicable law.

He shall sign with the President or a Vice President, certificates for shares of the Corporation, the issue of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the stock transfer book of the Corporation.

He shall keep a register of the post office address of each shareholder which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such shareholder.

He shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law and that the voting list is prepared for shareholders' meetings.

In general, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.5 The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for the funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors or by any officer of the Corporation to whom such authority has been granted by the Board of Directors.

He shall disburse or permit to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered or authorized generally by the Board.

He shall render to the chief executive officer of the Corporation and the directors whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of those under his jurisdiction and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

In general, he shall perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.6 Assistant Officers. Each assistant officer that may be selected pursuant to these Bylaws shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. In the absence or nonavailability of the principal, the assistant may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the principal with the same force and effect as if performed by the principal. The assistant shall also have such lesser or greater authority and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

Contracts, Checks, Loans and Deposits

Section 9.1 All contracts and agreements authorized by the Board of Directors and all checks, drafts, bills of exchange or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or agent or agents, as may from time to time be permitted by these Bylaws, or as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, the President or such officer or officers as the Board of Directors may appoint. The designation or designations may be general or confined to specific instances. The Board of Directors may authorize the use of facsimile signatures on any such document.

Issuance and Transfer of Stock

Section 10.1 Board Authorization. The issuance of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be authorized by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the Georgia Business Corporation Act.

Section 10.2 Certificates. Certificates of stock of the Corporation shall be numbered and registered as they are issued. They shall exhibit the holder's name and the number of shares and shall be signed by the President or a Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and shall bear the corporate seal, which may be facsimile, engraved or printed. If any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registrar other than the Corporation or an employee of the Corporation, any other signature thereon may be facsimile, engraved or printed. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, such certificate may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person was such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 10.3 Transfers. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney-in-fact, lawfully constituted in writing, upon surrender of such certificate duly and properly endorsed.

Section 10.4 Lost Certificates. In case of the loss or destruction of any certificate of stock, a new certificate may be issued upon the following conditions: The owner shall file with the Secretary an affidavit giving the facts in relation to the ownership and the loss or destruction of said certificate, stating its number and the number of shares represented thereby. The Secretary shall present such affidavit to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that such certificate has been destroyed or lost, and that a new certificate ought to be issued in lieu thereof, the Board may direct the officers of the Corporation to issue a new certificate, or the Board may condition the issuance of a new certificate upon the filing of a bond, in an amount and with a surety acceptable to the Board of Directors, to indemnify the Corporation and save it harmless from any loss, expense, damage or liability occasioned by the issuance of such new certificate. Upon receipt of the Board's direction, or the filing of any required bond, the proper officers of the Corporation shall issue a new certificate for the same number of shares to the owner of the certificate so lost or destroyed.

Section 10.5 Transfer Books. Proper books shall be kept under the direction of the Secretary showing the ownership and transfer of all certificates of stock. These books shall constitute the test of the qualifications of voters at any shareholders' meeting.

Fiscal Year

Section 11.1 The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as established by the Board of Directors.

Dividends

Section 12.1 The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares subject to the limitations and conditions imposed by applicable law and subject also to any restrictions contained in the Articles of Incorporation.

Seal

Section 13.1 The seal of the Corporation shall be in circular form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation and the words "Corporate Seal" and "Georgia." The Board of Directors may, by resolution, change the form of the corporate seal from time to time.

Inspection of Books and Records

Section 14.1 Upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation, a shareholder, acting in good faith and for a proper purpose, may inspect such books and records of the Corporation as shall be specifically identified in the notice, provided that the Corporation shall be required by law to produce the same. The requirement of thirty (30) days' written notice may be reduced to a lesser number of days by the Board of Directors where the shareholder demonstrates a proper need for more immediate inspection of such books and records. The notice requesting inspection shall specify the purpose for which the examination is desired, the probable duration of the examination, and the names of those individuals who desire to be present during the examination. The inspection shall be performed during the Corporation's usual and customary hours of business and in such manner as will not unduly interfere with the regular conduct of the business of the Corporation. The inspection may be supervised by an officer or agent of the Corporation and the inspection shall be conducted at either the Corporation's registered office, the Corporation's principal place of business, or at the office of the Corporation's counsel, as shall be determined by the President. Upon a proper showing of need, a shareholder may utilize the assistance of attorneys, accountants or other experts in connection with the inspection, provided that, if required by the Board of Directors, the shareholder and the experts shall agree to furnish to the Corporation, as promptly as completed or made, a true and correct copy of any and every report or other written memorandum with respect to such inspection made by such experts. No shareholder shall use or permit to be used or acquiesce in the use by others of any information so obtained to the detriment of the Corporation, nor shall furnish or permit to be furnished any information so obtained to any competitor or prospective competitor of the Corporation. The Corporation, as a condition precedent to any shareholder's inspection of the records of the Corporation, may require the shareholder to indemnify the Corporation against any loss or damage which may be suffered by it arising out of or resulting from any unauthorized disclosure made or permitted to be made by such shareholder, his employee or agent of information obtained in the course of inspection.

Amendments

Section 15.1 These Bylaws may be made, altered, amended, or replaced in the manner specified in the Articles of Incorporation.

Miscellaneous

Section 16.1 Interpretation. Whenever the context so requires, the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural and conversely.

Section 16.2 Inoperative Portion. If any portion of these Bylaws shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder shall be considered valid and operative, and effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

Section 16.3 Table of Contents — Headings. The table of contents and headings are for organization, convenience and clarity and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these Bylaws nor the intent of any provision thereof.

Offices

Section 1.1 The principal office of the Corporation shall be, until changed by the Board of Directors, at 1279 North Bataan Road, Dixon, Illinois 61021. The Corporation may also have offices and branch offices at such other places within and without the State of Illinois as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

Shareholders Meetings

Section 2.1 Place. Except as hereinafter provided, any annual or special meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such place within or without the State of Illinois as may be selected by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors fails to designate a place for the meeting to be held, then the same shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation. Special meetings called for the purpose of removing directors shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Illinois or in the city or county in the State of Illinois in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located.

Section 2.2 Date of Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the 30th day in the month of December in each year at such time as may be specified in the notice of meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a holiday, such annual meeting shall be held on the next business day.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.4 Notice of Shareholders' Meetings, Annual or Special. Written or printed notice of each meeting of shareholders shall be delivered or given either personally or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Any notice of a shareholders' meeting given by mail shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid and addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation.

Section 2.5 Persons Authorized to Give Notice. Notice of an annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be given or delivered by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors.

Section 2.6 Written Waiver of Notice. Any notice required by these Bylaws may be waived by any person entitled thereto signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 2.7 Waiver of Attendance. Attendance of a shareholder at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 2.8 Quorum. A majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at any meeting, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act unless a larger vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law. If the holders of the number of shares necessary to constitute a quorum shall fail to attend in person or by proxy, a majority in interest of the shareholders present in person or by proxy shall have the right successively to adjourn the meeting to a specified date not longer than ninety (90) days after such adjournment. No notice need be given of such adjournment to shareholders not present at the meeting.

Section 2.9 Persons Authorized to Convene Meetings. Every meeting shall be convened by the President, the Secretary or some other officer or other person designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.10 Shareholder Action Without Meeting. Any action required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws to be taken at a meeting of shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the shareholders.

Voting Procedure

Section 3.1 List of Voters. The officer having charge of the transfer book for shares of the Corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting at least ten (10) days before such meeting. Said list shall be arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the number of shares held by each shareholder. Said list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to the meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Said list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at any meeting.

Section 3.2 Inspectors. At any meeting called for the election of directors, if the presiding officer of the Corporation or a majority in number of shares present at such meeting desire, the President or other person presiding at the meeting shall appoint not less than two (2) persons, who are not directors, as inspectors to receive and canvass the votes given at such meeting and certify the result to him. Any inspector, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the following oath before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear, that I will execute the duties of an inspector of the election now to be held with strict impartiality, and according to the best of my ability."

Section 3.3 Record Date/Close of Transfer Books. The Board of Directors shall have the power to close the stock transfer books of the Corporation for a period not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or, in lieu thereof, to fix in advance a date not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting. If the Board of Directors shall not have closed the transfer books or fixed a record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, a meeting of shareholders, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the close of business of the 20th day preceding the date of the meeting shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting; except that if, prior to the meeting, written waivers of notice of the meeting are signed and delivered to the Corporation by all of the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened shall be entitled to vote at the meeting, and any adjournment of the meeting.

Votes

Section 4.1 Eligible Votes. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share entitled to vote under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall be entitled to one vote (or a fractional vote for each fractional share) on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. No cumulative voting shall be permitted with respect to the election of directors or any other matter.

Section 4.2 Proxies. A shareholder may vote, with respect to any matter, including but not limited to the election of directors, which may come before a meeting of shareholders, either in person, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by applicable law, by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only so long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power of attorney. The interest with which it is coupled need not be an interest in the shares themselves. In any case in which application law requires, as a condition to the validity of a proxy, that it provide that it is revocable, a proxy which does not provide that it is revocable shall be wholly invalid, and not valid but revocable.

Section 4.3 Corporate Shareholders. Shares of stock of the Corporation standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provisions, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Section 4.4 Deceased Shareholders. Shares of stock standing in the name of a deceased person may be voted by his personal representative, either in person or by proxy.

Section 4.5 Conservators and Trustees. Shares standing in the name of a conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) may be voted by such fiduciary, either in person or by proxy, but no conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) shall be entitled, as such fiduciary, to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Section 4.6 Receivers and Trustees in Bankruptcy. Shares standing in the name of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do is conferred by applicable law or is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy was appointed.

Section 4.7 Pledges. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Board of Directors

Section 5.1 Management and Number. The property, business and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled and managed by a Board of Directors consisting of three members, none of whom need be shareholders or residents of any particular state. Unless fixed by the Articles of Incorporation, the number of directors may at any time be increased or decreased by amendment of these Bylaws. Any changes in the number of directors effected by an amendment to these Bylaws shall be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) calendar days following such change.

Section 5.2 Election and Vacancies. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal. Vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors to constitute the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, until the next election of directors by the shareholders at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 5.3 Quorum. A majority of the full Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, such meeting may be adjourned any number of times, without further notice, by a majority of the directors present.

Section 5.4 Place/Manner of Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that in the event of adjournment of said annual meeting of the Board of Directors the meeting may be reconvened at any place within or without the State of Illinois, as may be designated by the directors adjourning said meeting. All regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation or at such other place within or without the State of Illinois as may be designated by the Board of Directors or the officer calling the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the Board of Directors may participate in any regular or special meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in any such meeting by such means shall constitute presence and attendance at such meeting for all purposes.

Section 5.5 Time of Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that if a quorum cannot then be assembled, said meeting shall be adjourned until such time as a quorum may be assembled, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the annual meeting of shareholders. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently and at such times as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon call of the Chairman of the Board (if one be elected), the President, or a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.6 Notice. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission addressed to him at his usual business address at least five (5) days prior to the meeting in case of notice by mail at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting in case of notice by telegram or facsimile transmission, or by communicating notice to a director directly (and not through a secretary, family member or other person), either orally or in writing at a face-to-face meeting or by telephone, at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting. A notice given by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission shall be deemed given to any director when directed to such director at his address or (in the case of notice by facsimile transmission) facsimile transmission number as it appears in the records of the Corporation and when deposited in the United States Mail, postage prepaid, when delivered to an appropriate telegraph office, charges prepaid, or when the sender's facsimile transmission equipment indicates that transmission has been completed, as the case may be. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 5.7 Waiver. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Notice may also be waived by a director by signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting. Any waiver of notice by either of the means specified in this Section 5.7 shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 5.8 Action by Directors Without Meeting. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.9 Compensation. The compensation of the directors may be set from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, and a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude a director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 5.10 Removal. At a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the following manner. Such meeting shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Illinois or in the city or county in the State of Illinois in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located. One or more directors or the entire Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors; provided, however, that if less than the entire Board is to be removed and if the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him in then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors.

Committees

Section 6.1 Executive Committee. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, may designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution and in any subsequent resolution delegating additional authority or revoking any previous delegation of authority, shall have and exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation. The designation of such an Executive Committee and the delegation thereto of authority by the Board of Directors shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law.

Section 6.2 Other Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors to constitute such other committees not having or exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation, but to deal with, address and study specific subjects or issues and to make reports and recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect thereto, all as specified by the Board.

Section 6.3 Committee Procedure. The majority of all the members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may fix its rules of procedure, determine its action and fix the time and place (whether within or without the State of Illinois) of its meetings and specify what notice thereof, if any, shall be given, unless the Board of Directors shall provide otherwise by resolution. Members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Actions taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, shall have the power to fill vacancies, to appoint one or more directors to serve as alternate members of the Executive Committee or other committees, and, at any time, to abolish the Executive Committee or any other committee or remove any directors therefrom, either with or without cause.

Section 6.4 Action by Unanimous Consent. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors who are members of said committee. Each such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the committee. Such a consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the members of the committee taken at a meeting thereof.

Officers

Section 7.1 Required and Permitted Officers. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Secretary and such other officers, including a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, and other assistant officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time elect. If more than one Vice President be elected, the Board may determine the seniority of each of said Vice Presidents. Any two or more offices may be held by the same individual.

Section 7.2 Election and Term. The President and Secretary shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the shareholders and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may elect other officers at any meeting of the Board. Any such other officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.3 Removal. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be severed by such removal, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights of the person so removed under any contract between such person and the corporation, except to the extent provided in any such contract.

Section 7.4 Vacancies. In case any office shall become vacant by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the directors then in office, although less than a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may, by a majority vote of those voting, choose a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

Section 7.5 Compensation of Officers. The Board of Directors, or such officer as it may designate, may fix the compensation for the officers of the Corporation and may fix the compensation for such other officers and agents as may from time to time be appointed.

Section 7.6 Bond. The Board of Directors, by resolution, may require any and all of the officers to give bond to the Corporation, with sufficient surety or sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and to comply with such other conditions as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors.

Duties of Officers

Section 8.1 Chairman of the Board. If a Chairman of the Board be elected, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he may be present. The Board of Directors may delegate such other authority and assign such additional duties to the Chairman of the Board, other than those conferred by law exclusively upon the President, as it may from time to time determine. The Board also may designate the Chairman of the Board as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, with all of the powers otherwise conferred upon the President of the Corporation.

The Board also may provide that the Chairman of the Board shall have the powers of the chief executive officer coextensively with the President, or it may, from time to time, divide the powers, responsibilities, duties and authority of the chief executive officer between the Chairman of the Board and the President.

Section 8.2 The President. Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation with such general executive powers and duties of supervision and management as are usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation.

He shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect, subject to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers to any other officer or officers of the Corporation.

He shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, at meetings of the Board of Directors.

He, along with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the Corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, may sign certificates for shares of the Corporation, deeds, conveyances, bonds, mortgages, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, and unless the Board of Directors shall order otherwise by resolution, he may make such contracts and execute such certificates, documents and other instruments as may be incident thereto, as the ordinary conduct of the Corporation's business may require.

Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President or any person designated in writing by him may (i) attend meetings of shareholders of other corporations to represent the Corporation there at and to vote or take action with respect to other shares of any such corporation owned by this Corporation in such manner as he or his designee may determine; and (ii) execute and deliver written consents, waivers of notice and proxies for and in the name of the Corporation with respect to any such shares owned by this Corporation.

He shall, unless the Board provides otherwise, be, ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee and all other committees of the Board of Directors.

If a Chairman of the Board be elected or appointed and designated as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, the President shall perform such duties as may be specifically delegated to him by the Board of Directors as are conferred by law exclusively upon him. In the absence, disability or inability to act of the Chairman of the Board, the President shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chairman of the Board.

Section 8.3 Vice Presidents. Any Vice President elected by the Board of Directors shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to him and shall exercise such powers as may be granted to him by the Board of Directors or by the President of the Corporation. In the absence of the President, the Vice Presidents, in order of their seniority, may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President with the same force and effect as if performed by the President.

Section 8.4 The Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee (if any) and any other committee or committees of the Board in one of the books provided for that purpose.

He shall be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation. He shall see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all certificates for shares prior to the issue thereof and to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and applicable law.

He shall sign with the President or a Vice President, certificates for shares of the Corporation, the issue of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the stock transfer book of the Corporation.

He shall keep a register of the post office address of each shareholder which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such shareholder.

He shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law and that the voting list is prepared for shareholders' meetings.

In general, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.5 The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for the funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors or by any officer of the Corporation to whom such authority has been granted by the Board of Directors.

He shall disburse or permit to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered or authorized generally by the Board.

He shall render to the chief executive officer of the Corporation and the directors whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of those under his jurisdiction and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

In general, he shall perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.6 Assistant Officers. Each assistant officer that may be selected pursuant to these Bylaws shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. In the absence or nonavailability of the principal, the assistant may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the principal with the same force and effect as if performed by the principal. The assistant shall also have such lesser or greater authority and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

Contracts, Checks, Loans and Deposits

Section 9.1 All contracts and agreements authorized by the Board of Directors and all checks, drafts, bills of exchange or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or agent or agents, as may from time to time be permitted by these Bylaws, or as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, the President or such officer or officers as the Board of Directors may appoint. The designation or designations may be general or confined to specific instances. The Board of Directors may authorize the use of facsimile signatures on any such document.

Issuance and Transfer of Stock

Section 10.1 Board Authorization. The issuance of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be authorized by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the Illinois Business Corporation Act.

Section 10.2 Certificates. Certificates of stock of the Corporation shall be numbered and registered as they are issued. They shall exhibit the holder's name and the number of shares and shall be signed by the President or a Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and shall bear the corporate seal, which may be facsimile, engraved or printed. If any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registrar other than the Corporation or an employee of the Corporation, any other signature thereon may be facsimile, engraved or printed. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, such certificate may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person was such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 10.3 Transfers. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney-in-fact, lawfully constituted in writing, upon surrender of such certificate duly and properly endorsed.

Section 10.4 Lost Certificates. In case of the loss or destruction of any certificate of stock, a new certificate may be issued upon the following conditions: The owner shall file with the Secretary an affidavit giving the facts in relation to the ownership and the loss or destruction of said certificate, stating its number and the number of shares represented thereby. The Secretary shall present such affidavit to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that such certificate has been destroyed or lost, and that a new certificate ought to be issued in lieu thereof, the Board may direct the officers of the Corporation to issue a new certificate, or the Board may condition the issuance of a new certificate upon the filing of a bond, in an amount and with a surety acceptable to the Board of Directors, to indemnify the Corporation and save it harmless from any loss, expense, damage or liability occasioned by the issuance of such new certificate. Upon receipt of the Board's direction, or the filing of any required bond, the proper officers of the Corporation shall issue a new certificate for the same number of shares to the owner of the certificate so lost or destroyed.

Section 10.5 Transfer Books. Proper books shall be kept under the direction of the Secretary showing the ownership and transfer of all certificates of stock. These books shall constitute the test of the qualifications of voters at any shareholders' meeting.

Fiscal Year

Section 11.1 The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as established by the Board of Directors.

Dividends

Section 12.1 The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares subject to the limitations and conditions imposed by applicable law and subject also to any restrictions contained in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 13

Seal

Section 13.1 The seal of the Corporation shall be in circular form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation and the words "Corporate Seal" and "Illinois." The Board of Directors may, by resolution, change the form of the corporate seal from time to time.

ARTICLE 14

Inspection of Books and Records

Section 14.1 Upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation, a shareholder, acting in good faith and for a proper purpose, may inspect such books and records of the Corporation as shall be specifically identified in the notice, provided that the Corporation shall be required by law to produce the same. The requirement of thirty (30) days' written notice may be reduced to a lesser number of days by the Board of Directors where the shareholder demonstrates a proper need for more immediate inspection of such books and records. The notice requesting inspection shall specify the purpose for which the examination is desired, the probable duration of the examination, and the names of those individuals who desire to be present during the examination. The inspection shall be performed during the Corporation's usual and customary hours of business and in such manner as will not unduly interfere with the regular conduct of the business of the Corporation. The inspection may be supervised by an officer or agent of the Corporation and the inspection shall be conducted at either the Corporation's registered office, the Corporation's principal place of business, or at the office of the Corporation's counsel, as shall be determined by the President. Upon a proper showing of need, a shareholder may utilize the assistance of attorneys, accountants or other experts in connection with the inspection, provided that, if required by the Board of Directors, the shareholder and the experts shall agree to furnish to the Corporation, as promptly as completed or made, a true and correct copy of any and every report or other written memorandum with respect to such inspection made by such experts. No shareholder shall use or permit to be used or acquiesce in the use by others of any information so obtained to the detriment of the Corporation, nor shall furnish or permit to be furnished any information so obtained to any competitor or prospective competitor of the Corporation. The Corporation, as a condition precedent to any shareholder's inspection of the records of the Corporation, may require the shareholder to indemnify the Corporation against any loss or damage which may be suffered by it arising out of or resulting from any unauthorized disclosure made or permitted to be made by such shareholder, his employee or agent of information obtained in the course of inspection.

Amendments

Section 15.1 These Bylaws may be made, altered, amended, or replaced in the manner specified in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 16

Miscellaneous

Section 16.1 Interpretation. Whenever the context so requires, the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural and conversely.

Section 16.2 Inoperative Portion. If any portion of these Bylaws shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder shall be considered valid and operative, and effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

Section 16.3 Table of Contents — Headings. The table of contents and headings are for organization, convenience and clarity and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these Bylaws nor the intent of any provision thereof.

BYLAWS OF

ALLIED WASTE INDUSTRIES OF NORTHWEST INDIANA, INC.1. ARTICLE I — MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

1.1 Annual Meetings. Annual meetings of the shareholders of Allied Waste Industries of Northwest Indiana, Inc., (the "Corporation") shall be held at such date, time and place, within or without the State of Indiana, as shall be designated by the Board of Directors.

1.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation may be called at any time by the Board of Directors or the President and shall be called by the Board of Directors if the Secretary receives written, dated and signed demands for a special meeting, describing in reasonable detail the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held, from the holders of shares representing at least twenty-five percent (25%) of all votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting. If the Secretary receives one or more proper written demands for a special meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors may set a record date for determining shareholders entitled to make such demand. The Board of Directors or the President, as the case may be, calling a special meeting of shareholders shall set the date, time and place of such meeting which may be held within or without the State of Indiana.

1.3 Notices. A written notice, stating the date, time and place of any meeting of the shareholders and in the case of a special meeting the purpose or purposes for which such meeting is called, shall be delivered or mailed by the Secretary of the Corporation, to each shareholder of record of the Corporation entitled to notice of or to vote at such meeting no fewer than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, or as otherwise provided by the Corporation Law. In the event of a special meeting of shareholders required to be called as a result of a demand therefor made by shareholders, such notice shall be given no later than the sixtieth day after the Corporation's receipt of the demand requiring the meeting to be called. Notice of shareholders' meetings, if mailed, shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to each shareholder at his address shown in the Corporation's current record of shareholders.

A shareholder or his proxy may at any time waive notice of a meeting if the waiver is in writing and is delivered to the Corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the Corporation's records. A shareholder's attendance at a meeting, whether in person or by proxy (a) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the shareholder or his proxy at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and (b) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice, unless that shareholder or his proxy objects to considering the matter when it is presented. Each shareholder who has in the manner described above waived notice or objection to notice of the shareholder's meeting shall be conclusively presumed to have been given due notice of such meeting (including the purpose or purposes thereof if such shareholder in the manner described above waived objection to the consideration of a particular matter).

If an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time or place if the new date, time or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment, unless a new record date is or must be established for the adjourned meeting.

1.4 Participation by Conference Telephone. Any or all shareholders may participate in a regular or special meeting by, or through the use of any means of communication, such as conference telephone, by which all Shareholders participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A shareholder participating in a meeting by such means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

1.5 Written Consents. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all shareholders. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each shareholder and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. Action taken under this Section 1.5 is effective when the last shareholder signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different, prior or subsequent effective date, in which case the action is effective on or as of the specified date. A consent signed under this Section 1.5 has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

1.6 Voting. Except as otherwise provided by the Corporation Law or the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, each capital share of any class of the Corporation that is outstanding at the record date and represented in person or by proxy at the annual or special meeting shall entitle the record holder thereof or his proxy, to one vote on each matter voted on at the meeting.

1.7 Quorum. Unless the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation or the Corporation Law provide otherwise, at all meetings of shareholders a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on a matter, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum for action on the matter. Action may be taken at a shareholders' meeting only on matters with respect to which a quorum for action on the matter. Action may be taken at a shareholders' meeting only on matters with respect to which a quorum exists; provided, however, that any meeting of shareholders, including annual and special meetings and any adjournments thereof, may be adjourned to a later date although less than a quorum is present. Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any meeting held pursuant to an adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting.

1.8 Vote Required to Take Action. If a quorum exists as to a matter to be considered at a meeting of shareholders, action on such matter (other than the election of Directors) is approved if the votes properly cast favoring the action exceed the votes properly cast opposing the action, unless the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation or the Corporation Law requires a greater number of affirmative votes. Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes properly cast.

1.9 Record Date. Only such persons shall be entitled to notice of or to vote, in person or by proxy, at any shareholders' meeting as shall appear as shareholders upon the books of the Corporation as of record date as the Board of Directors shall determine, which date may not be earlier than the date seventy days immediately preceding the meeting unless otherwise permitted by the Corporation Law. In the absence of such determination, the record date shall be the fiftieth day immediately preceding the date of such meeting. Unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors, shareholders shall be determined as of the close of business on the record date.

1.10 Proxies. A shareholder may vote his shares either in person or by proxy. A shareholder may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the shareholder (including authorizing the proxy to receive or to waive notice of any shareholders' meetings within the effective period of such proxy) by signing an appointment form, either personally or by the shareholder's attorney-in-fact. An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the Secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes and is effective for eleven (11) months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form. The proxy's authority may be limited to a particular meeting or may be general and authorize the proxy to represent the shareholder at any meeting of shareholders held within the time provided in the appointment form. Subject to the Corporation Law and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, the Corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the appointment.

2. ARTICLE 2 — DIRECTORS.

2.1 Number and Term; Authority. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of at least one Director and no more than five Directors. The exact number of Directors of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors within the range established by the preceding sentence, and may be changed within that range from time to time by the Board of Directors. Each Director shall be elected for a term of office to expire at the annual meeting of shareholders next following his election. The Director shall continue to serve until his successor is elected and qualified, or until the earlier of his death, resignation, disqualification or removal by shareholders, or until there is a decrease in the number of Directors; provided, however, that a Director cannot be removed by such decrease unless in connection with an election of Directors by Shareholders.

The Directors and each of them shall have no authority to bind the Corporation except when acting as a Board or a Committee established by the Board and granted authority to bind the Corporation.

2.2 Quorum and Vote Required to Take Action. A majority of the whole Board of Directors (the size of which shall be determined in accordance with the latest action of the Board of Directors fixing the number of Directors) shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, except the filling of vacancies. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the Corporation Law, the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

2.3 Annual and Regular Meetings. The Board of Directors shall meet annually, without notice, on the same day as the annual meeting of the shareholders, for the purpose of transacting such business as properly may come before the meeting. Other regular meetings of the Board of Directors, in addition to said annual meeting, shall be held on such dates, at such times and at such places as shall be fixed by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors or otherwise communicated to the Directors. The Board of Directors may at any time alter the date for the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors.

2.4 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or any member of the Board of Directors upon not less than twenty-four (24) hours' notice given to each Director of the date, time and place of the meeting, which notice need not specify the purpose or purposes of the special meeting. Such notice may be communicated in person (either in writing or orally), by telephone, telegraph, teletype or other form of wire or wireless communication or by mail and shall be effective at the earlier of the time of its receipt or, if mailed, five (5) days after its mailing. Notice of any meeting of the Board may be waived in writing at any time if the waiver is signed by the Director entitled to the notice and is filed with the minutes or corporate records. A Director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice to the Director of the meeting, unless the Director at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon the Director's arrival) objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

2.5 Written Consents. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the Board. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each Director, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. Action taken under this Section 2.5 is effective when the last Director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different, prior or subsequent effective date, in which case the action is effective on or as of the specified date. A consent signed under this Section 2.5 has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

2.6 Participation by Conference Telephone. The Board of Directors may permit any or all Directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or through the use of any means of communication, such as conference telephone, by which all Directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A Director participating in a meeting by such means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

2.7 Committees.

2.7.a The Board of Directors may create one or more committees and appoint members of the Board of Directors to serve on them, by resolution of the Board of Directors adopted by a majority of all the Directors in office when the resolution is adopted. Each committee may have one or more members, and all the members of a committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

2.7.b To the extent specified by the Board of Directors in the resolutions creating a committee, each committee may exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that a committee may not:

2.7.b(i) authorize dividends or other distributions as defined by the Corporate Law, except a committee may authorize or approve a reacquisition of shares if done according to a formula or method prescribed by the Board of Directors;

2.7.b(ii) approve or propose to shareholders action that is required to be approved by shareholders;

2.7.b(iii) fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or on any of its committees;

2.7.b(iv) amend the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation;

2.7.b(v) adopt, amend, repeal or waive any provision of these Bylaws; or

2.7.b(vi) approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval.

2.7.c Except to the extent inconsistent with the resolutions creating a committee, Sections 2.1 through 2.6 of these Bylaws, which govern meetings, actions without meetings, notices and waivers of notice, quorum and voting requirements and telephone participation in meetings of the Board of Directors, shall apply to the committee and its members.

3. ARTICLE 3 — OFFICERS.

3.1 Designation, Selection and Terms. The officers of the Corporation shall consist of the President and Secretary. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may also elect a Treasurer, Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries and such other officers or assistant officers as it may from time to time determine by resolution creating the office and defining the duties thereof. In defining the duties of officers, the Board of Directors may designate a chief executive officer a chief operating officer, a chief administrative officer, a chief financial officer, a chief accounting officer or similar functional titles. Officers need not be selected from among the members of the Board of Directors. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. The election or appointment of an officer does not itself create contract rights.

3.2 Removal. The Board of Directors may remove any officer at any time with or without cause. Vacancies in such offices, however occurring, may be filled by the Board of Directors at any meeting of the Board of Directors.

3.3 President. The President shall have and may exercise all of the powers and duties as are incident to his office or may from time to time be delegated to him by the Board of Directors.

3.4 Secretary. The Secretary shall be the custodian of the books, papers and records of the Corporation and of its corporate seal, if any, and shall be responsible for seeing that the Corporation maintains the records required by the Corporation Law (other than accounting records) and that the Corporation files with the Indiana Secretary of State the annual report required by the Corporation Law. The Secretary shall be responsible for preparing minutes of the meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors and for authenticating records of the Corporation and he shall perform all of the other duties customary to the officer of the Secretary of the Corporation.

4. ARTICLE 4 — Indemnification of Officers, Directors and Other Eligible Persons.

4.1 General. To the extent not inconsistent with applicable law, every Eligible Person shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all Liability and reasonable Expense that may be incurred by him in connection with or resulting from any Claim:

4.1.a If such Eligible Person is Wholly Successful with respect to the Claim; or

4.1.b If not Wholly Successful, then if such Eligible Person is determined, as provided in either Section 4.3(a) or 4.3(b) of this Article 4, to have:

4.1.b(i) conducted himself in good faith; and

4.1.b(ii) reasonably believed:

4.1.b(ii)(1) in the case of conduct in his official capacity with the Corporation, that his conduct was in its best interest; and

4.1.b(ii)(2) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the best interest of the Corporation; and

4.1.b(iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding either:

4.1.b(iii)(1) had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful; or

4.1.b(iii)(2) had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

The termination of any Claim, by judgment, order, settlement (whether with or without court approval), or conviction or upon a plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, shall not create a presumption that an Eligible Person did not meet the standards of conduct set forth in clause (b) of this Section 4.1. The actions of an Eligible Person with respect to an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 shall be deemed to have been taken in what the Eligible Person reasonably believed to be the best interest of the Corporation or at least not opposed to its best interest if the Eligible Person reasonably believed he was acting in conformity with the requirements of such Act or he reasonably believed his actions to be in the interest of the participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

4.2. a The term "Claim" as used in this Article 4 shall include every pending, threatened or completed claim, action, suit, or proceeding and all appeals thereof (whether brought by or in the right of this Corporation or any other corporation or otherwise), whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, formal or informal, in which an Eligible Person may become involved, as a party or otherwise : (i) by reason of his being or having been an Eligible Person; or (ii) by reason of any action taken or not taken by him in his capacity as an Eligible Person, whether or not he continued in such capacity at the time a Liability or Expense shall have been incurred in connection with a Claim.

4.2.b The term "Eligible Person" as used in this Article 4 shall mean every person (and the estate, heirs and personal representatives of such person) who is or was a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, officer, employee, agent or fiduciary of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other organization or entity, whether for profit or not. An Eligible Person shall also be considered to have been serving an employee benefit plan at the request of the Corporation if his duties to the Corporation also imposed duties on, or otherwise involved services by him to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

4.2.c The terms "Liability" and "Expense" as used in this Article 4 shall include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and disbursements and amounts of judgments, fines or penalties against (including excise taxes assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), and amounts paid in settlement by or on behalf of and Eligible Person.

4.2.d The term "Wholly Successful" as used in this Article 4 shall mean (i) termination of any Claim against the Eligible Person in question without any finding of liability or guilt against him; (ii) approval by a court, with knowledge of the indemnity herein provided, of a settlement of any Claim; or (iii) the expiration of a reasonable period of time after making or threatened making of any Claim without the institution of the same, without any payment or promise made to induce a settlement.

4.3 Procedure

4.3.a Every Eligible Person claiming indemnification hereunder (other than one who has been Wholly Successful with respect to any Claim) shall be entitled to indemnification if it is determined, as provided in this Section 4.3.a, that such Eligible Person has met the standards of conduct set forth in clause (b) of Section 4.1. The determination whether an Eligible Person has met the required standards of conduct shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors not at the time parties to the Claim, and if such a quorum cannot be obtained; then (ii) by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors (in which designation, Directors who are parties to the Claim may participate) consisting solely of two (2) or more Directors not at the time parties to the Claim; and if such a committee cannot be constituted; then (iii) by the shareholders (but shares owned by or voted under the control of a Director who is at the time a party to the Claim may not be voted on the determination), and if there are no shareholders who are entitled to vote pursuant to the requirements of paragraph (iii); then (iv) by special legal counsel selected by a majority vote of the full Board of Directors (in which selection, a Director who is a party to the Claim may participate). If an Eligible Person is found to be entitled to indemnification pursuant to the preceding sentence, the reasonableness of the Eligible Person's Expenses shall be determined by the procedure set forth in the preceding sentence, except that if such determination is by special legal counsel, the reasonableness of Expenses shall be determined by a majority vote of the full Board of Directors (in which determination, a Director who is a party to the Claim may participate).

4.3.b If an Eligible Person claiming indemnification pursuant to Section 4.3.a of this Article 4 is found not to be entitled thereto, the Eligible Person may apply for indemnification with respect to a Claim to a court of competent jurisdiction, including a court in which the Claim is pending against the Eligible Person. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving notice to the Corporation and giving the Corporation ample opportunity to present to the court any information or evidence relating to the claim for indemnification that the Corporation deems appropriate, may order indemnification if it determines that the Eligible Person is entitled to indemnification with respect to the Claim because such Eligible Person met the standards of conduct set forth in clause (b) of Section 4.1 of this Article 4. If the court determines that the Eligible Person is entitled to indemnification, the court shall also determine the reasonableness of the Eligible Person's Expenses.

4.4 Nonexclusive Rights. The right of indemnification provided in this Article 4 shall be in addition to any rights to which any Eligible Person may otherwise be entitled. Irrespective of the provisions of this Article 4, the Board of Directors may, at any time and from time to time, (a) approve indemnification of any Eligible Person to the full extent permitted by the provisions of applicable law at the time in effect, whether on account of past or future transactions; and (b) authorize the Corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Eligible Person against any Liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such Liability.

4.5 Expenses. Expenses incurred by an Eligible Person with respect to any Claim shall be advanced by the Corporation (by action of the Board of Directors, whether or not a disinterested quorum exists) prior to the final disposition thereof if:

4.5.a The Eligible Person furnishes the Corporation a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standards of conduct specified in Section 4.1.b.

4.5.b The Eligible Person furnishes the Corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on the Eligible Person's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the Eligible Person did not meet the standards of conduct specified in Section 4.1.b.

4.5.c The Board of Directors makes a determination that the facts then known would not preclude indemnification of the Eligible Person.

4.6 Contract. The provisions of this Article 4 shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each Eligible Person and an Eligible Person's rights hereunder with respect to a Claim shall not be diminished or otherwise adversely affected by any repeal, amendment or modification of this Article 4 that occurs subsequent to the date of any action taken or not taken by reason of which such Eligible Person becomes involved in a Claim.

4.7 Effective Date. The provisions of this Article 4 shall be applicable to Claims made or commenced after the adoption hereof, whether arising from acts or omissions to act occurring before or after the adoption hereof.

5. ARTICLE 5 — CHECKS. All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money shall be signed in the name of the Corporation by such officers or persons as shall be designated from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors and included in the minute book of the Corporation.

6. ARTICLE 6 — LOANS. Such of the officers of the Corporation as shall be designated from time to time by any resolution adopted by the Board of Directors and included in the minute book of the Corporation shall have the power with such limitations thereon as may be fixed by the Board of Directors, to borrow money in the Corporation's behalf, to establish credit, to discount bills and papers, to pledge collateral and to execute such notices, bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness and such mortgages, trust indentures and other instruments in connection therewith, as may be authorized from time to time by such Board of Directors.

7. ARTICLE 7 — EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS. The President or any officer designated by the President may, in the Corporation's name, sign all deeds, leases, contracts or similar documents that may be authorized by the Board of Directors unless execution is otherwise provided for, required or directed by the Board of Directors, the corporation's Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation Law or other law.

8. ARTICLE 8 — SHARES.

8.1 Execution. Certificates for capital shares of the Corporation shall be signed by the President and the Secretary or two officers designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and the seal of the Corporation (or a facsimile thereof), if any, may be thereto affixed. Where any such certificate is also signed by a transfer agent or a registrar, or both, the signatures of the officers of the Corporation may be facsimiles. The Corporation may issue and deliver any such certificate notwithstanding that any such officer who shall have signed, or whose facsimile signature shall have been imprinted on, such certificate shall have ceased to be such officer.

8.2 Contents. Each certificate shall state on its face the name of the Corporation and that it is organized under the laws of the State of Indiana, the name of the person to whom it is issued and the number and class and the designation of the series, if any, of shares the certificate represents and, whenever the corporation is authorized to issue more than one class of shares or different series within a class, each certificate issued after the effectiveness of such authorization shall further state conspicuously on its front or back that the Corporation will furnish the shareholder, upon his written request and without charge, a summary of the designations, relative rights, preferences and limitations applicable to each class and series and the authority of the Board of Directors to determine variations in rights, preferences and limitations for future series.

8.3 Transfers. Except as otherwise provided by law or by resolution of the Board of Directors, transfers of shares of the Corporation shall be made only on the books of the Corporation by the holder thereof in person or by duly authorized attorney, on payment of all taxes thereon and surrender for cancellation of the certificate or certificates for such shares (except as hereinafter provided in the case of loss, destruction or mutilation of certificates) properly endorsed by the holder thereof or accompanied by the proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer and delivered to the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary.

8.4 Share Transfer Records. There shall be entered upon the share record of the Corporation the number of each certificate issued; the name and address of the registered holder of such certificate; the number, kind and class or series of shares represented by such certificate; the date of issue; whether the shares are originally issued or transferred; the registered holder from whom transferred; and such other information as is commonly required to be shown by such records. The share records of the Corporation shall be kept at its principal office, unless the Corporation appoints a transfer agent or registrar, in which case the Corporation shall keep at its principal office a complete and accurate shareholders' list giving the name and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of shares held by each. If a transfer agent is appointed by the Corporation, shareholders shall give written notice of any changes in their addresses from time to time the transfer agent.

8.5 Transfer Agents and Registrars. The Board of Directors may appoint one or more transfer agents and one or more registrars and may require each share certificate to bear the signature of either or both.

8.6 Loss, Destruction or Mutilation of Certificate. The holder of any of the shares of the Corporation shall immediately notify the Corporation of any loss, destruction or mutilation of the certificate therefor, and the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, cause to be issued to him a new certificate or certificates of shares upon the surrender of the mutilated certificate or, in the case of loss or destruction, upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction. The Board of Directors may, in its discretion, require the holder of the lost or destroyed certificate or his legal representative to give the Corporation a bond in such sum and in such form, and with such surety or sureties as it may direct, to indemnify the Corporation, its transfer agents and its registrars, if any, against any claim that may be made against them or any of them with respect to the shares represented by the certificate or certificates alleged to have been lost or destroyed, but the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a new certificate or certificates, save upon the order of a court having jurisdiction in such matters.

8.7 Form of Certificates. The form of the certificates for shares of the Corporation shall conform to the requirements of Section 8.2 of these Bylaws and be in such printed form as shall from time to time be approved by resolution of the Board of Directors.

9. ARTICLE 9 — SEAL. The corporate seal of the Corporation shall, if the Corporation elects to have one, be in the form of a disc, with the name of the Corporation on the periphery thereof and the word "SEAL" in the center.

10. ARTICLE 10 — MISCELLANEOUS.

10.1 Corporation Law. The provisions of the Corporation Law, as it may from time to time be amended, applicable to all matters relevant to, but not specifically covered by, these Bylaws are hereby, by reference, incorporated in and made a part of these Bylaws. The term "Corporation Law" as used in these Bylaws means the Indiana Business Corporation Law, as it may hereafter from time to time be amended and any statute which may in the future supersede or replace, in whole or in part the Corporation Law.

10.2 Definition of Articles of Incorporation. The term "Articles of Incorporation" as used in these Bylaws means the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, as amended and restated from time to time.

10.3 Amendments. These Bylaws may be rescinded, changed or amended and provisions hereof may be waived, at any annual, regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors by the affirmative vote of a majority of the number of Directors then in office, except as otherwise required by the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation or by the Corporation Law.

10.4 Business Combination Chapter Inapplicable. In accordance with Indiana Code 23-1-43-22(2), the provisions of Chapter 43 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law do not apply to this Corporation.

Offices

Section 1.1 The principal office of the Corporation shall be, until changed by the Board of Directors, at 7201 East Camelback Road, Suite #375, Scottsdale, Arizona 85251. The Corporation may also have offices and branch offices at such other places within and without the State of Tennessee as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE 2

Shareholders Meetings

Section 2.1 Place. Except as hereinafter provided, any annual or special meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such place within or without the State of Tennessee as may be selected by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors fails to designate a place for the meeting to be held, then the same shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation. Special meetings called for the purpose of removing directors shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Tennessee or in the city or county in the State of Tennessee in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located.

Section 2.2 Date of Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the 30th day in the month of December in each year at such time as may be specified in the notice of meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a holiday, such annual meeting shall be held on the next business day.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.4 Notice of Shareholders' Meetings, Annual or Special. Written or printed notice of each meeting of shareholders shall be delivered or given either personally or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Any notice of a shareholders' meeting given by mail shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid and addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation.

Section 2.5 Persons Authorized to Give Notice. Notice of an annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be given or delivered by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors.

Section 2.6 Written Waiver of Notice. Any notice required by these Bylaws may be waived by any person entitled thereto signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 2.7 Waiver of Attendance. Attendance of a shareholder at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 2.8 Quorum. A majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at any meeting, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act unless a larger vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law. If the holders of the number of shares necessary to constitute a quorum shall fail to attend in person or by proxy, a majority in interest of the shareholders present in person or by proxy shall have the right successively to adjourn the meeting to a specified date not longer than ninety (90) days after such adjournment. No notice need be given of such adjournment to shareholders not present at the meeting.

Section 2.9 Persons Authorized to Convene Meetings. Every meeting shall be convened by the President, the Secretary or some other officer or other person designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.10 Shareholder Action Without Meeting. Any action required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws to be taken at a meeting of shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the shareholders.

Voting Procedure

Section 3.1 List of Voters. The officer having charge of the transfer book for shares of the Corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting at least ten (10) days before such meeting. Said list shall be arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the number of shares held by each shareholder. Said list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to the meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Said list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at any meeting.

Section 3.2 Inspectors. At any meeting called for the election of directors, if the presiding officer of the Corporation or a majority in number of shares present at such meeting desire, the President or other person presiding at the meeting shall appoint not less than two (2) persons, who are not directors, as inspectors to receive and canvass the votes given at such meeting and certify the result to him. Any inspector, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the following oath before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear, that I will execute the duties of an inspector of the election now to be held with strict impartiality, and according to the best of my ability."

Section 3.3 Record Date/Close of Transfer Books. The Board of Directors shall have the power to close the stock transfer books of the Corporation for a period not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or, in lieu thereof, to fix in advance a date not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting. If the Board of Directors shall not have closed the transfer books or fixed a record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, a meeting of shareholders, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the close of business of the 20th day preceding the date of the meeting shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting; except that if, prior to the meeting, written waivers of notice of the meeting are signed and delivered to the Corporation by all of the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened shall be entitled to vote at the meeting, and any adjournment of the meeting.

Votes

Section 4.1 Eligible Votes. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share entitled to vote under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall be entitled to one vote (or a fractional vote for each fractional share) on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. No cumulative voting shall be permitted with respect to the election of directors or any other matter.

Section 4.2 Proxies. A shareholder may vote, with respect to any matter, including but not limited to the election of directors, which may come before a meeting of shareholders, either in person, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by applicable law, by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only so long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power of attorney. The interest with which it is coupled need not be an interest in the shares themselves. In any case in which application law requires, as a condition to the validity of a proxy, that it provide that it is revocable, a proxy which does not provide that it is revocable shall be wholly invalid, and not valid but revocable.

Section 4.3 Corporate Shareholders. Shares of stock of the Corporation standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provisions, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Section 4.4 Deceased Shareholders. Shares of stock standing in the name of a deceased person may be voted by his personal representative, either in person or by proxy.

Section 4.5 Conservators and Trustees. Shares standing in the name of a conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) may be voted by such fiduciary, either in person or by proxy, but no conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) shall be entitled, as such fiduciary, to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Section 4.6 Receivers and Trustees in Bankruptcy. Shares standing in the name of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do is conferred by applicable law or is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy was appointed.

Section 4.7 Pledges. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Board of Directors

Section 5.1 Management and Number. The property, business and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled and managed by a Board of Directors consisting of three members, none of whom need be shareholders or residents of any particular state. Unless fixed by the Articles of Incorporation, the number of directors may at any time be increased or decreased by amendment of these Bylaws. Any changes in the number of directors effected by an amendment to these Bylaws shall be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) calendar days following such change.

Section 5.2 Election and Vacancies. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal. Vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors to constitute the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, until the next election of directors by the shareholders at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 5.3 Quorum. A majority of the full Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, such meeting may be adjourned any number of times, without further notice, by a majority of the directors present.

Section 5.4 Place/Manner of Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that in the event of adjournment of said annual meeting of the Board of Directors the meeting may be reconvened at any place within or without the State of Tennessee, as may be designated by the directors adjourning said meeting. All regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation or at such other place within or without the State of Tennessee as may be designated by the Board of Directors or the officer calling the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the Board of Directors may participate in any regular or special meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in any such meeting by such means shall constitute presence and attendance at such meeting for all purposes.

Section 5.5 Time of Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that if a quorum cannot then be assembled, said meeting shall be adjourned until such time as a quorum may be assembled, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the annual meeting of shareholders. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently and at such times as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon call of the Chairman of the Board (if one be elected), the President, or a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.6 Notice. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission addressed to him at his usual business address at least five (5) days prior to the meeting in case of notice by mail at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting in case of notice by telegram or facsimile transmission, or by communicating notice to a director directly (and not through a secretary, family member or other person), either orally or in writing at a face-to-face meeting or by telephone, at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting. A notice given by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission shall be deemed given to any director when directed to such director at his address or (in the case of notice by facsimile transmission) facsimile transmission number as it appears in the records of the Corporation and when deposited in the United States Mail, postage prepaid, when delivered to an appropriate telegraph office, charges prepaid, or when the sender's facsimile transmission equipment indicates that transmission has been completed, as the case may be. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 5.7 Waiver. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Notice may also be waived by a director by signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting. Any waiver of notice by either of the means specified in this Section 5.7 shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 5.8 Action by Directors Without Meeting. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.9 Compensation. The compensation of the directors may be set from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, and a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude a director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 5.10 Removal. At a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the following manner. Such meeting shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Tennessee or in the city or county in the State of Tennessee in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located. One or more directors or the entire Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors; provided, however, that if less than the entire Board is to be removed and if the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him in then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors.

Committees

Section 6.1 Executive Committee. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, may designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution and in any subsequent resolution delegating additional authority or revoking any previous delegation of authority, shall have and exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation. The designation of such an Executive Committee and the delegation thereto of authority by the Board of Directors shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law.

Section 6.2 Other Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors to constitute such other committees not having or exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation, but to deal with, address and study specific subjects or issues and to make reports and recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect thereto, all as specified by the Board.

Section 6.3 Committee Procedure. The majority of all the members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may fix its rules of procedure, determine its action and fix the time and place (whether within or without the State of Tennessee) of its meetings and specify what notice thereof, if any, shall be given, unless the Board of Directors shall provide otherwise by resolution. Members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Actions taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, shall have the power to fill vacancies, to appoint one or more directors to serve as alternate members of the Executive Committee or other committees, and, at any time, to abolish the Executive Committee or any other committee or remove any directors therefrom, either with or without cause.

Section 6.4 Action by Unanimous Consent. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors who are members of said committee. Each such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the committee. Such a consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the members of the committee taken at a meeting thereof.

Officers

Section 7.1 Required and Permitted Officers. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Secretary and such other officers, including a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, and other assistant officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time elect. If more than one Vice President be elected, the Board may determine the seniority of each of said Vice Presidents. Any two or more offices may be held by the same individual.

Section 7.2 Election and Term. The President and Secretary shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the shareholders and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may elect other officers at any meeting of the Board. Any such other officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.3 Removal. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served by such removal, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights of the person so removed under any contract between such person and the corporation, except to the extent provided in any such contract.

Section 7.4 Vacancies. In case any office shall become vacant by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the directors then in office, although less than a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may, by a majority vote of those voting, choose a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

Section 7.5 Compensation of Officers. The Board of Directors, or such officer as it may designate, may fix the compensation for the officers of the Corporation and may fix the compensation for such other officers and agents as may from time to time be appointed.

Section 7.6 Bond. The Board of Directors, by resolution, may require any and all of the officers to give bond to the Corporation, with sufficient surety or sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and to comply with such other conditions as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors.

Duties of Officers

Section 8.1 Chairman of the Board. If a Chairman of the Board be elected, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he may be present. The Board of Directors may delegate such other authority and assign such additional duties to the Chairman of the Board, other than those conferred by law exclusively upon the President, as it may from time to time determine. The Board also may designate the Chairman of the Board as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, with all of the powers otherwise conferred upon the President of the Corporation.

The Board also may provide that the Chairman of the Board shall have the powers of the chief executive officer coextensively with the President, or it may, from time to time, divide the powers, responsibilities, duties and authority of the chief executive officer between the Chairman of the Board and the President.

Section 8.2 The President. Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation with such general executive powers and duties of supervision and management as are usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation.

He shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect, subject to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers to any other officer or officers of the Corporation.

He shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, at meetings of the Board of Directors.

He, along with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the Corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, may sign certificates for shares of the Corporation, deeds, conveyances, bonds, mortgages, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, and unless the Board of Directors shall order otherwise by resolution, he may make such contracts and execute such certificates, documents and other instruments as may be incident thereto, as the ordinary conduct of the Corporation's business may require.

Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President or any person designated in writing by him may (i) attend meetings of shareholders of other corporations to represent the Corporation there at and to vote or take action with respect to other shares of any such corporation owned by this Corporation in such manner as he or his designee may determine; and (ii) execute and deliver written consents, waivers of notice and proxies for and in the name of the Corporation with respect to any such shares owned by this Corporation.

He shall, unless the Board provides otherwise, be, ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee and all other committees of the Board of Directors.

If a Chairman of the Board be elected or appointed and designated as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, the President shall perform such duties as may be specifically delegated to him by the Board of Directors as are conferred by law exclusively upon him. In the absence, disability or inability to act of the Chairman of the Board, the President shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chairman of the Board.

Section 8.3 Vice Presidents. Any Vice President elected by the Board of Directors shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to him and shall exercise such powers as may be granted to him by the Board of Directors or by the President of the Corporation. In the absence of the President, the Vice Presidents, in order of their seniority, may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President with the same force and effect as if performed by the President.

Section 8.4 The Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee (if any) and any other committee or committees of the Board in one of the books provided for that purpose.

He shall be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation. He shall see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all certificates for shares prior to the issue thereof and to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and applicable law.

He shall sign with the President or a Vice President, certificates for shares of the Corporation, the issue of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the stock transfer book of the Corporation.

He shall keep a register of the post office address of each shareholder which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such shareholder.

He shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law and that the voting list is prepared for shareholders' meetings.

In general, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.5 The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for the funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors or by any officer of the Corporation to whom such authority has been granted by the Board of Directors.

He shall disburse or permit to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered or authorized generally by the Board.

He shall render to the chief executive officer of the Corporation and the directors whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of those under his jurisdiction and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

In general, he shall perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.6 Assistant Officers. Each assistant officer that may be selected pursuant to these Bylaws shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. In the absence or nonavailability of the principal, the assistant may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the principal with the same force and effect as if performed by the principal. The assistant shall also have such lesser or greater authority and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

Contracts, Checks, Loans and Deposits

Section 9.1 All contracts and agreements authorized by the Board of Directors and all checks, drafts, bills of exchange or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or agent or agents, as may from time to time be permitted by these Bylaws, or as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, the President or such officer or officers as the Board of Directors may appoint. The designation or designations may be general or confined to specific instances. The Board of Directors may authorize the use of facsimile signatures on any such document.

Issuance and Transfer of Stock

Section 10.1 Board Authorization. The issuance of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be authorized by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

Section 10.2 Certificates. Certificates of stock of the Corporation shall be numbered and registered as they are issued. They shall exhibit the holder's name and the number of shares and shall be signed by the President or a Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and shall bear the corporate seal, which may be facsimile, engraved or printed. If any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registrar other than the Corporation or an employee of the Corporation, any other signature thereon may be facsimile, engraved or printed. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, such certificate may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person was such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 10.3 Transfers. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney-in-fact, lawfully constituted in writing, upon surrender of such certificate duly and properly endorsed.

Section 10.4 Lost Certificates. In case of the loss or destruction of any certificate of stock, a new certificate may be issued upon the following conditions: The owner shall file with the Secretary an affidavit giving the facts in relation to the ownership and the loss or destruction of said certificate, stating its number and the number of shares represented thereby. The Secretary shall present such affidavit to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that such certificate has been destroyed or lost, and that a new certificate ought to be issued in lieu thereof, the Board may direct the officers of the Corporation to issue a new certificate, or the Board may condition the issuance of a new certificate upon the filing of a bond, in an amount and with a surety acceptable to the Board of Directors, to indemnify the Corporation and save it harmless from any loss, expense, damage or liability occasioned by the issuance of such new certificate. Upon receipt of the Board's direction, or the filing of any required bond, the proper officers of the Corporation shall issue a new certificate for the same number of shares to the owner of the certificate so lost or destroyed.

Section 10.5 Transfer Books. Proper books shall be kept under the direction of the Secretary showing the ownership and transfer of all certificates of stock. These books shall constitute the test of the qualifications of voters at any shareholders' meeting.

Fiscal Year

Section 11.1 The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as established by the Board of Directors.

Dividends

Section 12.1 The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares subject to the limitations and conditions imposed by applicable law and subject also to any restrictions contained in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 13

Seal

Section 13.1 The seal of the Corporation shall be in circular form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation and the words "Corporate Seal" and "Tennessee." The Board of Directors may, by resolution, change the form of the corporate seal from time to time.

ARTICLE 14

Inspection of Books and Records

Section 14.1 Upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation, a shareholder, acting in good faith and for a proper purpose, may inspect such books and records of the Corporation as shall be specifically identified in the notice, provided that the Corporation shall be required by law to produce the same. The requirement of thirty (30) days' written notice may be reduced to a lesser number of days by the Board of Directors where the shareholder demonstrates a proper need for more immediate inspection of such books and records. The notice requesting inspection shall specify the purpose for which the examination is desired, the probable duration of the examination, and the names of those individuals who desire to be present during the examination. The inspection shall be performed during the Corporation's usual and customary hours of business and in such manner as will not unduly interfere with the regular conduct of the business of the Corporation. The inspection may be supervised by an officer or agent of the Corporation and the inspection shall be conducted at either the Corporation's registered office, the Corporation's principal place of business, or at the office of the Corporation's counsel, as shall be determined by the President. Upon a proper showing of need, a shareholder may utilize the assistance of attorneys, accountants or other experts in connection with the inspection, provided that, if required by the Board of Directors, the shareholder and the experts shall agree to furnish to the Corporation, as promptly as completed or made, a true and correct copy of any and every report or other written memorandum with respect to such inspection made by such experts. No shareholder shall use or permit to be used or acquiesce in the use by others of any information so obtained to the detriment of the Corporation, nor shall furnish or permit to be furnished any information so obtained to any competitor or prospective competitor of the Corporation. The Corporation, as a condition precedent to any shareholder's inspection of the records of the Corporation, may require the shareholder to indemnify the Corporation against any loss or damage which may be suffered by it arising out of or resulting from any unauthorized disclosure made or permitted to be made by such shareholder, his employee or agent of information obtained in the course of inspection.

Amendments

Section 15.1 These Bylaws may be made, altered, amended, or replaced in the manner specified in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 16

Miscellaneous

Section 16.1 Interpretation. Whenever the context so requires, the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural and conversely.

Section 16.2 Inoperative Portion. If any portion of these Bylaws shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder shall be considered valid and operative, and effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

Section 16.3 Table of Contents — Headings. The table of contents and headings are for organization, convenience and clarity and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these Bylaws nor the intent of any provision thereof.

ADOPTION OF BYLAWS BY UNANIMOUS WRITTEN CONSENT

The undersigned, being all of the directors of Allied Waste Industries of Tennessee, Inc. a Tennessee corporation (the "Corporation"), do hereby adopt the foregoing Bylaws as the initial Bylaws of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this consent as of the 20th day of October, 1994.

AMENDED AND RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION
OF
ALLIED WASTE INDUSTRIES, INC.

Allied Waste Industries, Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, hereby certifies as follows:

FIRST: The corporation's present name is Allied Waste Industries, Inc. The date of the filing of its original Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware was July 14, 1989.

SECOND: This Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation has been duly adopted pursuant to and in accordance with Sections 242 and 245 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

THIRD: The Certificate of Incorporation of the corporation is hereby amended and restated so as to read in its entirety as follows:

1. The name of the corporation is Allied Waste Industries, Inc. (the "Corporation").
 2. The address of the registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware is Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, New Castle County, Delaware 19801. The name of its registered agent at such address is The Corporation Trust Company.
 3. The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL").
 4. The Corporation shall have authority to issue one (1) share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share.
 5. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors shall have the power to make, alter, amend, change, add to or repeal the bylaws of the Corporation.
 6. Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the bylaws of the Corporation shall so provide.
 7. The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute.
 8. A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent that the elimination or limitation of liability is prohibited under the DGCL as in effect when such liability is determined. No amendment or repeal of this provision shall deprive a director of the benefits hereof with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

9. Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the Corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the Corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the Corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof, or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of Section 291 of Title 8 of the DGCL or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of Section 279 of Title 8 of the DGCL, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the Corporation, as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the Corporation, as the case may be, and also on the Corporation.

OF
ALLIED WASTE INDUSTRIES, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, often percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days

(unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as may be allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as maybe determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

OF
ALLIED WASTE LANDFILL HOLDINGS, INC.

1. The name of the Corporation is Allied Waste Landfill Holdings, Inc. (the "Corporation").
2. The address of the registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware is Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle. The name of its registered agent at that address is The Corporation Trust Company.
3. The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL").
4. The Corporation shall have authority to issue one thousand (1,000) common shares, one cent ($0.01) par value.
5. The name and mailing address of the incorporator are as follows:

Steven M. Helm
15880 North Greenway Hayden Loop
Suite 100
Scottsdale, Arizona 85260

The powers of the incorporator shall terminate upon the filing of this Certificate of Incorporation.

6. The initial Directors of the Corporation and their respective addresses are as follows:

Thomas H. Van Weelden
Henry L. Hirvela
Steven M. Helm
15880 North Greenway Hayden Loop
Scottsdale, Arizona 85260

7. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors shall have the power to make, alter, amend, change, add to or repeal the bylaws of the Corporation.
 8. Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the bylaws of the Corporation shall so provide.

Corporation shall so provide.

9. The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute.

10. A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent that the elimination or limitation of liability is prohibited under the DGCL as in effect when such liability is determined. No amendment or repeal of this provision shall deprive a director of the benefits hereof with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

11. Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the Corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the Corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the Corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof, or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of Section 291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provision of Section 279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the Corporation, as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the Corporation, as the case may be, and also on the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator has caused this Certificate of Incorporation to be duly executed this 4th day of June, 1997.

/s/ Steven M. Helm
Steven M. Helm, Incorporator

BYLAWS
OF
ALLIED WASTE LANDFILL HOLDINGS, INC.

(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle, State of Delaware.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, either within or outside of the State of Delaware, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, of ten percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after three years from its date, unless such proxy provides for a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors shall appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders.

ARTICLE III
DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or without the State of Delaware. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any three (3) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram on twenty-four (24) hours' notice, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attached at Board stockholder meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as determined by the stockholders from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Vice President of the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there is any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by him in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its organization and the words "Corporate Seal, Delaware". The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Delaware for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stock holders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE NIAGARA FALLS LANDFILL, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of May 2, 2006, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Niagara Falls Landfill, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under New York law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of New York shall be CT Corporation System, 111 Eighth Avenue, New York, New York, County of New York. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of New York upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in New York are CT Corporation System, 111 Eighth Avenue, New York, New York. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in New York, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of New York. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 347.143 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 347.141 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the New York Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the New York Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 New York Law. The laws of the State of New York shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the New York Limited Liability Company Law, as set forth in New York Consolidated Laws § 31.101 et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

ARTICLE V
Corporate Existence

The Corporation is to have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VI
Bylaws Amendments

The Board of Directors is expressly authorized to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the bylaws of the Corporation or to adopt new bylaws.

ARTICLE VII
Indemnification of Directors, Officers and Others

Section 1. Indemnification by Corporation. (a) Any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent (including trustee) of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, expressly including service as a director, officer or in a similar position with any exchange, board of trade, clearing corporation or similar institution on which the Corporation or any other corporation a majority of the stock of which is owned directly or indirectly by the Corporation had membership privileges at the relevant time during which any such position was held, shall be indemnified by the Corporation (funds paid or required to be paid to any person as a result of the provisions of this Article shall be returned to the Corporation or reduced, as the case may be, to the extent that such person receives funds pursuant to an indemnification from any such other corporation or organization) against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. Any such person who could be indemnified pursuant to the preceding sentence except for the fact that the subject action or suit is or was by or in the right of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually or reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

(b) To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraph (a) of this Section 1, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified by the Corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith without the necessity of any action being taken by the Corporation other than the determination, in good faith, that such defense has been successful. In all other cases wherein such indemnification is provided by this Article, unless ordered by a court, indemnification shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct specified in this Article. Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the holders of a majority of the shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon.

(c) The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person seeking indemnification did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. Entry of a judgment by consent as part of a settlement shall not be deemed a final adjudication of liability for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty, nor of any other issue or matter.

(d) Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by the director, officer, employee or agent involved to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation.

(e) The indemnification hereby provided shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in an official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

Section 2. Insurance. By action of the Board of Directors, notwithstanding any interest of the directors in the action, the Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance, in such amounts as the Board of Directors deems appropriate, on behalf of any Person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent (including trustee) of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation shall have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE VIII
Limited Director Liability

No director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or to its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that this Article VIII shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director:

- (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders,
- (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law,
- (3) under Section 174 of the DGCL, as it may hereafter be amended from time to time, for any unlawful payment of a dividend or unlawful stock purchase or redemption, or
- (4) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

If the DGCL is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, as so amended. No amendment to or repeal of this Article VIII will apply to, or have any effect on, the liability or alleged liability of any director of the Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of the director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE IX
Initial Directors

The powers of the incorporator will terminate upon the filing of this Certificate. The names and mailing addresses of the initial directors is:

MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. All meetings of the stockholders will be held at the principal office of the Corporation, or at such other place within or without the State of Delaware as may be determined by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. An annual meeting of Stockholders shall be held for the election of directors at such date, time and place, either within or without the State of Delaware, as may be designated by resolution of the Board of Directors from time to time; provided that each successive annual meeting shall be held on a date within 13 months after the date of the preceding annual meeting. Any other proper business may be transacted at the annual meeting.

Section 3. Notice of Annual Meeting. Written or printed notice of the annual meeting, stating the place, day and hour thereof, will be served upon or mailed to each stockholder entitled to vote thereat at such address as appears on the books of the Corporation, not less than ten days nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting.

Section 4. Special Meeting. Special meetings of the stockholders, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation, may be called by the president, the chairman of the board of directors or by not less than a quorum of the board of directors, and shall be called by the president or secretary at the request in writing of stockholders owning not less than one-half of the shares of capital stock of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting. Such request will state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting.

Section 5. Notice of Special Meeting. Written notice of a special meeting of stockholders, stating the place, day and hour and purpose or purposes thereof, will be served upon or mailed to each stockholder entitled to vote thereat at such address as appears on the books of the Corporation, not less than ten days nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting.

Section 6. Business at Special Meeting. Business transacted at all special meetings will be confined to the purpose or purposes stated in the notice.

Section 7. Stockholder List. At least ten days before each meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each, will be prepared by the secretary. Such list, for a period of ten days prior to such meeting, will be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and will be subject to inspection by any stockholder at any time during usual business hours. Such list will also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any stockholder during the whole time of the meeting.

Section 8. Quorum. The holders of at least one-half of the shares of capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business except as otherwise provided by statute, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws. If, however, such quorum is not present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, represented in person or by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is later represented any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified.

Section 9. Majority Vote. When a quorum is present at any meeting, the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares having voting power represented in person or by proxy will decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which, by express provision of statute, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, a different vote is required, in which case such express provision will govern and control the decision of such question.

Section 10. Proxies. At any meeting of the stockholders every stockholder having the right to vote will be entitled to vote in person, or by proxy appointed by an instrument in writing subscribed by such stockholder or his duly authorized attorney in fact and bearing a date not more than eleven months prior to said meeting.

Section 11. Voting. Unless otherwise provided by statute, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, each stockholder will have one vote for each share of stock having voting power, registered in his name on the books of the Corporation.

Section 12. Action by Written Consent. Any action which the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws requires or permits to be taken at a meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the number of stockholders whose votes would be sufficient to authorize or take such action and who are entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation will be managed by a board of directors. The board may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute, by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 2. Number of Directors. The number of directors which constitute the whole board will be no less than one and no more than five, as such number shall be determined by resolution of the board of directors from time to time; provided that no decrease in the number of directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. As of the date of the initial adoption of these Bylaws, the number of directors constituting the board of directors shall be three.

Section 3. Election and Term. Directors, other than the first board of directors, will be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders, and each director will be elected to serve until the next annual meeting and until his successor is elected and qualified. Directors need not be stockholders.

Section 4. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the board of directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy will be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors may be filled by majority vote of the board of directors or by election at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of stockholders called for that purpose. Provided, however, if such vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors is filled by the directors, then such board position must stand for reelection at the next annual meeting of stockholders and, provided further, that no more than two such newly-created vacancies may be filled by the directors in any interim period between meeting of stockholders.

Section 5. Resignation; Removal. Any director may resign at any time. The board of directors may, by majority vote of the directors then in office, remove a director for cause. The stockholders entitled to vote in the election of directors may remove a director with or without cause.

ARTICLE IV
MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

Section 1. First Meeting. Each newly elected board of directors may hold its first meeting for the purpose of organization and the transaction of business, if a quorum is present, immediately after and at the same place as the annual meeting of the stockholders, and no notice of such meeting shall be necessary; or the board may meet at such place and time as is fixed by the consent in writing of all the directors.

Section 2. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board may be held at such time and place either within or without the State of Delaware and with such notice or without notice as is determined from time to time by the board.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board may be called by the president or the chairman of the board of directors on one day's notice to each director, either personally or by mail or telegram. Special meetings will be called by the president or the secretary in like manner and on like notice upon the written request of any director.

Section 4. Quorum and Voting. At all meetings of the board, a majority of the directors will be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum will be the act of the board of directors, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 5. Telephone Meetings. The directors may hold their meetings in any manner permitted by law. Without limitation, at any meeting of the board, a member may attend by telephone, radio, television, interactive media or similar means of communication by means of which all participants can hear each other which permits him to participate in the meeting, and a director so attending will be deemed present at the meeting for all purposes including the determination of whether a quorum is present.

Section 6. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board of directors or executive committee under applicable statutory provisions, the Certificate of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all the members of the board of directors or executive committee, as the case may be, and filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the directors or executive committee, as the case may be.

ARTICLE V
COMMITTEES

Section 1. Executive Committee. The board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole board, may designate two or more directors to constitute an executive committee, which committee, to the extent provided in such resolution, will have and may exercise all of the authority of the board of directors in the business and affairs of the Corporation, and may have power to authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it, except where action by the board of directors is specified by statute. The executive committee will keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report the same to the board when required.

Section 2. Other Committees. The board of directors may similarly create other committees for such terms and with such powers and duties as the board deems appropriate.

Section 3. Advisory Directors. The board of directors may, by majority vote, appoint one or more advisory directors. Advisory directors shall serve at the board's convenience solely to advise the board of directors, and shall have no formal responsibilities. No advisory director shall be entitled to vote at meetings of the board, nor shall any advisory director be counted when determining whether there is a quorum at directors' meetings. Advisory directors shall not be, by virtue of their position as advisory directors, agents of the Corporation, and they shall not have the power to bind the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI
COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Attendance Fees. Directors, as such, will not receive any stated salary for their services, but by resolution of the board a fixed sum and expenses of attendance may be allowed for attendance at each regular or special meeting of the board; however, this provision will not preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor. Members of committees may be allowed like compensation for attending committee meetings.

ARTICLE VII
NOTICES

Section 1. Methods of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any stockholder or director under the provisions of any statute, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, it will not be construed to require personal notice, but such notice may be given in writing by mail addressed to such stockholder or director at such address as appears on the books of the Corporation, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid. Notice to directors may also be given by facsimile, and notice given by such means shall be deemed given at the time it is actually received.

Section 2. Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any stockholder or director under the provisions of any statute, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, will be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance at any meeting will constitute a waiver of notice thereof except as otherwise provided by statute.

ARTICLE VIII

OFFICERS

Section 1. Executive Officers. The officers of the Corporation will consist of chief executive officer, president/chief operations officer, treasurer, and secretary, each of whom shall be elected by the board of directors. The board of directors may also elect a chairman of the board, additional vice presidents, and one or more assistant secretaries and assistant treasurers. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person.

Section 2. Election and Qualification. The board of directors at its first meeting after each annual meeting of stockholders will elect the president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and a treasurer, none of whom need be a member of the board.

Section 3. Other Officers and Agents. The board may elect or appoint such other officers, assistant officers and agents as it deems necessary, who will hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as determined from time to time by the board.

Section 4. Salaries. The salaries of all officers of the Corporation will be fixed by the board of directors except as otherwise directed by the board.

Section 5. Term, Removal and Vacancies. The officers of the Corporation will hold office until their resignation or their successors are chosen and qualify. Any officer, agent or member of the executive committee elected or appointed by the board of directors may be removed at any time by the board of directors; provided, that such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of such removed party. If any such office becomes vacant for any reason, the vacancy will be filled by the board of directors.

Section 6. Chief Executive Officer. The chief executive officer will be the chief executive officer of the Corporation. He will preside at all meetings of the stockholders and the board of directors unless such duties have been assigned to a chairman of the board by the board of directors. He will be ex-officio a member of all standing committees, will have general powers of oversight, supervision and management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, and will see that all orders and resolutions of the board of directors are carried into effect.

Section 7. President/Chief Operations Officer. The president/chief operations officer will, in the absence or disability of the chief executive officer perform the duties and exercise the powers of the chief executive officer, and will perform such other duties as the board of directors and chief executive officer may prescribe.

Section 8. Secretary. The secretary will attend all meetings of the board of directors and all meetings of the stockholders and record all votes and the minutes of all proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose and will perform like duties for the standing committees when required. He will give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the board of directors, and will perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors and president. He will keep in safe custody the seal of the Corporation and, when authorized by the board, affix the same to any instrument requiring it, and when so affixed it shall be attested by his signature or by the signature of an assistant secretary.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. The assistant secretaries in the order determined by the board of directors will perform, in the absence or disability of the secretary, the duties and exercise the powers of the secretary and will perform such other duties as the board of directors and president may prescribe.

Section 10. Treasurer. The treasurer will have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and will keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and will deposit all monies and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the board of directors. He will disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the board, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and will render to the board of directors and president, whenever they may require it, an account of all of his transactions as treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

Section 11. Assistant Treasurers. The assistant treasurers in the order determined by the board of directors, in the absence or disability of the treasurer, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the treasurer and will perform such other duties as the board of directors and president may prescribe.

Section 12. Officer's Bond. If required by the board of directors, any officer will give the Corporation a bond (to be renewed as the board may require) in such sum and with such surety or sureties as is satisfactory to the board for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

SHARES AND STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Certificates Representing Shares. The certificates representing shares of the Corporation will be numbered and entered in the books of the Corporation as they are issued. They will exhibit the holder's name and number of shares and will be signed by the president or vice-president and the secretary or an assistant secretary, and will be sealed with the seal of the Corporation or a facsimile thereof. The signature of any such officer may be facsimile if the certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registered by a registrar, other than the Corporation itself or an employee of the Corporation. In case any officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon such certificate has ceased to be such officer before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer at the date of its issuance.

Section 2. Transfer of Shares. Upon surrender to the Corporation of a certificate for shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer, it will be the duty of the Corporation to issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate and record the transaction upon its books. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no transfer will be recognized by the Corporation if such transfer would violate federal or state securities laws, the Certificate of Incorporation, or any stockholders agreements which may be in effect at the time of the purported transfer. The Corporation may, prior to any such transfer, require an opinion of counsel to the effect that any such transfer does not violate applicable securities laws requiring registration or an exemption from registration prior to any such transfer.

Section 3. Fixing Record Date. For the purpose of determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of stockholders for any other proper purpose, the board of directors may provide that the stock transfer books be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, sixty days. If the stock transfer books are closed for the purpose of determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders, such books must be closed for at least ten days immediately preceding such meeting. In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the board of directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of stockholders, such date, in any case, to be not more than sixty days and, in case of a meeting of stockholders, not less than ten days prior to the date on which the particular action requiring such determination of stockholders is to be taken. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders, or stockholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the board of directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, will be the record date for such determination of stockholders. When a determination of stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders has been made as herein provided, such determination will apply to any adjournment thereof except where the determination has been made through the closing of stock transfer books and the stated period of closing has expired.

Section 4. Registered Stockholders. The Corporation is entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of the share to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and for all other purposes as such owner; and the Corporation is not bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it has express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by the laws of Delaware.

Section 5. Lost Certificate. The board of directors may direct a new certificate or certificates to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or certificates, the board of directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost or destroyed certificate or certificates, or his legal representatives, to advertise the same in such manner as it shall require and/or give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost or destroyed.

GENERAL

Section 1. Dividends. The board of directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation pay, dividends on its outstanding shares of capital stock in cash, in property, or in its own shares, except when the declaration or payment thereof would be contrary to statute or the Certificate of Incorporation. Such dividends may be declared at any regular or special meeting of the board, and the declaration and payment will be subject to all applicable provisions of laws, the Certificate of Incorporation and these Bylaws.

Section 2. Reserves. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the directors from time to time, in their absolute discretion, deem proper as a reserve fund to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for such other purpose as the directors may think conducive to the interest of the Corporation, and the directors may modify or abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

Section 3. Directors' Annual Statement. The board of directors will present at each annual meeting and when called for by vote of the stockholders at any special meeting of the stockholders, a full and clear statement of the business and condition of the Corporation.

Section 4. Checks. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation will be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 5. Corporate Records. The Corporation will keep at its registered office or principal place of business, or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar, a record of its stockholders giving the names and addresses of all stockholders and the number and class of shares held by each. All other books and records of the Corporation may be kept at such place or places within or without the State of Delaware as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

Section 6. Seal. The corporate seal will have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed, affixed or reproduced.

Section 7. Amendment. These Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed or new bylaws may be adopted at any annual meeting of the stockholders or at any special meeting of the stockholders at which a quorum is present or represented, provided notice of the proposed alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption be contained in the notice of such meeting, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at such meeting and present or represented thereat, or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors at any regular meeting of the board or at any special meeting of the board; provided however, that no change of the time or place of the annual meeting of stockholders may be made after the issuance of notice thereof.

Section 8. Indemnification. Each director, officer and former director or officer of the Corporation, and any person who may have served or who may hereafter serve at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock or of which it is a creditor, is hereby indemnified by the Corporation against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he is made a party by reason of being or having been such director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. Such indemnification will not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director, officer or other person may be entitled under any agreement, vote of stockholders, or otherwise. Without limitation, nothing in this section shall limit any indemnification provisions in the Certificate of Incorporation.

Adopted as of November 1, 1996.

Offices

Section 1.1 The principal office of the Corporation shall be, until changed by the Board of Directors, at 7201 East Camelback Road, Suite #375, Scottsdale, Arizona, 85251. The Corporation may also have offices and branch offices at such other places within and without the State of Wyoming as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE 2

Shareholders Meetings

Section 2.1 Place. Except as hereinafter provided, any annual or special meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such place within or without the State of California as may be selected by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee. If the Board of Directors or Executive Committee fails to designate a place for the meeting to be held, then the same shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation. Special meetings called for the purpose of removing directors shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of California or in the city or county in the State of California in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located.

Section 2.2 Date of Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the 30th day in the month of December in each year at such time as may be specified in the notice of meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a holiday, such annual meeting shall be held on the next business day.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.4 Notice of Shareholders' Meetings, Annual or Special. Written or printed notice of each meeting of shareholders shall be delivered or given either personally or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Any notice of a shareholders' meeting given by mail shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid and addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation.

Section 2.5 Persons Authorized to Give Notice. Notice of an annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be given or delivered by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors.

Section 2.6 Written Waiver of Notice. Any notice required by these Bylaws may be waived by any person entitled thereto signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 2.7 Waiver of Attendance. Attendance of a shareholder at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 2.8 Quorum. A majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at any meeting, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act unless a larger vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law. If the holders of the number of shares necessary to constitute a quorum shall fail to attend in person or by proxy, a majority in interest of the shareholders present in person or by proxy shall have the right successively to adjourn the meeting to a specified date not longer than ninety (90) days after such adjournment. No notice need be given of such adjournment to shareholders not present at the meeting.

Section 2.9 Persons Authorized to Convene Meetings. Every meeting shall be convened by the President, the Secretary or some other officer or other person designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.10 Shareholder Action Without Meeting. Any action required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws to be taken at a meeting of shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the shareholders.

Voting Procedure

Section 3.1 List of Voters. The officer having charge of the transfer book for shares of the Corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting at least ten (10) days before such meeting. Said list shall be arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the number of shares held by each shareholder. Said list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to the meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Said list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at any meeting.

Section 3.2 Inspectors. At any meeting called for the election of directors, if the presiding officer of the Corporation or a majority in number of shares present at such meeting desire, the President or other person presiding at the meeting shall appoint not less than two (2) persons, who are not directors, as inspectors to receive and canvass the votes given at such meeting and certify the result to him. Any inspector, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the following oath before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear, that I will execute the duties of an inspector of the election now to be held with strict impartiality, and according to the best of my ability."

Section 3.3 Record Date/Close of Transfer Books. The Board of Directors shall have the power to close the stock transfer books of the Corporation for a period not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or, in lieu thereof, to fix in advance a date not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting. If the Board of Directors shall not have closed the transfer books or fixed a record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, a meeting of shareholders, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the close of business of the 20th day preceding the date of the meeting shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting; except that if, prior to the meeting, written waivers of notice of the meeting are signed and delivered to the Corporation by all of the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened shall be entitled to vote at the meeting, and any adjournment of the meeting.

Votes

Section 4.1 Eligible Votes. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share entitled to vote under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall be entitled to one vote (or a fractional vote for each fractional share) on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. No cumulative voting shall be permitted with respect to the election of directors or any other matter.

Section 4.2 Proxies. A shareholder may vote, with respect to any matter, including but not limited to the election of directors, which may come before a meeting of shareholders, either in person, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by applicable law, by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only so long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power of attorney. The interest with which it is coupled need not be an interest in the shares themselves. In any case in which application law requires, as a condition to the validity of a proxy, that it provide that it is revocable, a proxy which does not provide that it is revocable shall be wholly invalid, and not valid but revocable.

Section 4.3 Corporate Shareholders. Shares of stock of the Corporation standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provisions, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Section 4.4 Deceased Shareholders. Shares of stock standing in the name of a deceased person may be voted by his personal representative, either in person or by proxy.

Section 4.5 Conservators and Trustees. Shares standing in the name of a conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) may be voted by such fiduciary, either in person or by proxy, but no conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) shall be entitled, as such fiduciary, to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Section 4.6 Receivers and Trustees in Bankruptcy. Shares standing in the name of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do is conferred by applicable law or is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy was appointed.

Section 4.7 Pledges. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Board of Directors

Section 5.1 Management and Number. The property, business and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled and managed by a Board of Directors consisting of three members, none of whom need be shareholders or residents of any particular state. Unless fixed by the Articles of Incorporation, the number of directors may at any time be increased or decreased by amendment of these Bylaws. Any changes in the number of directors effected by an amendment to these Bylaws shall be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) calendar days following such change.

Section 5.2 Election and Vacancies. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal. Vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors to constitute the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, until the next election of directors by the shareholders at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 5.3 Quorum. A majority of the full Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, such meeting may be adjourned any number of times, without further notice, by a majority of the directors present.

Section 5.4 Place/Manner of Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that in the event of adjournment of said annual meeting of the Board of Directors the meeting may be reconvened at any place within or without the State of California, as may be designated by the directors adjourning said meeting. All regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation or at such other place within or without the State of California as may be designated by the Board of Directors or the officer calling the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the Board of Directors may participate in any regular or special meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in any such meeting by such means shall constitute presence and attendance at such meeting for all purposes.

Section 5.5 Time of Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that if a quorum cannot then be assembled, said meeting shall be adjourned until such time as a quorum may be assembled, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the annual meeting of shareholders. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently and at such times as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon call of the Chairman of the Board (if one be elected), the President, or a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.6 Notice. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission addressed to him at his usual business address at least five (5) days prior to the meeting in case of notice by mail at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting in case of notice by telegram or facsimile transmission, or by communicating notice to a director directly (and not through a secretary, family member or other person), either orally or in writing at a face-to-face meeting or by telephone, at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting. A notice given by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission shall be deemed given to any director when directed to such director at his address or (in the case of notice by facsimile transmission) facsimile transmission number as it appears in the records of the Corporation and when deposited in the United States Mail, postage prepaid, when delivered to an appropriate telegraph office, charges prepaid, or when the sender's facsimile transmission equipment indicates that transmission has been completed, as the case may be. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 5.7 Waiver. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Notice may also be waived by a director by signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting. Any waiver of notice by either of the means specified in this Section 5.7 shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 5.8 Action by Directors Without Meeting. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.9 Compensation. The compensation of the directors may be set from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, and a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude a director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 5.10 Removal. At a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the following manner. Such meeting shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of California or in the city or county in the State of California in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located. One or more directors or the entire Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors; provided, however, that if less than the entire Board is to be removed and if the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him in then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors.

Committees

Section 6.1 Executive Committee. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, may designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution and in any subsequent resolution delegating additional authority or revoking any previous delegation of authority, shall have and exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation. The designation of such an Executive Committee and the delegation thereto of authority by the Board of Directors shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law.

Section 6.2 Other Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors to constitute such other committees not having or exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation, but to deal with, address and study specific subjects or issues and to make reports and recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect thereto, all as specified by the Board.

Section 6.3 Committee Procedure. The majority of all the members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may fix its rules of procedure, determine its action and fix the time and place (whether within or without the State of California) of its meetings and specify what notice thereof, if any, shall be given, unless the Board of Directors shall provide otherwise by resolution. Members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Actions taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, shall have the power to fill vacancies, to appoint one or more directors to serve as alternate members of the Executive Committee or other committees, and, at any time, to abolish the Executive Committee or any other committee or remove any directors therefrom, either with or without cause.

Section 6.4 Action by Unanimous Consent. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors who are members of said committee. Each such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the committee. Such a consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the members of the committee taken at a meeting thereof.

Officers

Section 7.1 Required and Permitted Officers. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Secretary and such other officers, including a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, and other assistant officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time elect. If more than one Vice President be elected, the Board may determine the seniority of each of said Vice Presidents. Any two or more offices may be held by the same individual.

Section 7.2 Election and Term. The President and Secretary shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the shareholders and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may elect other officers at any meeting of the Board. Any such other officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.3 Removal. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served by such removal, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights of the person so removed under any contract between such person and the corporation, except to the extent provided in any such contract.

Section 7.4 Vacancies. In case any office shall become vacant by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the directors then in office, although less than a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may, by a majority vote of those voting, choose a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

Section 7.5 Compensation of Officers. The Board of Directors, or such officer as it may designate, may fix the compensation for the officers of the Corporation and may fix the compensation for such other officers and agents as may from time to time be appointed.

Section 7.6 Bond. The Board of Directors, by resolution, may require any and all of the officers to give bond to the Corporation, with sufficient surety or sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and to comply with such other conditions as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 8

Duties of Officers

Section 8.1 Chairman of the Board. If a Chairman of the Board be elected, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he may be present. The Board of Directors may delegate such other authority and assign such additional duties to the Chairman of the Board, other than those conferred by law exclusively upon the President, as it may from time to time determine. The Board also may designate the Chairman of the Board as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, with all of the powers otherwise conferred upon the President of the Corporation.

The Board also may provide that the Chairman of the Board shall have the powers of the chief executive officer coextensively with the President, or it may, from time to time, divide the powers, responsibilities, duties and authority of the chief executive officer between the Chairman of the Board and the President.

Section 8.2 The President. Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation with such general executive powers and duties of supervision and management as are usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation.

He shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect, subject to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers to any other officer or officers of the Corporation.

He shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, at meetings of the Board of Directors.

He, along with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the Corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, may sign certificates for shares of the Corporation, deeds, conveyances, bonds, mortgages, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, and unless the Board of Directors shall order otherwise by resolution, he may make such contracts and execute such certificates, documents and other instruments as may be incident thereto, as the ordinary conduct of the Corporation's business may require.

Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President or any person designated in writing by him may (i) attend meetings of shareholders of other corporations to represent the Corporation there at and to vote or take action with respect to other shares of any such corporation owned by this Corporation in such manner as he or his designee may determine; and (ii) execute and deliver written consents, waivers of notice and proxies for and in the name of the Corporation with respect to any such shares owned by this Corporation.

He shall, unless the Board provides otherwise, be, ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee and all other committees of the Board of Directors.

If a Chairman of the Board be elected or appointed and designated as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, the President shall perform such duties as may be specifically delegated to him by the Board of Directors as are conferred by law exclusively upon him. In the absence, disability or inability to act of the Chairman of the Board, the President shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chairman of the Board.

Section 8.3 Vice Presidents. Any Vice President elected by the Board of Directors shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to him and shall exercise such powers as may be granted to him by the Board of Directors or by the President of the Corporation. In the absence of the President, the Vice Presidents, in order of their seniority, may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President with the same force and effect as if performed by the President.

Section 8.4 The Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee (if any) and any other committee or committees of the Board in one of the books provided for that purpose.

He shall be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation. He shall see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all certificates for shares prior to the issue thereof and to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and applicable law.

He shall sign with the President or a Vice President, certificates for shares of the Corporation, the issue of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the stock transfer book of the Corporation.

He shall keep a register of the post office address of each shareholder which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such shareholder.

He shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law and that the voting list is prepared for shareholders' meetings.

In general, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.5 The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for the funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors or by any officer of the Corporation to whom such authority has been granted by the Board of Directors.

He shall disburse or permit to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered or authorized generally by the Board.

He shall render to the chief executive officer of the Corporation and the directors whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of those under his jurisdiction and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

In general, he shall perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.6 Assistant Officers. Each assistant officer that may be selected pursuant to these Bylaws shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. In the absence or nonavailability of the principal, the assistant may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the principal with the same force and effect as if performed by the principal. The assistant shall also have such lesser or greater authority and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

Contracts, Checks, Loans and Deposits

Section 9.1 All contracts and agreements authorized by the Board of Directors and all checks, drafts, bills of exchange or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or agent or agents, as may from time to time be permitted by these Bylaws, or as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, the President or such officer or officers as the Board of Directors may appoint. The designation or designations may be general or confined to specific instances. The Board of Directors may authorize the use of facsimile signatures on any such document.

Issuance and Transfer of Stock

Section 10.1 Board Authorization. The issuance of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be authorized by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the General Corporation Law of California.

Section 10.2 Certificates. Certificates of stock of the Corporation shall be numbered and registered as they are issued. They shall exhibit the holder's name and the number of shares and shall be signed by the President or a Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and shall bear the corporate seal, which may be facsimile, engraved or printed. If any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registrar other than the Corporation or an employee of the Corporation, any other signature thereon may be facsimile, engraved or printed. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, such certificate may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person was such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 10.3 Transfers. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney-in-fact, lawfully constituted in writing, upon surrender of such certificate duly and properly endorsed.

Section 10.4 Lost Certificates. In case of the loss or destruction of any certificate of stock, a new certificate may be issued upon the following conditions: The owner shall file with the Secretary an affidavit giving the facts in relation to the ownership and the loss or destruction of said certificate, stating its number and the number of shares represented thereby. The Secretary shall present such affidavit to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that such certificate has been destroyed or lost, and that a new certificate ought to be issued in lieu thereof, the Board may direct the officers of the Corporation to issue a new certificate, or the Board may condition the issuance of a new certificate upon the filing of a bond, in an amount and with a surety acceptable to the Board of Directors, to indemnify the Corporation and save it harmless from any loss, expense, damage or liability occasioned by the issuance of such new certificate. Upon receipt of the Board's direction, or the filing of any required bond, the proper officers of the Corporation shall issue a new certificate for the same number of shares to the owner of the certificate so lost or destroyed.

Section 10.5 Transfer Books. Proper books shall be kept under the direction of the Secretary showing the ownership and transfer of all certificates of stock. These books shall constitute the test of the qualifications of voters at any shareholders' meeting.

Fiscal Year

Section 11.1 The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as established by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 12

Dividends

Section 12.1 The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares subject to the limitations and conditions imposed by applicable law and subject also to any restrictions contained in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 13

Seal

Section 13.1 The seal of the Corporation shall be in circular form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation and the words "Corporate Seal" and "California." The Board of Directors may, by resolution, change the form of the corporate seal from time to time.

ARTICLE 14

Inspection of Books and Records

Section 14.1 Upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation, a shareholder, acting in good faith and for a proper purpose, may inspect such books and records of the Corporation as shall be specifically identified in the notice, provided that the Corporation shall be required by law to produce the same. The requirement of thirty (30) days' written notice may be reduced to a lesser number of days by the Board of Directors where the shareholder demonstrates a proper need for more immediate inspection of such books and records. The notice requesting inspection shall specify the purpose for which the examination is desired, the probable duration of the examination, and the names of those individuals who desire to be present during the examination. The inspection shall be performed during the Corporation's usual and customary hours of business and in such manner as will not unduly interfere with the regular conduct of the business of the Corporation. The inspection may be supervised by an officer or agent of the Corporation and the inspection shall be conducted at either the Corporation's registered office, the Corporation's principal place of business, or at the office of the Corporation's counsel, as shall be determined by the President. Upon a proper showing of need, a shareholder may utilize the assistance of attorneys, accountants or other experts in connection with the inspection, provided that, if required by the Board of Directors, the shareholder and the experts shall agree to furnish to the Corporation, as promptly as completed or made, a true and correct copy of any and every report or other written memorandum with respect to such inspection made by such experts. No shareholder shall use or permit to be used or acquiesce in the use by others of any information so obtained to the detriment of the Corporation, nor shall furnish or permit to be furnished any information so obtained to any competitor or prospective competitor of the Corporation. The Corporation, as a condition precedent to any shareholder's inspection of the records of the Corporation, may require the shareholder to indemnify the Corporation against any loss or damage which may be suffered by it arising out of or resulting from any unauthorized disclosure made or permitted to be made by such shareholder, his employee or agent of information obtained in the course of inspection.

Amendments

Section 15.1 These Bylaws may be made, altered, amended, or replaced in the manner specified in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 16

Miscellaneous

Section 16.1 Interpretation. Whenever the context so requires, the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural and conversely.

Section 16.2 Inoperative Portion. If any portion of these Bylaws shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder shall be considered valid and operative, and effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

Section 16.3 Table of Contents — Headings. The table of contents and headings are for organization, convenience and clarity and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these Bylaws nor the intent of any provision thereof.

OF
Allied Waste of Long Island, Inc.
UNDER SECTION 402 OF THE BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW

* * * * *

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, all of the age of eighteen years or over, for the purpose of forming a corporation pursuant to Section 402 of the Business Corporation Law of New York, do hereby certify:

FIRST: The name of the corporation is: Allied Waste of Long Island, Inc.

SECOND: The purposes for which it is formed are: To engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Business Corporation Law provided that the corporation is not formed to engage in any act or activity which requires the consent or approval of any state official, department, board, agency or other body, without such consent or approval first being obtained.

THIRD: The office of the corporation is to be located in the County of New York, State of New York.

FOURTH: The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is One Thousand (1,000) each without par value.

FIFTH: The Secretary of State is designated as the agent of the corporation upon whom process against the corporation may be served. The post office address to which the Secretary of State shall mail a copy of any process against the corporation served upon him is: c/o C T Corporation System, 1633 Broadway, New York, New York 10019.

SIXTH: The name and address of the registered agent which is to be the agent of the corporation upon whom process against it may be served, are C T Corporation System, 1633 Broadway, New York, New York 10019.

SEVENTH: No director shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for damages for any breach of duty in such capacity, except that this provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of any director if a judgement or other final adjudication adverse to such director establishes that such director's acts or omissions were in bad faith or involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law or that such director personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which such director was not legally entitled or that such director's acts violated section 719 of the Business Corporation Law, nor shall this provision eliminate or limit the liability of any director for any act or omission prior to the adoption of this provision.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have made and signed this certificate this February 11th A.D. 1997 and we affirm the statements contained therein as truth under penalties of perjury.

BYLAWS OF ALLIED WASTE OF LONG ISLAND, INC.

Offices

Section 1.1 The principal office of the Corporation shall be, until changed by the Board of Directors, at 15880 North Greenway-Hayden Loop, Suite #100, Scottsdale, Arizona 85260. The Corporation may also have offices and branch offices at such other places within and without the State of New Jersey as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE 2

Shareholders Meetings

Section 2.1 Place. Except as hereinafter provided, any annual or special meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such place within or without the State of New York as may be selected by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors fails to designate a place for the meeting to be held, then the same shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation. Special meetings called for the purpose of removing directors shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of New York or in the city or county in the State of New York in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located.

Section 2.2 Date of Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the 30th day in the month of December in each year at such time as may be specified in the notice of meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a holiday, such annual meeting shall be held on the next business day.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.4 Notice of Shareholders' Meetings, Annual or Special. Written or printed notice of each meeting of shareholders shall be delivered or given either personally or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Any notice of a shareholders' meeting given by mail shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid and addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation.

Section 2.5 Persons Authorized to Give Notice. Notice of an annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be given or delivered by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors.

Section 2.6 Written Waiver of Notice. Any notice required by these Bylaws may be waived by any person entitled thereto signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 2.7 Waiver of Attendance. Attendance of a shareholder at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 2.8 Quorum. A majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at any meeting, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act unless a larger vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law. If the holders of the number of shares necessary to constitute a quorum shall fail to attend in person or by proxy, a majority in interest of the shareholders present in person or by proxy shall have the right successively to adjourn the meeting to a specified date not longer than ninety (90) days after such adjournment. No notice need be given of such adjournment to shareholders not present at the meeting.

Section 2.9 Persons Authorized to Convene Meetings. Every meeting shall be convened by the President, the Secretary or some other officer or other person designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.10 Shareholder Action Without Meeting. Any action required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws to be taken at a meeting of shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the shareholders.

Voting Procedure

Section 3.1 List of Voters. The officer having charge of the transfer book for shares of the Corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting at least ten (10) days before such meeting. Said list shall be arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the number of shares held by each shareholder. Said list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to the meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Said list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at any meeting.

Section 3.2 Inspectors. At any meeting called for the election of directors, if the presiding officer of the Corporation or a majority in number of shares present at such meeting desire, the President or other person presiding at the meeting shall appoint not less than two (2) persons, who are not directors, as inspectors to receive and canvass the votes given at such meeting and certify the result to him. Any inspector, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the following oath before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear, that I will execute the duties of an inspector of the election now to be held with strict impartiality, and according to the best of my ability."

Section 3.3 Record Date/Close of Transfer Books. The Board of Directors shall have the power to close the stock transfer books of the Corporation for a period not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or, in lieu thereof, to fix in advance a date not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting. If the Board of Directors shall not have closed the transfer books or fixed a record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, a meeting of shareholders, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the close of business of the 20th day preceding the date of the meeting shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting; except that if, prior to the meeting, written waivers of notice of the meeting are signed and delivered to the Corporation by all of the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened shall be entitled to vote at the meeting, and any adjournment of the meeting.

Votes

Section 4.1 Eligible Votes. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share entitled to vote under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall be entitled to one vote (or a fractional vote for each fractional share) on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. No cumulative voting shall be permitted with respect to the election of directors or any other matter.

Section 4.2 Proxies. A shareholder may vote, with respect to any matter, including but not limited to the election of directors, which may come before a meeting of shareholders, either in person, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by applicable law, by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only so long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power of attorney. The interest with which it is coupled need not be an interest in the shares themselves. In any case in which application law requires, as a condition to the validity of a proxy, that it provide that it is revocable, a proxy which does not provide that it is revocable shall be wholly invalid, and not valid but revocable.

Section 4.3 Corporate Shareholders. Shares of stock of the Corporation standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provisions, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Section 4.4 Deceased Shareholders. Shares of stock standing in the name of a deceased person may be voted by his personal representative, either in person or by proxy.

Section 4.5 Conservators and Trustees. Shares standing in the name of a conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) may be voted by such fiduciary, either in person or by proxy, but no conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) shall be entitled, as such fiduciary, to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Section 4.6 Receivers and Trustees in Bankruptcy. Shares standing in the name of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do is conferred by applicable law or is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy was appointed.

Section 4.7 Pledges. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Board of Directors

Section 5.1 Management and Number. The property, business and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled and managed by a Board of Directors consisting of three members, none of whom need be shareholders or residents of any particular state. Unless fixed by the Articles of Incorporation, the number of directors may at any time be increased or decreased by amendment of these Bylaws. Any changes in the number of directors effected by an amendment to these Bylaws shall be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) calendar days following such change.

Section 5.2 Election and Vacancies. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal. Vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors to constitute the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, until the next election of directors by the shareholders at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 5.3 Quorum. A majority of the full Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, such meeting may be adjourned any number of times, without further notice, by a majority of the directors present.

Section 5.4 Place/Manner of Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that in the event of adjournment of said annual meeting of the Board of Directors the meeting may be reconvened at any place within or without the State of New York, as may be designated by the directors adjourning said meeting. All regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation or at such other place within or without the State of New York as may be designated by the Board of Directors or the officer calling the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the Board of Directors may participate in any regular or special meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in any such meeting by such means shall constitute presence and attendance at such meeting for all purposes.

Section 5.5 Time of Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that if a quorum cannot then be assembled, said meeting shall be adjourned until such time as a quorum may be assembled, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the annual meeting of shareholders. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently and at such times as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon call of the Chairman of the Board (if one be elected), the President, or a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.6 Notice. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission addressed to him at his usual business address at least five (5) days prior to the meeting in case of notice by mail at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting in case of notice by telegram or facsimile transmission, or by communicating notice to a director directly (and not through a secretary, family member or other person), either orally or in writing at a face-to-face meeting or by telephone, at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting. A notice given by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission shall be deemed given to any director when directed to such director at his address or (in the case of notice by facsimile transmission) facsimile transmission number as it appears in the records of the Corporation and when deposited in the United States Mail, postage prepaid, when delivered to an appropriate telegraph office, charges prepaid, or when the sender's facsimile transmission equipment indicates that transmission has been completed, as the case may be. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 5.7 Waiver. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Notice may also be waived by a director by signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting. Any waiver of notice by either of the means specified in this Section 5.7 shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 5.8 Action by Directors Without Meeting. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.9 Compensation. The compensation of the directors may be set from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, and a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude a director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 5.10 Removal. At a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the following manner. Such meeting shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of New York or in the city or county in the State of New York in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located. One or more directors or the entire Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors; provided, however, that if less than the entire Board is to be removed and if the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him in then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors.

Committees

Section 6.1 Executive Committee. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, may designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution and in any subsequent resolution delegating additional authority or revoking any previous delegation of authority, shall have and exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation. The designation of such an Executive Committee and the delegation thereto of authority by the Board of Directors shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law.

Section 6.2 Other Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors to constitute such other committees not having or exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation, but to deal with, address and study specific subjects or issues and to make reports and recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect thereto, all as specified by the Board.

Section 6.3 Committee Procedure. The majority of all the members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may fix its rules of procedure, determine its action and fix the time and place (whether within or without the State of New York) of its meetings and specify what notice thereof, if any, shall be given, unless the Board of Directors shall provide otherwise by resolution. Members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Actions taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, shall have the power to fill vacancies, to appoint one or more directors to serve as alternate members of the Executive Committee or other committees, and, at any time, to abolish the Executive Committee or any other committee or remove any directors therefrom, either with or without cause.

Section 6.4 Action by Unanimous Consent. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors who are members of said committee. Each such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the committee. Such a consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the members of the committee taken at a meeting thereof.

Officers

Section 7.1 Required and Permitted Officers. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Secretary and such other officers, including a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, and other assistant officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time elect. If more than one Vice President be elected, the Board may determine the seniority of each of said Vice Presidents. Any two or more offices may be held by the same individual.

Section 7.2 Election and Term. The President and Secretary shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the shareholders and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may elect other officers at any meeting of the Board. Any such other officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.3 Removal. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served by such removal, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights of the person so removed under any contract between such person and the corporation, except to the extent provided in any such contract.

Section 7.4 Vacancies. In case any office shall become vacant by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the directors then in office, although less than a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may, by a majority vote of those voting, choose a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

Section 7.5 Compensation of Officers. The Board of Directors, or such officer as it may designate, may fix the compensation for the officers of the Corporation and may fix the compensation for such other officers and agents as may from time to time be appointed.

Section 7.6 Bond. The Board of Directors, by resolution, may require any and all of the officers to give bond to the Corporation, with sufficient surety or sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and to comply with such other conditions as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 8

Duties of Officers

Section 8.1 Chairman of the Board. If a Chairman of the Board be elected, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he may be present. The Board of Directors may delegate such other authority and assign such additional duties to the Chairman of the Board, other than those conferred by law exclusively upon the President, as it may from time to time determine. The Board also may designate the Chairman of the Board as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, with all of the powers otherwise conferred upon the President of the Corporation.

The Board also may provide that the Chairman of the Board shall have the powers of the chief executive officer coextensively with the President, or it may, from time to time, divide the powers, responsibilities, duties and authority of the chief executive officer between the Chairman of the Board and the President.

Section 8.2 The President. Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation with such general executive powers and duties of supervision and management as are usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation.

He shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect, subject to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers to any other officer or officers of the Corporation.

He shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, at meetings of the Board of Directors.

He, along with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the Corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, may sign certificates for shares of the Corporation, deeds, conveyances, bonds, mortgages, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, and unless the Board of Directors shall order otherwise by resolution, he may make such contracts and execute such certificates, documents and other instruments as may be incident thereto, as the ordinary conduct of the Corporation's business may require.

Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President or any person designated in writing by him may (i) attend meetings of shareholders of other corporations to represent the Corporation there at and to vote or take action with respect to other shares of any such corporation owned by this Corporation in such manner as he or his designee may determine; and (ii) execute and deliver written consents, waivers of notice and proxies for and in the name of the Corporation with respect to any such shares owned by this Corporation.

He shall, unless the Board provides otherwise, be, ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee and all other committees of the Board of Directors.

If a Chairman of the Board be elected or appointed and designated as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, the President shall perform such duties as may be specifically delegated to him by the Board of Directors as are conferred by law exclusively upon him. In the absence, disability or inability to act of the Chairman of the Board, the President shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chairman of the Board.

Section 8.3 Vice Presidents. Any Vice President elected by the Board of Directors shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to him and shall exercise such powers as may be granted to him by the Board of Directors or by the President of the Corporation. In the absence of the President, the Vice Presidents, in order of their seniority, may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President with the same force and effect as if performed by the President.

Section 8.4 The Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee (if any) and any other committee or committees of the Board in one of the books provided for that purpose.

He shall be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation. He shall see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all certificates for shares prior to the issue thereof and to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and applicable law.

He shall sign with the President or a Vice President, certificates for shares of the Corporation, the issue of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the stock transfer book of the Corporation.

He shall keep a register of the post office address of each shareholder which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such shareholder.

He shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law and that the voting list is prepared for shareholders' meetings.

In general, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.5 The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for the funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors or by any officer of the Corporation to whom such authority has been granted by the Board of Directors.

He shall disburse or permit to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered or authorized generally by the Board.

He shall render to the chief executive officer of the Corporation and the directors whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of those under his jurisdiction and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

In general, he shall perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.6 Assistant Officers. Each assistant officer that may be selected pursuant to these Bylaws shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. In the absence or nonavailability of the principal, the assistant may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the principal with the same force and effect as if performed by the principal. The assistant shall also have such lesser or greater authority and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

Contracts, Checks, Loans and Deposits

Section 9.1 All contracts and agreements authorized by the Board of Directors and all checks, drafts, bills of exchange or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or agent or agents, as may from time to time be permitted by these Bylaws, or as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, the President or such officer or officers as the Board of Directors may appoint. The designation or designations may be general or confined to specific instances. The Board of Directors may authorize the use of facsimile signatures on any such document.

Issuance and Transfer of Stock

Section 10.1 Board Authorization. The issuance of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be authorized by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the New York Business Corporation Act.

Section 10.2 Certificates. Certificates of stock of the Corporation shall be numbered and registered as they are issued. They shall exhibit the holder's name and the number of shares and shall be signed by the President or a Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and shall bear the corporate seal, which may be facsimile, engraved or printed. If any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registrar other than the Corporation or an employee of the Corporation, any other signature thereon may be facsimile, engraved or printed. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, such certificate may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person was such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 10.3 Transfers. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney-in-fact, lawfully constituted in writing, upon surrender of such certificate duly and properly endorsed.

Section 10.4 Lost Certificates. In case of the loss or destruction of any certificate of stock, a new certificate may be issued upon the following conditions: The owner shall file with the Secretary an affidavit giving the facts in relation to the ownership and the loss or destruction of said certificate, stating its number and the number of shares represented thereby. The Secretary shall present such affidavit to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that such certificate has been destroyed or lost, and that a new certificate ought to be issued in lieu thereof, the Board may direct the officers of the Corporation to issue a new certificate, or the Board may condition the issuance of a new certificate upon the filing of a bond, in an amount and with a surety acceptable to the Board of Directors, to indemnify the Corporation and save it harmless from any loss, expense, damage or liability occasioned by the issuance of such new certificate. Upon receipt of the Board's direction, or the filing of any required bond, the proper officers of the Corporation shall issue a new certificate for the same number of shares to the owner of the certificate so lost or destroyed.

Section 10.5 Transfer Books. Proper books shall be kept under the direction of the Secretary showing the ownership and transfer of all certificates of stock. These books shall constitute the test of the qualifications of voters at any shareholders' meeting.

Fiscal Year

Section 11.1 The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as established by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 12

Dividends

Section 12.1 The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares subject to the limitations and conditions imposed by applicable law and subject also to any restrictions contained in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 13

Seal

Section 13.1 The seal of the Corporation shall be in circular form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation and the words "Corporate Seal" and "New York." The Board of Directors may, by resolution, change the form of the corporate seal from time to time.

ARTICLE 14

Inspection of Books and Records

Section 14.1 Upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation, a shareholder, acting in good faith and for a proper purpose, may inspect such books and records of the Corporation as shall be specifically identified in the notice, provided that the Corporation shall be required by law to produce the same. The requirement of thirty (30) days' written notice may be reduced to a lesser number of days by the Board of Directors where the shareholder demonstrates a proper need for more immediate inspection of such books and records. The notice requesting inspection shall specify the purpose for which the examination is desired, the probable duration of the examination, and the names of those individuals who desire to be present during the examination. The inspection shall be performed during the Corporation's usual and customary hours of business and in such manner as will not unduly interfere with the regular conduct of the business of the Corporation. The inspection may be supervised by an officer or agent of the Corporation and the inspection shall be conducted at either the Corporation's registered office, the Corporation's principal place of business, or at the office of the Corporation's counsel, as shall be determined by the President. Upon a proper showing of need, a shareholder may utilize the assistance of attorneys, accountants or other experts in connection with the inspection, provided that, if required by the Board of Directors, the shareholder and the experts shall agree to furnish to the Corporation, as promptly as completed or made, a true and correct copy of any and every report or other written memorandum with respect to such inspection made by such experts. No shareholder shall use or permit to be used or acquiesce in the use by others of any information so obtained to the detriment of the Corporation, nor shall furnish or permit to be furnished any information so obtained to any competitor or prospective competitor of the Corporation. The Corporation, as a condition precedent to any shareholder's inspection of the records of the Corporation, may require the shareholder to indemnify the Corporation against any loss or damage which may be suffered by it arising out of or resulting from any unauthorized disclosure made or permitted to be made by such shareholder, his employee or agent of information obtained in the course of inspection.

Amendments

Section 15.1 These Bylaws may be made, altered, amended, or replaced in the manner specified in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 16

Miscellaneous

Section 16.1 Interpretation. Whenever the context so requires, the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter, and the singular shall include the plural and conversely.

Section 16.2 Inoperative Portion. If any portion of these Bylaws shall be invalid or inoperative, then, so far as is reasonable and possible, the remainder shall be considered valid and operative, and effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative.

Section 16.3 Table of Contents — Headings. The table of contents and headings are for organization, convenience and clarity and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these Bylaws nor the intent of any provision thereof.

BYLAWS OF ALLIED WASTE OF NEW JERSEY, INC.

Offices

Section 1.1 The principal office of the Corporation shall be, until changed by the Board of Directors, at 15880 North Greenway-Hayden Loop, Suite #100, Scottsdale, Arizona 85260. The Corporation may also have offices and branch offices at such other places within and without the State of New Jersey as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE 2

Shareholders Meetings

Section 2.1 Place. Except as hereinafter provided, any annual or special meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such place within or without the State of New Jersey as may be selected by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors fails to designate a place for the meeting to be held, then the same shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation. Special meetings called for the purpose of removing directors shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of New Jersey or in the city or county in the State of New Jersey in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located.

Section 2.2 Date of Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the 30th day in the month of December in each year at such time as may be specified in the notice of meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a holiday, such annual meeting shall be held on the next business day.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.4 Notice of Shareholders' Meetings, Annual or Special. Written or printed notice of each meeting of shareholders shall be delivered or given either personally or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Any notice of a shareholders' meeting given by mail shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid and addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation.

Section 2.5 Persons Authorized to Give Notice. Notice of an annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be given or delivered by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors.

Section 2.6 Written Waiver of Notice. Any notice required by these Bylaws may be waived by any person entitled thereto signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 2.7 Waiver of Attendance. Attendance of a shareholder at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 2.8 Quorum. A majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at any meeting, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act unless a larger vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law. If the holders of the number of shares necessary to constitute a quorum shall fail to attend in person or by proxy, a majority in interest of the shareholders present in person or by proxy shall have the right successively to adjourn the meeting to a specified date not longer than ninety (90) days after such adjournment. No notice need be given of such adjournment to shareholders not present at the meeting.

Section 2.9 Persons Authorized to Convene Meetings. Every meeting shall be convened by the President, the Secretary or some other officer or other person designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.10 Shareholder Action Without Meeting. Any action required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws to be taken at a meeting of shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the shareholders.

Voting Procedure

Section 3.1 List of Voters. The officer having charge of the transfer book for shares of the Corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting at least ten (10) days before such meeting. Said list shall be arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the number of shares held by each shareholder. Said list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to the meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Said list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at any meeting.

Section 3.2 Inspectors. At any meeting called for the election of directors, if the presiding officer of the Corporation or a majority in number of shares present at such meeting desire, the President or other person presiding at the meeting shall appoint not less than two (2) persons, who are not directors, as inspectors to receive and canvass the votes given at such meeting and certify the result to him. Any inspector, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the following oath before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear, that I will execute the duties of an inspector of the election now to be held with strict impartiality, and according to the best of my ability."

Section 3.3 Record Date/Close of Transfer Books. The Board of Directors shall have the power to close the stock transfer books of the Corporation for a period not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or, in lieu thereof, to fix in advance a date not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting. If the Board of Directors shall not have closed the transfer books or fixed a record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, a meeting of shareholders, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the close of business of the 20th day preceding the date of the meeting shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting; except that if, prior to the meeting, written waivers of notice of the meeting are signed and delivered to the Corporation by all of the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened shall be entitled to vote at the meeting, and any adjournment of the meeting.

Votes

Section 4.1 Eligible Votes. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share entitled to vote under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall be entitled to one vote (or a fractional vote for each fractional share) on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. No cumulative voting shall be permitted with respect to the election of directors or any other matter.

Section 4.2 Proxies. A shareholder may vote, with respect to any matter, including but not limited to the election of directors, which may come before a meeting of shareholders, either in person, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by applicable law, by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only so long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power of attorney. The interest with which it is coupled need not be an interest in the shares themselves. In any case in which application law requires, as a condition to the validity of a proxy, that it provide that it is revocable, a proxy which does not provide that it is revocable shall be wholly invalid, and not valid but revocable.

Section 4.3 Corporate Shareholders. Shares of stock of the Corporation standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provisions, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Section 4.4 Deceased Shareholders. Shares of stock standing in the name of a deceased person may be voted by his personal representative, either in person or by proxy.

Section 4.5 Conservators and Trustees. Shares standing in the name of a conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) may be voted by such fiduciary, either in person or by proxy, but no conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) shall be entitled, as such fiduciary, to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Section 4.6 Receivers and Trustees in Bankruptcy. Shares standing in the name of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do is conferred by applicable law or is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy was appointed.

Section 4.7 Pledges. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Board of Directors

Section 5.1 Management and Number. The property, business and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled and managed by a Board of Directors consisting of three members, none of whom need be shareholders or residents of any particular state. Unless fixed by the Articles of Incorporation, the number of directors may at any time be increased or decreased by amendment of these Bylaws. Any changes in the number of directors effected by an amendment to these Bylaws shall be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) calendar days following such change.

Section 5.2 Election and Vacancies. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal. Vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors to constitute the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, until the next election of directors by the shareholders at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 5.3 Quorum. A majority of the full Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, such meeting may be adjourned any number of times, without further notice, by a majority of the directors present.

Section 5.4 Place/Manner of Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that in the event of adjournment of said annual meeting of the Board of Directors the meeting may be reconvened at any place within or without the State of New Jersey, as may be designated by the directors adjourning said meeting. All regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation or at such other place within or without the State of New Jersey as may be designated by the Board of Directors or the officer calling the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the Board of Directors may participate in any regular or special meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in any such meeting by such means shall constitute presence and attendance at such meeting for all purposes.

Section 5.5 Time of Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that if a quorum cannot then be assembled, said meeting shall be adjourned until such time as a quorum may be assembled, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the annual meeting of shareholders. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently and at such times as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon call of the Chairman of the Board (if one be elected), the President, or a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.6 Notice. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission addressed to him at his usual business address at least five (5) days prior to the meeting in case of notice by mail at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting in case of notice by telegram or facsimile transmission, or by communicating notice to a director directly (and not through a secretary, family member or other person), either orally or in writing at a face-to-face meeting or by telephone, at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting. A notice given by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission shall be deemed given to any director when directed to such director at his address or (in the case of notice by facsimile transmission) facsimile transmission number as it appears in the records of the Corporation and when deposited in the United States Mail, postage prepaid, when delivered to an appropriate telegraph office, charges prepaid, or when the sender's facsimile transmission equipment indicates that transmission has been completed, as the case may be. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 5.7 Waiver. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Notice may also be waived by a director by signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting. Any waiver of notice by either of the means specified in this Section 5.7 shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 5.8 Action by Directors Without Meeting. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.9 Compensation. The compensation of the directors may be set from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, and a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude a director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 5.10 Removal. At a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the following manner. Such meeting shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of New Jersey or in the city or county in the State of New Jersey in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located. One or more directors or the entire Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors; provided, however, that if less than the entire Board is to be removed and if the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him in then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors.

Committees

Section 6.1 Executive Committee. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, may designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution and in any subsequent resolution delegating additional authority or revoking any previous delegation of authority, shall have and exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation. The designation of such an Executive Committee and the delegation thereto of authority by the Board of Directors shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law.

Section 6.2 Other Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors to constitute such other committees not having or exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation, but to deal with, address and study specific subjects or issues and to make reports and recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect thereto, all as specified by the Board.

Section 6.3 Committee Procedure. The majority of all the members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may fix its rules of procedure, determine its action and fix the time and place (whether within or without the State of New Jersey) of its meetings and specify what notice thereof, if any, shall be given, unless the Board of Directors shall provide otherwise by resolution. Members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Actions taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, shall have the power to fill vacancies, to appoint one or more directors to serve as alternate members of the Executive Committee or other committees, and, at any time, to abolish the Executive Committee or any other committee or remove any directors therefrom, either with or without cause.

Section 6.4 Action by Unanimous Consent. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors who are members of said committee. Each such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the committee. Such a consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the members of the committee taken at a meeting thereof.

Officers

Section 7.1 Required and Permitted Officers. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Secretary and such other officers, including a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, and other assistant officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time elect. If more than one Vice President be elected, the Board may determine the seniority of each of said Vice Presidents. Any two or more offices may be held by the same individual.

Section 7.2 Election and Term. The President and Secretary shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the shareholders and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may elect other officers at any meeting of the Board. Any such other officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.3 Removal. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served by such removal, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights of the person so removed under any contract between such person and the corporation, except to the extent provided in any such contract.

Section 7.4 Vacancies. In case any office shall become vacant by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the directors then in office, although less than a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may, by a majority vote of those voting, choose a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

Section 7.5 Compensation of Officers. The Board of Directors, or such officer as it may designate, may fix the compensation for the officers of the Corporation and may fix the compensation for such other officers and agents as may from time to time be appointed.

Section 7.6 Bond. The Board of Directors, by resolution, may require any and all of the officers to give bond to the Corporation, with sufficient surety or sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and to comply with such other conditions as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 8

Duties of Officers

Section 8.1 Chairman of the Board. If a Chairman of the Board be elected, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he may be present. The Board of Directors may delegate such other authority and assign such additional duties to the Chairman of the Board, other than those conferred by law exclusively upon the President, as it may from time to time determine. The Board also may designate the Chairman of the Board as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, with all of the powers otherwise conferred upon the President of the Corporation.

The Board also may provide that the Chairman of the Board shall have the powers of the chief executive officer coextensively with the President, or it may, from time to time, divide the powers, responsibilities, duties and authority of the chief executive officer between the Chairman of the Board and the President.

Section 8.2 The President. Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation with such general executive powers and duties of supervision and management as are usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation.

He shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect, subject to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers to any other officer or officers of the Corporation.

He shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, at meetings of the Board of Directors.

He, along with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the Corporation thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, may sign certificates for shares of the Corporation, deeds, conveyances, bonds, mortgages, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, and unless the Board of Directors shall order otherwise by resolution, he may make such contracts and execute such certificates, documents and other instruments as may be incident thereto, as the ordinary conduct of the Corporation's business may require.

Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President or any person designated in writing by him may (i) attend meetings of shareholders of other corporations to represent the Corporation there at and to vote or take action with respect to other shares of any such corporation owned by this Corporation in such manner as he or his designee may determine; and (ii) execute and deliver written consents, waivers of notice and proxies for and in the name of the Corporation with respect to any such shares owned by this Corporation.

He shall, unless the Board provides otherwise, be, ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee and all other committees of the Board of Directors.

If a Chairman of the Board be elected or appointed and designated as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, the President shall perform such duties as may be specifically delegated to him by the Board of Directors as are conferred by law exclusively upon him. In the absence, disability or inability to act of the Chairman of the Board, the President shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chairman of the Board.

Section 8.3 Vice Presidents. Any Vice President elected by the Board of Directors shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to him and shall exercise such powers as may be granted to him by the Board of Directors or by the President of the Corporation. In the absence of the President, the Vice Presidents, in order of their seniority, may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President with the same force and effect as if performed by the President.

Section 8.4 The Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee (if any) and any other committee or committees of the Board in one of the books provided for that purpose.

He shall be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation. He shall see that the seal of the Corporation is affixed to all certificates for shares prior to the issue thereof and to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws and applicable law.

He shall sign with the President or a Vice President, certificates for shares of the Corporation, the issue of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors. He shall have general charge of the stock transfer book of the Corporation.

He shall keep a register of the post office address of each shareholder which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such shareholder.

He shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law and that the voting list is prepared for shareholders' meetings.

In general, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.5 The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have responsibility for the funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such monies in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors or by any officer of the Corporation to whom such authority has been granted by the Board of Directors.

He shall disburse or permit to be disbursed the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered or authorized generally by the Board.

He shall render to the chief executive officer of the Corporation and the directors whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of those under his jurisdiction and of the financial condition of the Corporation.

In general, he shall perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the chief executive officer or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8.6 Assistant Officers. Each assistant officer that may be selected pursuant to these Bylaws shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. In the absence or nonavailability of the principal, the assistant may perform the duties and exercise the powers of the principal with the same force and effect as if performed by the principal. The assistant shall also have such lesser or greater authority and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

Contracts, Checks, Loans and Deposits

Section 9.1 All contracts and agreements authorized by the Board of Directors and all checks, drafts, bills of exchange or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or agent or agents, as may from time to time be permitted by these Bylaws, or as may be designated in writing by the Board of Directors, the President or such officer or officers as the Board of Directors may appoint. The designation or designations may be general or confined to specific instances. The Board of Directors may authorize the use of facsimile signatures on any such document.

Issuance and Transfer of Stock

Section 10.1 Board Authorization. The issuance of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be authorized by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the New Jersey Business Corporation Act.

Section 10.2 Certificates. Certificates of stock of the Corporation shall be numbered and registered as they are issued. They shall exhibit the holder's name and the number of shares and shall be signed by the President or a Vice President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer and shall bear the corporate seal, which may be facsimile, engraved or printed. If any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registrar other than the Corporation or an employee of the Corporation, any other signature thereon may be facsimile, engraved or printed. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, such certificate may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such person was such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 10.3 Transfers. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney-in-fact, lawfully constituted in writing, upon surrender of such certificate duly and properly endorsed.

Section 10.4 Lost Certificates. In case of the loss or destruction of any certificate of stock, a new certificate may be issued upon the following conditions: The owner shall file with the Secretary an affidavit giving the facts in relation to the ownership and the loss or destruction of said certificate, stating its number and the number of shares represented thereby. The Secretary shall present such affidavit to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that such certificate has been destroyed or lost, and that a new certificate ought to be issued in lieu thereof, the Board may direct the officers of the Corporation to issue a new certificate, or the Board may condition the issuance of a new certificate upon the filing of a bond, in an amount and with a surety acceptable to the Board of Directors, to indemnify the Corporation and save it harmless from any loss, expense, damage or liability occasioned by the issuance of such new certificate. Upon receipt of the Board's direction, or the filing of any required bond, the proper officers of the Corporation shall issue a new certificate for the same number of shares to the owner of the certificate so lost or destroyed.

Section 10.5 Transfer Books. Proper books shall be kept under the direction of the Secretary showing the ownership and transfer of all certificates of stock. These books shall constitute the test of the qualifications of voters at any shareholders' meeting.

Fiscal Year

Section 11.1 The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as established by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 12

Dividends

Section 12.1 The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or its own shares subject to the limitations and conditions imposed by applicable law and subject also to any restrictions contained in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 13

Seal

Section 13.1 The seal of the Corporation shall be in circular form and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation and the words "Corporate Seal" and "New Jersey." The Board of Directors may, by resolution, change the form of the corporate seal from time to time.

ARTICLE 14

Inspection of Books and Records

Section 14.1 Upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation, a shareholder, acting in good faith and for a proper purpose, may inspect such books and records of the Corporation as shall be specifically identified in the notice, provided that the Corporation shall be required by law to produce the same. The requirement of thirty (30) days' written notice may be reduced to a lesser number of days by the Board of Directors where the shareholder demonstrates a proper need for more immediate inspection of such books and records. The notice requesting inspection shall specify the purpose for which the examination is desired, the probable duration of the examination, and the names of those individuals who desire to be present during the examination. The inspection shall be performed during the Corporation's usual and customary hours of business and in such manner as will not unduly interfere with the regular conduct of the business of the Corporation. The inspection may be supervised by an officer or agent of the Corporation and the inspection shall be conducted at either the Corporation's registered office, the Corporation's principal place of business, or at the office of the Corporation's counsel, as shall be determined by the President. Upon a proper showing of need, a shareholder may utilize the assistance of attorneys, accountants or other experts in connection with the inspection, provided that, if required by the Board of Directors, the shareholder and the experts shall agree to furnish to the Corporation, as promptly as completed or made, a true and correct copy of any and every report or other written memorandum with respect to such inspection made by such experts. No shareholder shall use or permit to be used or acquiesce in the use by others of any information so obtained to the detriment of the Corporation, nor shall furnish or permit to be furnished any information so obtained to any competitor or prospective competitor of the Corporation. The Corporation, as a condition precedent to any shareholder's inspection of the records of the Corporation, may require the shareholder to indemnify the Corporation against any loss or damage which may be suffered by it arising out of or resulting from any unauthorized disclosure made or permitted to be made by such shareholder, his employee or agent of information obtained in the course of inspection.

ALLIED WASTE OF NEW JERSEY, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of April 28, 1998, by Allied Waste North America, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste of New Jersey, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Delaware law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Delaware shall be Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, County of New Castle. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Delaware upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Delaware are The Corporation Trust Company, Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Delaware, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Delaware. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 8 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 18-803 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Delaware Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefor, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefor and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Delaware Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Delaware Law. The laws of the State of Delaware shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 18-101, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE RECYCLING SERVICES OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of August 18, 2006, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Recycling Services of New Hampshire, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Delaware law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Delaware shall be The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware, County of New Castle. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Delaware upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Delaware are The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Delaware, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Delaware. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;

- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act.

7.2 Winding UP.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 18-803 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Delaware Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Delaware Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Delaware Law. The laws of the State of Delaware shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Delaware Limited Liability Company Law, as set forth in Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 18-101, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

No amendment or repeal of this provision shall deprive a director of the benefits hereof with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

11. Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the Corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the Corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the Corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof, or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of Section 291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provision of Section 279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the Corporation, as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the Corporation, as the case may be, and also on the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator has caused this Certificate of Incorporation to be duly executed this 21st day of January, 1998.

/s/ Thomas K. Kehoe
Thomas K. Kehoe, Incorporator

OF
ALLIED WASTE RURAL SANITATION, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle, State of Delaware.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, either within or outside of the State of Delaware, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, of ten percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after three years from its date, unless such proxy provides for a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors shall appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or without the State of Delaware. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any three (3) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram on twenty-four (24) hours' notice, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attached at Board stockholder meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as determined by the stockholders from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Vice President of the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there is any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by him in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its organization and the words "Corporate Seal, Delaware". The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Delaware for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stock holders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

ALLIED WASTE SERVICES OF COLORADO, INC.

- 1. The name of the corporation is Allied Waste Services of Colorado, Inc. (the "Corporation").
- 2. The address of the registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware is Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, New Castle County, Delaware 19801. The name of its registered agent at such address is The Corporation Trust Company.
- 3. The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL").
- 4. The Corporation shall have authority to issue one thousand (1,000) common shares, no par value.
- 5. The name and mailing address of the incorporator are as follows:

NAME
Jo Lynn White

MAILING ADDRESS
18500 North Allied Way
Phoenix, Arizona 85054

The powers of the incorporator shall terminate upon the filing of this Certificate of Incorporation.

- 6. The initial Directors of the Corporation and their respective addresses are as follows:

NAME
Donald W. Slager

MAILING ADDRESS
18500 North Allied Way
Phoenix, AZ 85054

Michael S. Burnett

18500 North Allied Way

- 7. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors shall have the power to make, alter, amend, change, add to or repeal the bylaws of the Corporation.

8. Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the bylaws of the Corporation shall so provide.

9. The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute.

10. A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent that the elimination or limitation of liability is prohibited under the DGCL as in effect when such liability is determined. No amendment or repeal of this provision shall deprive a director of the benefits hereof with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

11. Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the Corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the Corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the Corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof, or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of Section 291 of Title 8 of the DGCL or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of Section 279 of Title 8 of the DGCL, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the Corporation, as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the Corporation, as the case may be, and also on the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator has caused this Certificate of Incorporation to be duly executed this 25th day of September, 2007.

/s/ Jo Lynn White

Jo Lynn White, Incorporator

OF
ALLIED WASTE SERVICES OF COLORADO, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, of ten percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days

(unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as maybe allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as may be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V

STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same maybe amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

OPERATING AGREEMENT
BFI WASTE SERVICES OF MASSACHUSETTS, LLC

This Operating Agreement (the "Agreement") of BFI Waste Services of Massachusetts, LLC (the "Company") is executed as of March 16, 2001, by Browning-Ferris Industries, Inc. a Massachusetts corporation, the sole member of the Company (the "Member"), and shall bind the Member, the Company, and any other person who may acquire any interest in the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings set forth in Section 7.6.

1.2 Formation. The Company has been formed as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Organization.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is BFI Waste Services of Massachusetts, LLC. All business of the Company shall be conducted in the Company name. The Company shall hold its property in the name of the Company.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of non-hazardous solid waste management, and to engage in any other activity permitted under Massachusetts law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Office. The registered office of the Company within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts shall be 150 Cordaville Road, Southborough, Massachusetts 01772. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.6 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Massachusetts are CT Corporation System, 101 Federal Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02110. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.7 Certificate of Organization. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Organization deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of the Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the sole Member is set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.3 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as the Member may determine. The Member shall not be required to make a Member Loan unless the Member has agreed to make such Member Loan.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

During the term of the Company, cash and property shall be distributed periodically to the Member in its sole discretion. No distribution shall be declared and paid unless, after the distribution is made, the assets of the Company are in excess of all liabilities of the Company.

SECTION 4. MANAGEMENT

4.1 General Management Structure. Unless specifically provided otherwise in this Agreement, all decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs, and all matters requiring the consent or approval of the Member under this Agreement, shall be made within the sole discretion of the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company.

4.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in this Agreement or in resolutions duly adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, an executive vice president, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may reasonably determine from time to time. Unless otherwise specified by the Member, the following officers shall have the authority to engage in the activities set forth with respect to their respective offices:

4.2.1 President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Member, have general supervision of the business of the Company and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Member are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Company, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Company may sign and execute documents when so authorized by this Agreement, the Member, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by this Agreement or by the Member.

4.2.2 Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, the Executive Vice President, if there is one acting, or in the absence of an Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the President from time to time may prescribe.

4.2.3 Secretary. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

4.2.4 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Company and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Company in such depositories as may be designated by the Member. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Company as may be ordered by the Member, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President, from time to time, when the Member so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Company. If required by the Member, the Treasurer shall give the Company a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Member for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Company, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Company.

4.2.5 Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in this Agreement, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Member, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

4.2.6 Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Member, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Member, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Company a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Member for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Company, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Company.

4.2.7 Other Officers. Such other officers as the Member may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Member. The Member may delegate to any officer of the Company the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

4.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member and its officers and any officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

4.4 Meetings. No annual or special meetings of the Member shall be required. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting may be taken without a meeting if written consent setting forth the action to be taken is signed by the Member.

SECTION 5. BOOKS AND RECORDS

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents. The books of account of the Company shall be prepared and maintained on the same basis and in a manner consistent with the records of the Member.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the same as the fiscal year of the Member.

5.3 Bank Accounts. The funds of the Company shall be maintained in a separate account or accounts in the name of the Company.

SECTION 6. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

6.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The election by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) Upon the Member becoming bankrupt or the occurrence of any event that terminates the membership of the Member in the Company as described in Chapter 156C, Section 43(4) of the Act.

(d) The entry of an order of judicial dissolution under Chapter 156C, Section 44 of the Act.

6.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed in accordance with Section 6.3 or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. The Member (or its authorized successor in interest) shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up and liquidation of the Company and shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets upon dissolution. Any assets not required to discharge any liabilities of the Company shall be distributed to the Member. Upon the completion of the winding up, liquidation and distribution of the assets, the Company shall be deemed terminated. The Company shall comply with any applicable requirements of the Act pertaining to the winding up of the affairs of the Company and the final distribution of its assets.

6.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefor and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, the Company shall execute and file a certificate of cancellation with the Office of the Secretary of the State of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

7.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

7.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

7.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

7.4 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

7.5 Governing Law. The laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

7.6 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Massachusetts Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in Chapter 156C, Sections 1 et. seq. of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Certificate of Organization” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.7 hereof.

“Capital Contribution” means the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by the Member.

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement.

“Member Loans” has the meaning given that term in Section 2.3 hereof.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

7.7 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. No term or provision of this Agreement is intended to or shall be for the benefit of any Person not a party hereto, and no such other Person shall have any right or cause of action hereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

Steven M. Helm
Vice President

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE SERVICES OF NORTH AMERICA, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of November 3, 2004, by BFI Waste Systems of North America, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Services of North America, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Delaware law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Delaware shall be The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware, County of New Castle. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Delaware upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Delaware are The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Delaware, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Delaware. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 18-803 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Delaware Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Delaware Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Delaware Law. The laws of the State of Delaware shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Delaware Limited Liability Company Law, as set forth in Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 18-101, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OF
PARKS & SONS INTERMOUNTAIN, INC.

ARTICLE I.

NAME, PLACE OF BUSINESS, PURPOSE

Section 1. Name. The name of this corporation shall be PARKS & SONS INTERMOUNTAIN, INC.

Section 2. Place of Business. The principal place of business of said corporation shall be Twin Falls, Idaho, or such other place within or without the State of Idaho as designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Purpose. This corporation shall engage in the business and endeavors set out and described in its Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE II.

Section 1. Shareholders. All meetings of shareholders except as herein otherwise provided shall be held at the principal office and place of business of the corporation, within or without the State of Idaho, as designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. The regular annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the second Monday in October of each year. Should said date in any year fall on a holiday, the regular annual meeting of the shareholders in such year shall be held on the next business day thereafter.

Section 3. Notice of the annual meeting of shareholders shall be given in writing to shareholders entitled to vote, by the Secretary, by sending a copy of the notice through the mail, charges prepaid, to the address of each such shareholder as the same appears on the records of the corporation, or as supplied by a shareholder for the purpose of notice, not less than ten (10) days before such meeting.

Section 4. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time for any purpose or purposes whatsoever, by the President, or by the Board of Directors, or any three or more members thereof.

Section 5. Notice of special meetings of the shareholders stating the time, and in general terms, the purpose or purposes thereof shall be mailed by the Secretary to each shareholder entitled to vote, at his address, as the same appears on the records of the corporation, or as supplied by the shareholder for the purpose of notice, at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the special meeting.

Section 6. Should the address of any shareholder not appear on the records of the corporation, then notices of any meetings of the shareholders shall be mailed, addressed to such shareholder at the post office address of the registered office of the corporation.

Section 7. Any entry of the service of notice of a meeting of the shareholders, given in the manner above provided shall be made in the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders, and such entry, if read and approved at a subsequent meeting of the shareholders, shall be conclusive on the question of such service.

Section 8. When all the shareholders are present in person, or by proxy, in writing at any meeting, however called or notified, and sign a written consent thereto, or when the shareholders present, and consent thereto, and such written consent is made a part of the records of such meeting, the proceedings had at such meeting are valid, irrespective of the manner in which the meeting is called, or the place where it is held.

Section 9. At any meeting of the shareholders, the holders of a majority of the shares of stock of the corporation entitled to vote must be represented in person or by proxy in writing and the holders of such majority of the shares of stock entitled to vote when so represented, shall constitute a quorum for any and all purposes, including the election of directors; provided that the shareholders present at a duly called meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to do business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum.

Section 10. Any regular or called meeting of the shareholders may adjourn from day to day, or from time to time, without further notice, until its business is completed; and any regular or called meeting of the shareholders may adjourn from day to day, or from time to time, without further notice, if for any reason there be not present the holders of a majority of the shares of stock of the corporation entitled to vote, in person or by proxy, until a quorum shall attend, such adjournment and the reasons therefor being recorded in the journal of the proceedings of the shareholders; and when a quorum shall attend any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at any meeting had the same been held on the day on which the same was originally appointed or called.

Section 11. The President, or in his absence, a chairman, elected by the shareholders present, shall call the meeting of the shareholders to order, and shall act as presiding officer thereof.

Section 12. The Secretary of the corporation shall act as Secretary at all meetings of the shareholders, and in his absence, the presiding officer may appoint any person to act as Secretary.

Section 13. At the regular annual meeting of the shareholders held in each year, the shareholders entitled to vote shall elect by ballot, a Board of Directors as constituted by these By-Laws.

Section 14. At each meeting of the shareholders, each shareholder shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy, one vote for each share of stock standing in his own name on the books of the corporation, at least ten (10) days prior thereto.

Section 15. All proxies must be in writing, executed by the shareholders themselves, or by their duly authorized attorneys and must be filed with the Secretary of the corporation at or before the meeting of the shareholders.

Section 16. Any shareholder may waive any notice required to be given under this Article.

ARTICLE III.

DIRECTORS

Section 1. Directors. The corporate powers, business and affairs of the corporation shall be exercised, conducted and controlled by a Board of Directors of from one to four Directors.

Section 2. Each Director shall hold office for one year, or for such shorter period as he may have been appointed, and until his successor shall have been elected, provided that the Directors first elected shall hold office until the first annual meeting of the shareholders.

Section 3. Any vacancy occurring in the office of director by reason of death, resignation, or otherwise, except a vacancy caused by the removal of any director or directors of this corporation from office by a majority vote of all stock of the corporation issued and outstanding at any meeting of the shareholders, shall be filled by an appointee of the remaining directors. Such director so appointed shall hold office until his successor is elected at the next annual meeting of the shareholders.

Section 4. All meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the office of the corporation in Idaho, or at such other places within or without the State of Idaho, as designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. The directors shall hold a regular meeting for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may be necessary within five (5) days after the annual meeting of the shareholders. They may hold such other meetings at such times and places as they shall designate.

Section 6. Notice of special meetings of the Board of Directors may be given in writing, delivered personally to the Directors, or by mailing to them, not less than ten (10) days before the time of such meetings. If all the Directors shall be present at any Directors' meeting, however called or notified, and sign a written consent thereto, or if the majority of the Directors are present and they and the Directors not present sign a written consent thereto, which is entered on the minutes of such meeting, any business may be transacted at such meeting and the transactions of such meeting shall be as valid as if had at a meeting regularly called and notified.

Section 7. A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum at all meetings.

Section 8. The Board of Directors shall have full power and authority to borrow money on behalf of the corporation, including the power and authority to borrow money from any of the shareholders, directors, or officers of the corporation and otherwise to incur indebtedness on behalf of the corporation and to authorize the execution of promissory notes or other evidences of indebtedness of the corporation, and to agree to pay interest thereon, to sell, convey, alienate, transfer, assign, exchange, lease and otherwise acquire property, real and personal, on behalf of the corporation; and generally to do and perform, or cause to be done and performed, any and every act which the corporation may lawfully do and perform.

Section 9. The Board of Directors may appoint a general manager, who may be a shareholder and director, and delegate to him any of the following powers: To have general and exclusive charge and management of the business of the company; to sign and execute all authorized bonds, contracts, bids, checks, or other obligations in the name of the corporation; to keep the Board of Directors fully informed; to freely consult them concerning the business of the corporation in his charge; to be at all time subject to the control of the Board of Directors of the corporation; and to do and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Duties of the President. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the shareholders and also at all meetings of the Board of Directors. He shall be the chief administrative officer of this corporation, and he shall have such powers and be subject to such duties as are provided in these By-Laws and such as may be conferred upon him by vote or resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Duties of the Vice President. In the absence or disability of the President, the Vice President shall have all his powers and he is subject to all the duties of the President so long as such absence or disability continues.

Section 7. Duties of the Secretary. He shall attend all meetings of the shareholders and Board of Directors and shall keep minutes thereof in a book or books to be kept for that purpose.

He shall keep the corporate seal of the corporation and the book of blank certificates of stock, fill up and countersign all certificates issued, and make the corresponding entries in the margin of such book on such issuance and transfer.

He shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors when such notice is required by law or by these By-Laws to be given, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. He shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duty.

Section 8. Duties of the Treasurer. He shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the corporation and shall deposit all money and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the corporation, in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Directors, he shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the Board, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements and shall render to the President and Directors, at the regular meetings of the Board, or whenever they may require it,

Section 10. The Board of Directors may appoint a certified public accountant and attorney at law to render such services as may be required of them by the Board of Directors.

Section 11. Any director may waive any notice required to be given under this article.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The executive officers of the corporation shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

Section 2. The President shall be elected by the Board of Directors from their own number at the first meeting after the organization of the corporation, and thereafter, at the first meeting after the annual election of Directors, and he shall hold office until the first meeting after the next annual election of Directors, and until their successors are elected.

Section 3. The Board of Directors shall also annually elect a Vice President from their own number at the first meeting after the organization of the corporation, and thereafter at the first meeting after the annual election of Directors, and shall hold office until the first meeting after the next annual election of Directors, and until their successors are elected.

Section 4. The Board of Directors shall also annually elect a Secretary and a Treasurer, who may, but need not be a member of the Board of Directors, and they may combine said two officers and designate the combined office as Secretary-Treasurer, and who shall hold office until the first meeting after the next annual election of the Directors, and until their successors are elected, subject to removal by the Board of Directors at any time with or without cause.

an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the corporation.

He shall give the corporation a bond if required by the Board of Directors in a sum, and with one or more sureties, satisfactory to the Board, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and for the restoration to the corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the corporation.

Section 9. General Manager. In the event the Board of Directors shall also elect a general manager, such general manager shall have all powers and shall perform all duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

He shall give the corporation a bond if required by the Board of Directors in a sum, and with one or more sureties, satisfactory to the Board, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and for the restoration to the corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement, or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the corporation.

Section 10. Vacancies. If the office of the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, or General Manager becomes vacant by reason of death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, the Board of Directors shall elect a successor, who shall hold office for the unexpired term, and until his successor is elected.

ARTICLE V.

STOCK AND CERTIFICATES FOR STOCK

Section 1. Certificates for stock of the corporation shall be issued when fully paid up, non-assessable, at such times and in such amounts as shall be determined by the Board of Directors and as hereinafter provided.

Section 2. The certificates shall be in such form and devise as shall be provided by the Board of Directors. The certificates shall be signed by the President and by the Secretary, and the seal of the corporation shall be affixed thereto.

Section 3. No new certificate shall be issued until the former certificate for the shares of stock represented thereby shall have been surrendered and cancelled, except in the case of lost or destroyed certificates, and in that case, only after the receipt of a bond by the corporation, satisfactory to the Board of Directors, indemnifying the corporation and all persons against loss in consequence of the issuance of such new certificate.

Section 4. Shares of stock of the corporation may be transferred by endorsement by the signature of the owner, his agent, attorney or legal representative, and the delivery of the certificate; but such transfer is not valid, except as to the parties thereto, until the same is so entered upon the books of the corporation as to show the names of the parties by whom and to whom transferred, the number of the certificate, and the number or the designation of the shares of stock and the date of the transfer, and until the old certificates are surrendered and cancelled. The Transferee in any transfer of shares of stock shall be deemed to have full notice of, and to consent to, the By-Laws of the corporation to the same extent as if he had signed a written assent thereto.

Section 5. The Board of Directors may make such rules and regulations as it may deem expedient concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificates.

Section 6. The Board of Directors of this corporation, may, subject to the laws of the State of Idaho, dispose of the shares of stock of this corporation, in such amounts and at such times as shall be determined by the Board of Directors, and at the discretion of the said Board of Directors, accept in full or part payment therefor such property, services or other considerations and at such valuations as the Board of Directors may determine.

ARTICLE VI.

DIVIDENDS

Section 1. Dividends upon the capital stock of the corporation, when earned, may be declared by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting.

Before payment of any dividend or making any distribution of profit, there may be set aside out of the surplus or net profits of the corporation such sum or sums as the Directors from time to time, in their absolute discretion, think proper as a reserve fund to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the corporation, for such other purposes as the Directors shall think conducive to the interest of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII.

CORPORATE SEAL

Section 1. The corporate seal of the company shall bear the inscription:

“PARKS & SONS INTERMOUNTAIN, INC.

CORPORATE SEAL, IDAHO”

ARTICLE VIII.

AMENDMENTS OF BY-LAWS

Section 1. Amendments. These By-Laws may be amended or repealed or new By-Laws adopted at any annual shareholders' meeting, or any special meeting of the shareholders by a vote representing a majority of the allotted shares, or by the written consent duly acknowledged in the same manner as conveyances of real estate are required by law to be acknowledged of the holders of a majority of the allotted shares, which consent may be in one or more instruments.

The undersigned, being the Directors of PARKS & SONS INTERMOUNTAIN, INC., an Idaho corporation, do hereby certify that the foregoing By-Laws were duly adopted, as By-Laws of the said corporation on the 30th day of September, 1977.

being persons legally competent to enter into contracts for the purpose of forming a corporation under "The Business Corporation Act" of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation is: H. E. W. Waste Systems, Inc.

ARTICLE II

The address of its registered office in the State of Oklahoma is: 101 E. Mohawk Drive, Stillwater OK 74074.

The name of its registered agent is: Henry E. Wells.

ARTICLE III

The duration of the corporation is perpetual.

[ILLEGIBLE]

ARTICLE IV

The nature of the business, object and purposes to be transacted, promoted or carried on by the corporation are:

1. To own, manage, and operate a sanitary landfill in Payne County, Oklahoma, for the disposal of waste, garbage, and all other items. To engage in all activities, render all services, incidental or related to or connected with any and every phase of the operation of a sanitary landfill business. To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and to erect, construct, build, establish, develop, improve, real property within the operation of a sanitary landfill business, and for all lawful purposes for which a business corporation can be formed within the State of Oklahoma.

2. To acquire, lease, own, control, sell, construct, mortgage, or otherwise deal in all types of interest in real and personal property for the purpose of conducting and operating the business as set out above.
3. To enter into any association of related businesses deemed necessary, convenient, or incidental to carrying out any of the purposes for which this corporation has been organized.
4. To issue bonds, notes, stock, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness for the object and purpose of borrowing funds for the uses and benefits of which this corporation has been organized and to execute mortgages, liens, pledges, deeds of trust, and other encumbrances upon the property of the corporation.
5. To acquire the assets and/or liabilities of any person, firm, association or corporation, either in whole or in part, in exchange for cash, stock, or bonds of this corporation.
6. To purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, sell and reissue the shares of its own capital stock in general.
7. To do generally each and every thing necessary, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated, or which at any time appear conducive to, or expedient for the protection or benefit of this corporation.
8. To carry on any other lawful business whatsoever in connection with the foregoing or which is calculated directly or indirectly to promote the interests of the corporation or to enhance the value of its property or properties, and in connection with the foregoing, said corporation shall have and exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Oklahoma upon business corporations and such other powers as may be properly implied from such statutory grant of powers, it being hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not in any manner be held to limit or restrict, in any manner, such general powers which may be implied therefrom which are granted to business corporations under the statutes of the State of Oklahoma.

ARTICLE V

1. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have the authority to allot is 500 shares of common stock of the par value of $1.00 per share.

2. There shall be no other class of stock of the corporation than the common stock set out hereinabove.

3. The common stock of the corporation, except the amount of the stated paid-in capital stock, as hereinafter stated, may be issued from time to time and upon such terms as may be determined by the Board of Directors, which common stock shall be issued in conformity with the following provisions:

In case any holder of stock of this corporation, his heirs at law, executor, administrators, legatees, or assigns, desire to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or any part of his shares of stock, he shall first notify the Secretary of this corporation in writing, stating the number of shares he desires to sell, the bona fide price at which he is able to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of them, and the name and address of the person to whom they are to be sold or transferred, and for a period of fifteen (15) days following the receipt of such notice by the Secretary of this corporation, this corporation shall have an option to purchase said shares at the price so stated. No stock of this corporation shall be sold nor transferred upon the books of this corporation, nor shall any purchaser or assignee thereof have any right to demand or require transfer of any stock of this corporation attempted to be sold or transferred to him until after notice in accordance with the preceding sentence and until the expiration of said period of fifteen (15) days, during which time this corporation's option thereon shall hold, and be exercisable by this corporation. If the said Board of Directors does not exercise this option to this corporation within said period of fifteen (15) days, then and in that event, the holders of the common stock in this corporation shall have a right to purchase pro rata such stock within five (5) days after the lapse of said fifteen (15) day period, and if any one or more of the holders of common stock of this corporation elect not to purchase their pro rata share of such stock, then and in that event, the remaining common stockholders shall have the right and option to purchase said stock on a pro rata basis. If the Board of Directors does not exercise the option herein provided for the corporation, and if none of the holders of common stock elect to purchase such stock, then and in that event, such stockholder may sell and assign the number of shares mentioned in such notice of sale of stock to the person named therein, but to no other persons, and according to the terms of sale specified in said notice.

The Board of Directors may, by resolution, waive the said fifteen (15) day period, and the holders of common stock, may likewise, waive in writing the period for the exercise of their option, and thereby authorize the sale, assignment, or transfer of the stock of the corporation to the person named in the notice without further delay.

All certificates of common stock issued by the corporation shall have the provisions hereof pertaining to the common stock either printed thereon, or reference to these Articles of Incorporation may be made on the stock certificate, and the provisions hereof incorporated therein by reference and no stock shall be sold, transferred, issued or conveyed to anyone except with notice of these provisions and after acceptance of the pertinent provisions hereof by the persons to whom the stock is issued and such persons shall be bound hereby. All certificates shall contain the following phrase:

“No sale, pledge, transfer or conveyance of the shares of stock represented by this certificate, or any part thereof, shall be effective until compliance with provisions contained in the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws of this corporation pertaining to the sale, transfer, or other disposition of such common stock.”

ARTICLE VI

The amount of stated capital with which the corporation will begin business is $500.00, which has been fully paid in.

ARTICLE VII

The number and class of shares to be allotted by the corporation before it shall begin business shall be 500 shares of common stock of the par value of $1.00 per share for which the corporation shall receive a consideration of $500.00.

ARTICLE VIII

The number of directors to be elected at the first meeting of the shareholders is not less than three.

ARTICLE IX

The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt, alter or repeal the By-Laws of this corporation subject to the power of the shareholders to alter or repeal such By-Laws; provided, however, the Board of Directors shall not adopt or alter any By-Laws fixing their number, qualifications, classifications or term of office.

Dated at Stillwater, Oklahoma, this 10th day of October, 1986.

OF
H.E.W. WASTE SYSTEMS, INC.

(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, of ten percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as may be allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as maybe determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company.

4.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them herein or in resolutions duly adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, an executive vice president, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may reasonably determine from time to time. Unless otherwise specified by the Member, the following officers shall have the authority to engage in the activities set forth with respect to their respective offices:

4.2.1 President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Member, have general supervision of the business of the Company and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Member are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Company, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Company may sign and execute documents when so authorized by this Agreement, the Member, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by this Agreement or by the Member.

4.2.2 Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the President from time to time may prescribe.

4.2.3 Secretary. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

4.2.4 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Company and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Company in such depositories as may be designated by the Member. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Company as may be ordered by the Member, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President, from time to time, when the Member so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Company. If required by the Member, the Treasurer shall give the Company a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Member for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Company, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Company.

4.2.5 Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in this Agreement, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Member, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

4.2.6 Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Member, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Member, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Company a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Member for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Company, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Company.

4.2.7 Other Officers. Such other officers as the Member may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Member. The Member may delegate to any officer of the Company the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

4.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member and its officers and any officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

4.4 Meetings. No annual or special meetings of the Member shall be required. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting may be taken without a meeting if written consent setting forth the action to be taken is signed by the Member.

SECTION 5. BOOKS AND RECORDS

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents. The books of account of the Company shall be prepared and maintained on the same basis and in a manner consistent with the records of the Member.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the same as the fiscal year of the Member.

5.3 Bank Accounts. The funds of the Company shall be maintained in a separate account or accounts in the name of the Company.

SECTION 6. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

6.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) December 31, 2050;

(b) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;

(c) The election by the Member to dissolve the Company; or

(d) The entry of a decree of dissolution under § 18-802 of the Act.

6.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until articles of dissolution have been filed with the Utah Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. The Member (or its authorized successor in interest) shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up and liquidation of the Company and shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets upon dissolution. Any assets not required to discharge any liabilities of the Company shall be distributed to the Member. Upon the completion of the winding up, liquidation and distribution of the assets, the Company shall be deemed terminated. The Company shall comply with any applicable requirements of the Act pertaining to the winding up of the affairs of the Company and the final distribution of its assets.

6.3 Articles of Dissolution. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefor and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, articles of dissolution shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Utah Secretary of State.

SECTION 7. MISCELLANEOUS

7.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

7.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

7.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

7.4 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

7.5 Governing Law. The laws of the State of Utah shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

7.6 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 18-101, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Articles of Organization” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.7 hereof.

“Capital Contribution” means the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by the Member.

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person.

“Member Loans” has the meaning given that term in Section 2.3 hereof.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

7.7 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. No term or provision of this Operating Agreement is intended to or shall be for the benefit of any Person not a party hereto, and no such other Person shall have any right or cause of action hereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

BY-LAWS OF PEABODY SANITARY LANDFILL, INC.
(a Delaware corporation)

ARTICLE I

Meetings of Stockholders

Section 1

Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders of Peabody Sanitary Landfill, Inc. (the "Corporation") for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting shall be on the 15th day of March of each year, if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday, then on the next succeeding day not a legal holiday, at such time as shall be designated by the Board of Directors or the President. If the annual meeting shall not be held on the day hereinabove provided for, the Board shall call a special meeting for the election of directors, which meeting shall be held within two months after said day.

Section 2

Special Meetings. Special meetings of the stockholders, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, may be called at any time by the Board or the President and shall be called by the President or Secretary at the request in writing of stockholders of record owning at least fifty percentum of the shares of stock of the corporation outstanding and entitled to vote.

Notice of Meetings. Notice of the place, date and time of the holding of each annual and special meeting of the stockholders and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes thereof, shall be given personally or by mail in a postage prepaid envelope to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of such meeting, and, if mailed, it shall be directed to such stockholder at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, unless he shall have filed with the Secretary of the Corporation a written request that notices to him be mailed to some other address, in which case it shall be directed to him at such other address. Notice of any meeting of stockholders shall not be required to be given to any stockholder who shall attend such meeting in person or by proxy and shall not, at the beginning of such meeting, object to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, or who shall, either before or after the meeting, submit a signed waiver of notice, in person or by proxy. Unless the Board shall fix, after the adjournment, a new record date for an adjourned meeting, notice of such adjourned meeting need not be given if the time and place to which the meeting shall be adjourned were announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting, the Corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than thirty days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 4

Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders may be held at such place, within or without the State of Delaware, as the Board or the officer calling the same shall specify in the notice of such meeting, or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 5

Quorum. At all meetings of the stockholders the holders of a majority of the votes of the shares of stock of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote shall be present in person or by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, except when stockholders are required to vote by class, in which event a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the appropriate class shall be present in person or by proxy, or except as otherwise provided by statute or in the Certificate of Incorporation. In the absence of a quorum, the holders of a majority of the shares of stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, or if no stockholder entitled to vote is present, then any officer of the Corporation may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum may be present any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.

Section 6

Organization. At each meeting of the stockholders, the President, or in his absence or inability to act, any person chosen by a majority of those stockholders present, in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, shall act as chairman of the meeting. The Secretary, or in his absence or inability to act, any person appointed by the chairman of the meeting, shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof.

Section 7

Order of Business. The order of business at all meetings of the stockholders shall be as determined by the chairman of the meeting.

Section 8

Voting. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the Certificate of Incorporation, or any certificate duly filed in the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 151 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, each holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation having voting power shall be entitled at each meeting of the stockholders to one vote for every share of such stock standing in his name on the record of stockholders of the Corporation on the date fixed by the Board as the record date for the determination of the stockholders who shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting; or if such record date shall not have been so fixed, then at the close of business on the day next preceding the date on which notice thereof shall be given, or if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held; or each stockholder entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders may authorize another person or persons to act for him by a proxy signed by such stockholder or his attorney-in-fact. Any such proxy shall be delivered to the secretary of such meeting at or prior to the time designated in the order of business for so delivering such proxies. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of three years from the date thereof, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the stockholder executing it, except in those cases where an irrevocable proxy is permitted by law. Except as otherwise provided by statute, these By-Laws, or the Certificate of Incorporation, any corporate action to be taken by vote of the stockholders shall be authorized by a majority of the total votes, or when stockholders are required to vote by class by a majority of the votes of the appropriate class, cast at a meeting of stockholders by the holders of shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on such action.

Unless required by statute, or determined by the chairman of the meeting to be advisable, the vote on any question need not be by written ballot. On a vote by written ballot, each ballot shall be signed by the stockholder voting, or by his proxy, if there be such proxy, and shall state the number of shares voted.

Section 9

List of Stockholders. The officer who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten days prior to the meeting either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present.

Section 10

Inspectors. The Board may, in advance of any meeting of stockholders, appoint one or more inspectors to act at such meeting or any adjournment thereof. If the inspectors shall not be so appointed or if any of them fail to appear or act, the chairman of the meeting may, and on the request of any stockholder entitled to vote thereat shall appoint inspectors. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector at such meeting with strict impartiality and according to the best of his ability. The inspectors shall determine, in number of shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, the validity and effect of proxies, and shall receive votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes, ballots or consents, determine the result, and do such acts as are proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all stockholders. On request of the chairman of the meeting or any stockholder entitled to vote thereat, the inspectors shall make a report in writing of any challenge, request or matter determined by them and shall execute a certificate of any fact found by them. No director or candidate for the office of director shall act as inspector of an election of directors. Inspectors need not be stockholders.

Consent of Stockholders in Lieu of Meeting. Whenever the vote of stockholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, the meeting and vote of stockholders can be dispensed with: (1) if all of the stockholders who would have been entitled to vote upon the action if such meeting were held shall consent in writing to such corporate action being taken; or (2) unless the Certificate of Incorporation provides otherwise, with the written consent of the holders of not less than the minimum percentage of the total vote required by statute for the proposed corporate action, and provided that prompt notice must be given to all stockholders of the taking of corporate action without a meeting and by less than unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE II
Board of Directors

Section 1

General Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board. The Board may exercise all such authority and powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 2

Number, Qualifications, Election and Term of Office. The number of directors of the Corporation shall be at least one but, by vote of a majority of the entire Board or amendment of these By-Laws, the number thereof may be increased to such greater number as may be so provided, subject to the provisions of Section 11 of this Article II. All of the directors shall be of full age. Directors need not be stockholders. Except as otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws, the directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of directors at which a quorum is present, and the persons receiving a plurality of the votes cast at such election shall be elected. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the stockholders and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified or until his death, or until he shall have resigned, or have been removed, as hereinafter provided in these By-Laws, or as otherwise provided by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 3

Place of Meeting. Meetings of the Board may be held at such place, within or without the State of Delaware, as the Board may from time to time determine or shall be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 4

First Meeting. The Board shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers and the transaction of other business, as soon as practicable after each annual meeting of the stockholders, on the same day and at the same place where such annual meeting shall be held. Notice of such meeting need not be given. Such meeting may be held at any other time or place (within or without the State of Delaware) which shall be specified in a notice thereof given as hereinafter provided in Section 7 of this Article II.

Section 5

Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board shall be held quarterly at such place as the Board may from time to time determine. If any day fixed for a regular meeting shall be a legal holiday at the place where the meeting is to be held, then the meeting which would otherwise be held on that day shall be held at the same hour on the next succeeding business day. Notice of regular meetings of the Board need not be given except as otherwise required by statute or these By-Laws.

Section 6

Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board may be called by one or more directors of the Corporation or by the President.

Section 7

Notice of Meetings. Notice of each special meeting of the Board (and of each regular meeting for which notice shall be required) shall be given by the Secretary as hereinafter provided in this Section 7, in which notice shall be stated the time and place (within or without the State of Delaware) of the meeting. Notice of each such meeting shall be delivered to each director either personally or by telephone, telegraph cable or wireless, at least twenty-four hours before the time at which such meeting is to be held or by first-class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to him at his residence, or usual place of business, at least three days before the day on which such meeting is to be held. Notice of any such meeting need not be given to any director who shall, either before or after the meeting, submit a signed waiver of notice or who shall attend such meeting without protesting, prior to or at its commencement, the lack of notice to him. Except as otherwise specifically required by these By-Laws, a notice or waiver of notice of any regular or special meeting need not state the purpose of such meeting.

Section 8

Quorum and Manner of Acting. A majority of the entire Board shall be present in person at any meeting of the Board in order to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting, and, except as otherwise expressly required by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation, the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, a majority of the directors present thereat, or if no director be present, the Secretary, may adjourn such meeting to another time and place, or such meeting, unless it be the first meeting of the Board, need not be held. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called. Except as provided in Article III of these By-Laws, the directors shall act only as a Board and the individual directors shall have no power as such.

Section 9

Organization. At each meeting of the Board, the President, or, in his absence or inability to act, another director chosen by a majority of the directors present shall act as chairman of the meeting and preside thereat. The Secretary (or, in his absence or inability to act, any person appointed by the chairman) shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof.

Section 10

Resignations. Any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice of his resignation to the Board or the President or the Secretary. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, immediately upon its receipt; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 11

Vacancies. Vacancies may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and the directors so chosen shall hold office until the next annual election and until their successors are duly elected and shall qualify, unless sooner displaced. If there are no directors in office, then an election of directors may be held in the manner provided by statute. If, at the time of filling any vacancy or any newly created directorship, the directors then in office shall constitute less than a majority of the whole Board (as constituted immediately prior to any such increase), the Court of Chancery may, upon application of any stockholder or holders of at least ten percent of the votes of the shares at the time outstanding having the right to vote for such directors, summarily order an election to be held to fill any such vacancies or newly created directorships, or to replace the directors chosen by the directors then in office. Except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, when one or more directors shall resign from the Board, effective at a future date, a majority of the directors then in office, including those who have so resigned, shall have the power to fill such vacancy or vacancies, the vote thereon to take effect when such resignation or resignations shall become effective, and each director so chosen shall hold office as provided in this section in the filling of other vacancies.

Section 12

Removal of Directors. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation or in these By-Laws, any director may be removed, either with or without cause, at any time, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote for the election of directors of the Corporation given at a special meeting of the stockholders called and held for the purpose; and the vacancy in the Board caused by any such removal may be filled by such stockholders at such meeting, or, if the stockholders shall fail to fill such vacancy, as in these By-Laws provided.

Section 13

Compensation. The Board shall have authority to fix the compensation, including fees and reimbursement of expenses, of directors for services to the Corporation in any capacity, provided no such payment shall preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 14

Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee.

ARTICLE III
Executive and Other Committees

Section 1

Executive and Other Committees. The Board may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of two or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution shall have and may exercise the powers of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, and may authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it; provided, however, that in the absence or disqualification of any member of such committee or committees, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Each committee shall keep written minutes of its proceedings and shall report such minutes to the Board when required. All such proceedings shall be subject to revision or alteration by the Board; provided, however, that third parties shall not be prejudiced by such revision or alteration.

Section 2

General. A majority of any committee may determine its action and fix the time and place of its meetings, unless the Board shall otherwise provide.

Notice of such meetings shall be given to each member of the committee in the manner provided for in Article II, Section 7. The Board shall have any power at any time to fill vacancies in, to change the membership of, or to dissolve any such committee. Nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent the Board from appointing one or more committees consisting in whole or in part of persons who are not directors of the Corporation; provided, however, that no such committee shall have or may exercise any authority of the Board.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

Section 1

Number and Qualifications. The officers of the Corporation shall include the President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. Such officers shall be elected from time to time by the Board, each to hold office until the meeting of the Board following the next annual meeting of the stockholders, or until his or her successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified, or until his or her death, or until he or she shall have resigned, or have been removed, as hereinafter provided in these By-Laws. The Board may from time to time elect, or the President may appoint, such other officers (including one or more Assistant Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, and Assistant Treasurers), and such agents, as may be necessary or desirable for the business of the Corporation. Such other officers and agents shall have such duties and shall hold their offices for such terms as may be prescribed by the Board or by the appointing authority.

Section 2

Resignations. Any officer of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice of his resignation to the Board, the President or the Secretary. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, immediately upon its receipt; and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 3

Removal. Any officer or agent of the Corporation may be removed, either with or without cause, at any time, by the vote of the majority of the entire Hoard at any meeting of the Board, or, except in the case of an officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board, by the President. Such removal shall be without prejudice to the contractual rights, if any, of the person so removed.

Section 4

Vacancies. A vacancy in any office, whether arising from death, resignation, removal or any other cause, may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term of the office which shall be vacant, in the manner prescribed in these By-Laws for the regular election or appointment of such office.

Section 5

The President. The President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and shall have the general and active management of the business of the Corporation and general and active supervision and direction over the other officers, agents and employees and shall see that their duties are properly performed. He shall, if present, preside at each meeting of the stockholders and of the Board and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees of the Board. He shall perform all duties incident to the office of President and Chief Executive Officer and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board.

Section 6

Vice-President. The Vice President shall be vested with all the powers and shall be required to perform all the duties of the President in his absence or disability and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the President.

Section 7

The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be the chief financial officer of the Corporation and shall exercise general supervision over the receipt, custody and disbursements of Corporate funds. He shall have such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon him from time to time by the President or the Board of Directors.

Section 8

The Secretary. The Secretary shall:

- (a) See or cause to be kept in one or more books provided for that purpose, the minutes of the meetings of the Board, the committees of the Board and the stockholders;
- (b) See that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws and as required by law;
- (c) Be custodian of the records and the seal of the Corporation and affix and attest the seal to all stock certificates of the Corporation (unless the seal of the Corporation on such certificates shall be a facsimile, as hereinafter provided) and affix and attest the seal to all other documents to be executed on behalf of the Corporation under its seal;
- (d) See that the books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept and filed are properly kept and filed; and
- (e) In general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board or the President.

Section 9

Officers' Bonds or Other Security. If required by the Board, any officer of the Corporation shall give a bond or other security for the faithful performance of his duties, in such amount and with such surety or sureties as the Board may require.

Section 10

Compensation. The compensation of the officers of the Corporation for their services as such officers shall be fixed from time to time by the Board; provided, however, that the Board may delegate to the President the power to fix the compensation of officers and agents appointed by the President. An officer of the Corporation shall not be prevented from receiving compensation by reason of the fact that he is also a director of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V

Indemnification

The Board of Directors may, to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of Delaware, indemnify any and all persons who it shall have power to indemnify against any and all of the expenses, liabilities or other matters.

ARTICLE VI

Contracts, Loans, Checks,
Bank Accounts, Proxies

Section 1

Execution of Contracts. Except as otherwise required by statute, the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, any contracts or other instruments may be executed and delivered in the name and on behalf of the Corporation by such officer or officers (including any assistant officer) of the Corporation as the Board may from time to time direct. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances as the Board may determine. Unless authorized by the Board or expressly permitted by these By-Laws, an officer or agent or employee shall not have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it pecuniarily liable for any purpose or to any amount.

Section 2

Loans. Unless the Board shall otherwise determine, the President, together with the Secretary may effect loans and advances at any time for the Corporation from any bank, trust company or other institution, or from any firm, corporation or individual, and for such loans and advances make, execute, deliver promissory notes, bonds and other certificates or evidences of indebtedness of the Corporation, but no officer or officers shall mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or transfer any securities or other property of the Corporation, except when authorized by the Board.

Section 3

Checks, Drafts, etc. All checks, drafts, bills of exchange or other orders for the payment of money out of the funds of the Corporation, and all notes or other evidences of indebtedness of the Corporation, shall be signed in the name and on behalf of the Corporation by such persons and in such manner as shall from time to time be authorized by the Board.

Section 4

Deposits. All funds of the Corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board may from time to time designate or as may be designated by an officer or officers of the Corporation to whom such power of designation may from time to time be delegated by the Board. For the purpose of deposit and for the purpose of collection for the account of the Corporation, checks, drafts and other orders for the payment of money which are payable to the order of the Corporation may be endorsed, assigned and delivered by any officer or agent of the Corporation, or in such other manner as the Board may determine by resolution.

Section 5

General and Special Bank Accounts. The Board may from time to time authorize the opening and keeping of general and special bank accounts with such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Board may designate or as may be designated by any officer or officers of the Corporation to whom such power of designation may from time to time be delegated by the Board. The Board may make such special rules and regulations with respect to such bank accounts, not inconsistent with the provisions of these By-Laws, as it may deem expedient.

Section 6

Proxies in Respect of Securities of Other Corporations. Unless otherwise provided by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors, the President or Vice President may from time to time appoint an attorney or attorneys or agent or agents, of the Corporation, in the name and on behalf of the Corporation to cast the votes which the Corporation may be entitled to cast as the holder of stock or other securities in any other corporation any of whose stock or other securities may be held by the Corporation, at meetings of the holders of the stock or other securities of such other corporation, or to consent in writing, in the name of the Corporation as such holder, to any action by such other corporation, and may instruct the person or persons so appointed as to the manner of casting such votes or giving such consent, and may execute or cause to be executed in the name and on behalf of the Corporation and under its corporate seal, or otherwise, all such written proxies or other instruments as he may deem necessary or proper in the premises.

ARTICLE VII

Shares, Etc.

Section 1

Stock Certificates. Each holder of stock of the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate, in such form as shall be approved by the Board, certifying the number of shares of stock of the Corporation owned by him. The certificates representing shares of stock shall be signed in the name of the Corporation by the President and by the Secretary and sealed with the seal of the Corporation (which seal may be a facsimile, engraved or printed); provided, however, that where any such certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or is registered by a registrar other than the Corporation or one of its employees, the signature of the officers of the Corporation upon such certificates may be facsimiles, engraved or printed. In case any officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon such certificates shall have ceased to be such officer before such certificates shall be issued, they may nevertheless be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such officer were still in office at the date of their issue.

Section 2

Books of Account and Record of Stockholders. The books and records of the Corporation may be kept at such places within or without the State of Delaware, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. The stock record books and the blank stock certificate books shall be kept by the Secretary or by any other officer or agent designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 3

Transfers of Shares. Transfers of shares of stock of the Corporation shall be made on the stock records of the Corporation only upon authorization by the registered holder thereof, or by his attorney thereunto authorized by power of attorney duly executed and filed with the Secretary or with a transfer agent or transfer clerk, and on surrender of the certificate or certificates for such shares properly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed stock transfer power and the payment of all taxes thereon. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person in whose name any share or shares stand on the record of stockholders as the owner of such share or shares for all purposes, including, without limitation, the rights to receive dividends or other distributions, and to vote as such owner, and the Corporation may hold any such stockholder of record liable for calls and assessments and the Corporation shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or legal claim to or interest in any such share or shares on the part of any other person whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof. Whenever any transfers of shares shall be made for collateral security and not absolutely, and both the transferor and transferee request the Corporation to do so, such fact shall be stated in the entry of the transfer.

Section 4

Regulations. The Board may make such additional rules and regulations, not inconsistent with these By-Laws, as it may deem expedient concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation. It may appoint, or authorize any officer or officers to appoint, one or more transfer agents or one or more transfer clerks and one or more registrars and may require all certificates for shares of stock to bear the signature or signatures of any of them.

Section 5

Lost, Destroyed or Mutilated Certificates. The holder of any certificate representing shares of stock of the Corporation shall immediately notify the Corporation of any loss, destruction or mutilation of such certificate and the Corporation may issue a new certificate of stock in the place of any certificate theretofore issued by it which the owner thereof shall alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed or which shall have been mutilated, and the Board may, in its discretion, require such owner or his legal representatives to give to the Corporation a bond in such sum, limited or unlimited, and in such form and with such surety or sureties as the Board in its absolute discretion shall determine, to indemnify the Corporation against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft, or destruction of any such certificate, or the issuance of a new certificate. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Board, in its absolute discretion, may refuse to issue any such new certificate, except pursuant to legal proceedings under the laws of the State of Delaware.

Stockholder's Right of Inspection. Any stockholder, in person or by attorney or other agent, upon written demand under oath stating the purpose thereof, has the right during the usual hours of business to inspect for any proper purpose the Corporation's stock ledger, a list of its stockholders, and its other books and records, and to make copies or extracts therefrom. A proper purpose shall mean a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a stockholder.

In every instance where an attorney or other agent shall be the person who seeks the right to inspection, the demand under oath shall be accompanied by a power of attorney or such other writing which authorizes the attorney or other agent to so act on behalf of the stockholder. The demand under oath shall be directed to the Corporation at its registered office in the State of Delaware or at its principal place of business.

Section 7

Fixing of Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty nor less than ten days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty days prior to any other action. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

ARTICLE VIII

Offices

Section 1

Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware shall be at 1310 King Street, Wilmington, New Castle County, Delaware. The registered agent shall be Prickett, Jones, Elliott & Kristol.

Section 2

Other Offices. The Corporation may also have an office or offices other than said principal office at such place or places, either within or without the State of Delaware, as the Board shall from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE IX

Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall end on the 31st day of August of each year and begin on the first day of September of each year.

ARTICLE X

Seal

The Board shall provide a corporate seal, which shall be in the form of the name of the Corporation and the words and figures "Corporate Seal 1981, Delaware".

ARTICLE XI

Amendments

These By-Laws may be amended or repealed, or new By-Laws may be adopted, at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders, by a majority of the stockholders, by a majority of the total votes of the stockholders or when stockholders are required to vote by class by a majority of the appropriate class, present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on such action; provided, however, that the notice of such meeting shall have been given as provided, however, that the notice of such meeting shall have been given as provided in these By-Laws, which notice shall mention that amendment or repeal of these By-Laws, or the adoption of new By-Laws, is one of the purposes of such meetings; and provided, further, that By-Laws adopted by the Board may be amended or repealed by the stockholders as hereinabove provided.

ALLIED WASTE SYSTEMS OF ARIZONA, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of April 14, 2006, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Systems of Arizona, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Arizona law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Arizona shall be CT Corporation System, 3224 North Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85012, County of Maricopa. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Arizona upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Arizona are CT Corporation System, 3224 North Central Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85012. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Arizona, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Arizona. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company.

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 29.781 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 29.781 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Arizona Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Arizona Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Arizona Law. The laws of the State of Arizona shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Arizona Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in ARC § 29.601-29.857, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE SYSTEMS OF COLORADO, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of May 12, 2006, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Systems of Colorado, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Colorado law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Colorado shall be The Corporation Trust Company, 1675 Broadway, Denver, Colorado, 80202. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Colorado upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Colorado are The Corporation Trust Company, 1675 Broadway, Denver, Colorado, 80202. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Colorado, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Colorado. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company.

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 7-80-808 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 7-80-808 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Colorado Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Colorado Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Colorado Law. The laws of the State of Colorado shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Colorado Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in Title 7, Article 8 § 7-80-101, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE SYSTEMS OF INDIANA, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of December 7, 2006, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Systems of Indiana, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Delaware law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Delaware shall be The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware, County of New Castle. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Delaware upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Delaware are The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Delaware, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Delaware. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company.

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;

- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 18-803 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Delaware Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Delaware Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Delaware Law. The laws of the State of Delaware shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Delaware Limited Liability Company Law, as set forth in Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 18-101, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE SYSTEMS OF MICHIGAN, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of August 24, 2005, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Systems of Michigan, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Michigan law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Michigan shall be The Corporation Company, 30600 Telegraph Road, Birmingham Farms, Michigan, County of Oakland. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Michigan upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Michigan are The Corporation Company, 30600 Telegraph Road, Birmingham Farms, Michigan. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Michigan, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Michigan. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company.

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 450.4801(d) of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 450.4805(1) of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Michigan Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Michigan Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Michigan Law. The laws of the State of Michigan shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Michigan Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in Michigan Compiled Laws § 450.4101 - 450.5200 et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

ALLIED WASTE SYSTEMS OF MONTANA, LLC

This Amended Operating Agreement is executed as of April 25, 2006, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY.

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Montana Limited Liability Act, Title 35, Chapter 8, MCA (the "Act"), and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Articles of Organization.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Systems of Montana, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Montana law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Montana shall be CT Corporation System, 40 West Lawrence, Helena, Montana, 59601. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Montana upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Montana are CT Corporation System, 40 West Lawrence, Helena, Montana, 59601. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Articles of Organization are filed in Montana, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Articles of Organization. The Member shall cause Articles of Organization to be filed in the State of Montana. The Member shall file any amendments to the Articles of Organization deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Articles of Organization, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agency(ies).

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS.

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS.

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Act, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT.

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS.

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION.

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;

- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of an order or decree of dissolution under the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 35-8-903, MCA. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until Articles of Termination have been filed with the Montana Secretary of State or until an order dissolving the Company has been issued by the Montana Secretary of State, or a decree of dissolution has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or Court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Articles of Termination. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, Articles of Termination shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Montana Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS.

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge, and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Montana Law. The laws of the State of Montana shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Montana Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in MCA § 35.8.101, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto,” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Articles of Organization” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE SYSTEMS OF NEW JERSEY, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of February 23, 2000, by Allied Waste North America, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Systems of New Jersey, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Delaware law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of New Jersey shall be 820 Bear Tavern Road, West Trenton, NJ 08628. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of New Jersey upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in New Jersey are The Corporation Trust Company, 820 Bear Tavern Road, West Trenton, New Jersey 08628. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in New Jersey, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of New Jersey. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company.

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 18-803 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Delaware Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefor, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefor and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Delaware Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 New Jersey Law. The laws of the State of New Jersey shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the New Jersey Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in Title 42:2B of the New Jersey Statutes, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE SYSTEMS OF NORTH CAROLINA, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of October 14, 2005, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Systems of North Carolina, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under North Carolina law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of North Carolina shall be CT Corporation System, 225 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh, North Carolina, County of Wake. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of North Carolina upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in North Carolina are CT Corporation System, 225 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh, North Carolina. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in North Carolina, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of North Carolina. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;

- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 57C-6-02.3 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 57C-6-04 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the North Carolina Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the North Carolina Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

BFI WASTE SYSTEMS OF PENNSYLVANIA, LLC

This Operating Agreement (the "Agreement") of BFI Waste Systems of Pennsylvania, LLC (the "Company") is executed as of January 26, 2001, by BFI Waste Systems of North America, Inc., a Delaware corporation, the sole member of the Company (the "Member"), and shall bind the Member, the Company, and any other person who may acquire any interest in the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings set forth in Section 7.6.

1.2 Formation. The Company has been formed as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Organization.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is BFI Waste Systems of Pennsylvania, LLC. All business of the Company shall be conducted in the Company name. The Company shall hold its property in the name of the Company.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of landfill operations, and to engage in any other activity permitted under Pennsylvania law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Pennsylvania shall be 1515 Market Street, Suite 1210, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19102. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Pennsylvania upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.6 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Pennsylvania are CT Corporation System, 1515 Market Street, Suite 1210, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19102. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.7 Certificate of Organization. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Organization deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of the Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the sole Member is set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.3 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as the Member may determine. The Member shall not be required to make a Member Loan unless the Member has agreed to make such Member Loan.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

During the term of the Company, cash and property shall be distributed periodically to the Member in its sole discretion. No distribution shall be declared and paid unless, after the distribution is made, the assets of the Company are in excess of all liabilities of the Company.

SECTION 4. MANAGEMENT

4.1 General Management Structure. Unless specifically provided otherwise in this Agreement, all decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs, and all matters requiring the consent or approval of the Member under this Agreement, shall be made within the sole discretion of the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company.

4.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in this Agreement or in resolutions duly adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, an executive vice president, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may reasonably determine from time to time. Unless otherwise specified by the Member, the following officers shall have the authority to engage in the activities set forth with respect to their respective offices:

4.2.1 President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Member, have general supervision of the business of the Company and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Member are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Company, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Company may sign and execute documents when so authorized by this Agreement, the Member, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by this Agreement or by the Member.

4.2.2 Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, the Executive Vice President, if there is one acting, or in the absence of an Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the President from time to time may prescribe.

4.2.3 Secretary. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

4.2.4 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Company and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Company in such depositories as may be designated by the Member. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Company as may be ordered by the Member, talking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President, from time to time, when the Member so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Company. If required by the Member, the Treasurer shall give the Company a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Member for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Company, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever land in his possession or under his control belonging to the Company.

4.2.5 Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in this Agreement, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Member, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

4.2.6 Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Member, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Member, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Company a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Member for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Company, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Company.

4.2.7 Other Officers. Such other officers as the Member may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Member. The Member may delegate to any officer of the Company the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

4.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member and its officers and any officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

4.4 Meetings. No annual or special meetings of the Member shall be required. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting may be taken without a meeting if written consent setting forth the action to be taken is signed by the Member.

SECTION 5. BOOKS AND RECORDS

5.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents. The books of account of the Company shall be prepared and maintained on the same basis and in a manner consistent with the records of the Member.

5.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the same as the fiscal year of the Member.

5.3 Bank Accounts. The funds of the Company shall be maintained in a separate account or accounts in the name of the Company.

SECTION 6. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

6.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The election by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) Upon the Member becoming bankrupt or the occurrence of any event that terminates the membership of the Member in the Company as described in Section 8971(a)(4) of the Act.
- (d) The entry of an order of judicial dissolution under Section 8972 of the Act.

6.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of dissolution has been filed in accordance with Section 6.3 or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. The Member (or its authorized successor in interest) shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up and liquidation of the Company and shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets upon dissolution. Any assets not required to discharge any liabilities of the Company shall be distributed to the Member. Upon the completion of the winding up, liquidation and distribution of the assets, the Company shall be deemed terminated. The Company shall comply with any applicable requirements of the Act pertaining to the winding up of the affairs of the Company and the final distribution of its assets.

6.3 Certificate of Dissolution. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefor and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, the Company shall execute and file a certificate of dissolution with the Pennsylvania Department of State.

SECTION 7. MISCELLANEOUS

7.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

7.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

7.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

7.4 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

7.5 Governing Law. The laws of the State of Pennsylvania shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

7.6 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Pennsylvania Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in § 8901 et. seq., of the Pennsylvania Code, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Certificate of Organization” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.7 hereof.

“Capital Contribution” means the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by the Member.

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement.

“Member Loans” has the meaning given that term in Section 2.3 hereof.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

7.7 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. No term or provision of this Agreement is intended to or shall be for the benefit of any Person not a party hereto, and no such other Person shall have any right or cause of action hereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

6. The corporation is to have perpetual existence.

7. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the board of directors is expressly authorized:

To make, alter or repeal the by-laws of the corporation.

To authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens upon the real and personal property of the corporation.

To set apart out of any of the funds of the corporation available for dividends a reserve or reserves for any proper purpose and to abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

By a majority of the whole board, to designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation. The board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. The by-laws may provide that in the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the board of directors to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the board of directors, or in the by-laws of the corporation, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and may authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it; but no such committee shall have the power or authority in reference to amending the certificate of incorporation, adopting an agreement of merger or consolidation, recommending to the stockholders the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property and assets, recommending to the stockholders a dissolution of the corporation or revocation of a dissolution, or amending the by-laws of the corporation; and, unless the resolution or by-laws, expressly so provide, no such committee shall have the power or authority to declare a dividend or to authorize the issuance of stock.

When and as authorized by the stockholders in accordance with statute, to sell, lease or exchange all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation, including its good will and its corporate franchises, upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property including shares of stock in, and/or other securities of, any other corporation or corporations, as its board of directors shall deem expedient and for the best interests of the corporation.

8. Meetings of stockholders may be held within or without the State of Delaware, as the by-laws may provide. The books of the corporation may be kept (subject to any provision contained in the statutes) outside the State of Delaware at such place or places as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors or in the by-laws of the corporation. Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the by-laws of the corporation shall so provide.

9. The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this certificate of incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, being each of the incorporators hereinbefore named, for the purpose of forming a corporation pursuant to the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, do make this certificate, hereby declaring and certifying that this is our act and deed and the facts herein stated are true, and accordingly have hereunto set our hands this 14th day of August, 1972.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

THETA SYSTEMS, INC., a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of The General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, DOES HEREBY CERTIFY.

FIRST: That the Board of Directors of said corporation, by the unanimous consent of its members, filed with the minutes of the board, adopted a resolution proposing and declaring advisable the following amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation of said corporation:

RESOLVED, that the certificate of Incorporation of this Corporation be amended by changing the Article thereof numbered 4 so that, as amended, the said Article shall be and read as follows:

The aggregate number of shares which the Corporation is authorized to issue is 5,100,000 divided into two classes. The designation of each class, the number of shares of each class, the par value or a statement that the shares of any class are without par value, are as follows:

Class	Series (if any)	No. of Shares	Par value per share or statement that shares are without par value
Common	None	5,000,000	$.25
Preferred	Issuable in series	100,000	Without Par Value

The preferences, qualifications, limitations, restrictions and the special or relative rights in respect of the shares of each class are:

(a) The holders of preferred shares of each series shall be entitled to receive, when and as declared by the board of directors, dividends at the rate fixed for such series, and no more, payable in quarterly installments on the last days of March, June, September, and December in each year. Dividends on preferred shares shall be cumulative from and after the respective dates of issuance. No dividends shall be declared on the shares of any series of preferred shares for any dividend period unless the full dividend for all prior dividend periods, as declared by the board of directors, shall have been declared or shall be declared at the same time upon all preferred shares outstanding during such prior dividend periods. No dividends shall be declared or paid on the common shares unless full dividends on the preferred shares for all past dividend periods, as declared by the board of directors, and for the current dividend period, shall have been declared and the corporation shall have paid such dividends or shall have set apart a sum sufficient for the payment thereof.

(b) In the event of any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of the then outstanding preferred shares shall be entitled to receive the fixed amount payable in such event plus a sum equal to the amount of all accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon at the dividend rate fixed for such shares; after such payment to the holders of preferred shares the remaining assets and funds of the corporation shall be distributed pro rata among the holders of the common shares. A consolidation, merger or reorganization of the corporation with any other corporation or corporations, or a sale of all or substantially all of the assets, of the corporation, shall not be considered a dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the corporation within the meaning of these provisions.

(c) Authority is hereby vested in the board of directors to divide any or all of the preferred shares into series and, within the limitations provided by law and the Articles of Incorporation, as amended, to fix and determine; the rate of dividend; the price at and the terms and conditions on which shares may be redeemed; the amount or amounts payable upon shares in event of either voluntary or involuntary liquidation; sinking fund provisions for the redemption or purchase of shares, the terms and conditions on which shares may be converted, if the shares of any series are issued with the privilege of conversion; and such other rights, privileges and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

(d) No holder of shares of any class of the corporation shall have any pre-emptive right to subscribe for or acquire additional shares of the corporation of the same or any other class, whether such shares be hereby or hereafter authorized; and no holder of shares of any class of the corporation shall have any pre-emptive right to acquire any shares which may be held in the treasury of the corporation; all such additional or treasury shares may be sold for such consideration, at such time, and to such person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

SECOND: That in lieu of a meeting and vote of stockholders, the stockholders have given unanimous written consent to said amendment in accordance with the provisions of Section 228 of The General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

THIRD: That the aforesaid amendment was duly adopted in accordance with the applicable provisions of Sections 242 and 228 of The General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

OF
ALLIED WASTE SYSTEMS, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, of ten percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as may be allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III
DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as maybe determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V

STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

ALLIED WASTE NORTH AMERICA INC.
a Delaware corporation, Sole Member

By: /s/ Jo Lynn White
Jo Lynn White
Assistant Secretary

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE TRANSFER SERVICES OF ARIZONA, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of June 27, 2006, by Allied Waste North America, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Transfer Services of Arizona, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Delaware law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Delaware shall be The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware, County of New Castle. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Delaware upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Delaware are The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Delaware, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Delaware. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 18-803 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Delaware Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Delaware Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Delaware Law. The laws of the State of Delaware shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Delaware Limited Liability Company Law, as set forth in Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 18-101, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE TRANSFER SERVICES OF CALIFORNIA, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of April 12, 2006, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Transfer Services of California, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under California law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of California shall be CT Corporation System, 818 W 7th Street, Los Angeles, California 90017, County of Los Angeles. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of California upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in California are CT Corporation System, 818 W 7th Street, Los Angeles, California 90017. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in California, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of California. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company.

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 17351 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 17351 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the California Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the California Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 California Law. The laws of the State of California shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Beverly-Killea Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in Cal. Code Ann. Tit. 1, § 17000, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

ALLIED WASTE TRANSFER SERVICES OF IOWA, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of April 19, 2005, by Allied Waste North America, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Transfer Services of Iowa, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Iowa law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Iowa shall be CT Corporation System, 2222 Grand Avenue, Des Moines, County of Polk, Iowa. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Iowa upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Iowa are CT Corporation System, 2222 Grand Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Iowa, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Iowa. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 490A. 1302 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 490A.1303 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Iowa Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Iowa Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Iowa Law. The laws of the State of Iowa shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Iowa Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in Iowa Code Ann. Chapter 490A § 100, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE TRANSFER SERVICES OF LIMA, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of November 30, 2005, by Allied Waste North America, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Transfer Services of Lima, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Ohio law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Ohio shall be CT Corporation System, 1300 East 9th Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44114, County of Cuyahoga. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Ohio upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Ohio are CT Corporation System, 1300 East 9th Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44114. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Ohio, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Ohio. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 1705.47 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 1705.44 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Ohio Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefor, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefor and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Ohio Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Ohio Law. The laws of the State of Ohio shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Ohio Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in Ohio Revised Code Chapter 1705, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Transfer Services of New York, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under New York law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of New York shall be CT Corporation System, 111 Eighth Avenue, New York, New York, County of New York. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of New York upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in New York are CT Corporation System, 111 Eighth Avenue, New York, New York. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in New York, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of New York. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 347.143 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 347.141 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the New York Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the New York Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 New York Law. The laws of the State of New York shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the New York Limited Liability Company Law, as set forth in New York Consolidated Laws § 31.101 et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE TRANSFER SERVICES OF NORTH CAROLINA, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of July 13, 2005, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Transfer Services of North Carolina, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under North Carolina law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of North Carolina shall be CT Corporation System, 225 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh, North Carolina, County of Wake. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of North Carolina upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in North Carolina are CT Corporation System, 225 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh, North Carolina. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in North Carolina, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of North Carolina. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 57C-6-02.3 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 57C-6-04 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the North Carolina Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the North Carolina Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 North Carolina Law. The laws of the State of North Carolina shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the North Carolina Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in North Carolina General Statutes § 57C et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE TRANSFER SERVICES OF OREGON, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of April 12, 2006, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Transfer Services of Oregon, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Oregon law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Oregon shall be CT Corporation System, 601 SW 2nd Avenue, Suite 2050, Portland, Oregon 97204. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Oregon upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Oregon are CT Corporation System, 601 SW 2nd Avenue, Suite 2050, Portland, Oregon 97204. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Oregon, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Oregon. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 63.621 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 63.637 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Oregon Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Oregon Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Oregon Law. The laws of the State of Oregon shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Oregon Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in ORC § 63.001 et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF ALLIED WASTE TRANSFER SERVICES OF RHODE ISLAND, LLC

This Operating Agreement is executed as of June 8, 2006, by Browning-Ferris Industries, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Member") as the sole member of the Company.

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 8.7 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is Allied Waste Transfer Services of Rhode Island, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed at any time by the Member.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of solid waste management and disposal, and to engage in any other business or activity permitted under Delaware law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Member that the Company be treated as a separate entity for state law purposes, but be disregarded as an entity and operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a "division" of the Member for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Member that the Company not be operated or treated as a "partnership" for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Delaware shall be The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware, County of New Castle. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Delaware upon the consent of the Member. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Member.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Delaware are The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware. The Company's agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Member.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Delaware, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Member shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Delaware. The Member shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by it to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Member in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Member in accordance with this Agreement, the Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBER; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Member. The name and address of the Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Member. The Member shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. The Member shall not be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Liability of Member. The Member shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Member, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Member shall be liable only to make the Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company.

(b) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require the Member to make additional Capital Contributions.

2.5 Member Loans. The Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Member.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 7 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Member, at such times as may be determined by the Member.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by the Code, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Company shall be allocated to the Member in full, disregarding the Company as a separate entity for federal income tax purposes.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. All decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs shall be made or taken by the Member. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of the Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Member may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions adopted by the Member on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Member deems appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Member may determine from time to time.

5.3 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Member, its officers and directors, and the officers of the Company (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS; TRANSFERS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents.

6.2 Transfers. No interest of the Company may be assigned, transferred, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the Member. Any attempted transfer, assignment, encumbrance, hypothecation or other disposition shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
- (b) The decision by the Member to dissolve the Company; or
- (c) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act.

7.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 7.1 hereof, the Member may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 18-803 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Delaware Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member, or court-appointed trustee, if there is no remaining Member, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefore, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to the Member as a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Member in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 7.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Member in accordance with Section 3.

7.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefore and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Member, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Member with the Delaware Secretary of State.

SECTION 8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Member and its heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns.

8.2 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

8.3 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

8.4 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

8.5 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

8.6 Delaware Law. The laws of the State of Delaware shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Member.

8.7 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Delaware Limited Liability Company Law, as set forth in Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 18-101, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. If any Person is admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, “Member” shall also be deemed to refer to such Person. “Member” refers collectively to all Persons who are designated as a “Member” pursuant to this definition.

“Net Cash Flow” means the gross cash proceeds to the Company from all sources, less the portion thereof used to pay or establish reserves for Company expenses, debt payments (including payments on Member Loans), capital improvements, replacements and contingencies, all as determined by the Member.

“Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust or other entity.

“Profits” and “Losses” mean, for each fiscal year or other period, an amount equal to the Company’s taxable income or loss for such year or period, determined in accordance with Code Section 703(a), reduced by any items of income or gain subject to special allocation pursuant to this Agreement, and otherwise adjusted by the Member to comply with the Regulations.

“Regulations” means the Income Tax Regulations promulgated under the Code, as such regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding regulations).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first above written.

BYLAWS
OF
ALLIED WASTE TRANSFER SERVICES OF UTAH, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, often percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days

(unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as may be allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III
DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as maybe determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI
NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

OF
ALLIED WASTE TRANSPORTATION, INC.

1. The name of the Corporation is Allied Waste Transportation, Inc. (the "Corporation").
2. The address of the registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware is Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle. The name of its registered agent at that address is The Corporation Trust Company.
3. The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL").
4. The Corporation shall have authority to issue one thousand (1,000) common shares, one cent ($0.01) par value.
5. The name and mailing address of the incorporator are as follows:

Steven M. Helm
15880 North Greenway Hayden Loop
Suite 100
Scottsdale, Arizona 85260

The powers of the incorporator shall terminate upon the filing of this Certificate of Incorporation.

6. The initial Directors of the Corporation and their respective addresses are as follows:

Thomas H. Van Weeldon
Henry L. Hirvela
Steven M. Helm
15880 North Greenway Hayden Loop
Suite 100
Scottsdale, Arizona 85260

7. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors shall have the power to make, alter, amend, change, add to or repeal the bylaws of the Corporation.
 8. Elections of directors need not be by written ballot unless the bylaws of the Corporation shall so provide.

9. The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute.

10. A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent that the elimination or limitation of liability is prohibited under the DGCL as in effect when such liability is determined. No amendment or repeal of this provision shall deprive a director of the benefits hereof with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

11. Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the Corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the Corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the Corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof, or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of Section 291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provision of Section 279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the Corporation, as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the Corporation, as the case may be, and also on the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator has caused this Certificate of Incorporation to be duly executed this 19th day of June, 1997.

/s/ Steven M. Helm

OF
ALLIED WASTE TRANSPORTATION, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle, State of Delaware.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, either within or outside of the State of Delaware, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, of ten percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after three years from its date, unless such proxy provides for a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors shall appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or without the State of Delaware. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any three (3) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram on twenty-four (24) hours' notice, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attached at Board stockholder meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as determined by the stockholders from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there is any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by him in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its organization and the words "Corporate Seal, Delaware". The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Delaware for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stock holders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

OF COUNTY DISPOSAL (ILLINOIS), INC.

The undersigned incorporator, in order to form a corporation under the General Corporation Law of Delaware, certifies as follows:

FIRST: The name of the corporation is County Disposal (Illinois), Inc.

SECOND: The registered office of the corporation is to be located at 32 Loockerman Square, Suite L-100, Dover, Kent County, Delaware 19901. The name of its registered agent at that address is The Prentice-Hall Corporation System, Inc.

THIRD: The purpose of the corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

FOURTH: The corporation shall have the authority to issue 1000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share.

FIFTH: The name and mailing address of the incorporator are as follows:

Stephen W. Rubin, Esq.
Proskauer Rose Goetz & Mendelsohn LLP
1585 Broadway
New York, New York 10036

SIXTH: The corporation is to have perpetual existence.

SEVENTH: Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the corporation under the provisions of §291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the corporation under the provisions of §279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the corporation, as the case may be, and also on the corporation.

EIGHTH: A director of this corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for the breach of any fiduciary duty as a director, except in the case of (a) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) under section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or (d) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. Any repeal or modification of this Article by the stockholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

NINTH: The corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, as the same is now or may hereafter be in effect, indemnify each person (including the heirs, executors, administrators and other personal representatives of such person) against expenses including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed suit, action or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative in nature or otherwise) in which such person may be involved by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving any other incorporated or unincorporated enterprise in such capacity at the request of the corporation.

TENTH: Unless, and except to the extent that, the by-laws of the corporation shall so require, the election of directors of the corporation need not be by written ballot.

ELEVENTH: The corporation hereby confers the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws of the corporation upon the directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 8th day of May, 1995.

AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS
OF
AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES OF ILLINOIS, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle, State of Delaware.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, either within or outside of the State of Delaware, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, often percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after three years from its date, unless such proxy provides for a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors shall appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the State of Delaware. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any three (3) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram on twenty-four (24) hours' notice, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Vice President of the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there is any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by him in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its organization and the words "Corporate Seal, Delaware". The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Delaware for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stock holders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

We, the undersigned, incorporators, hereby associate ourselves together to form and establish a corporation FOR profit under the laws of the State of Kansas.

OF
AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES OF KANSAS, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, often percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days

(unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as may be allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as maybe determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS
OF
AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES OF MISSOURI, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, often percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days

(unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as may be allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as maybe determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

Ann L. Straw
Vice-President & General Counsel
American Disposal Services, Inc.
745 McClintock Drive
Suite 230
Burr Ridge, Illinois 60521

SIXTH: Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the corporation under the provisions of §291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the corporation under the provisions of §279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the corporation, as the case may be, and also on the corporation.

SEVENTH: A director of this corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for the breach of any fiduciary duty as a director, except in the case of (a) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) under section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or (d) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. Any repeal or modification of this Article by the stockholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

EIGHTH: The corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, as the same is now or may hereafter be in effect, indemnify each person (including the heirs, executors, administrators and other personal representatives of such person) against expenses including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed suit, action or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative in nature or otherwise) in which such person may be involved by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving any other incorporated or unincorporated enterprise in such capacity at the request of the corporation.

NINTH: Unless, and except to the extent that, the by-laws of the corporation shall so require, the election of directors of the corporation need not be by written ballot.

TENTH: The corporation hereby confers the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws of the corporation upon the directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 15th day of May, 1998.

MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, either within or outside of the State of Delaware, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, of ten percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after three years from its date, unless such proxy provides for a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors shall appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the State of Delaware. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any three (3) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram on twenty-four (24) hours' notice, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Vice President of the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there is any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by him in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its organization and the words "Corporate Seal, Delaware". The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Delaware for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stock holders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

OF
AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES OF WEST VIRGINIA, INC.

The undersigned incorporator, in order to form a corporation under the General Corporation Law of Delaware, certifies as follows:

FIRST: The name of the corporation is:

"American Disposal Services of West Virginia, Inc."

SECOND: The registered office of the corporation is to be located at 1013 Centre Road, Wilmington, Delaware, 19805-1297, New Castle County. The name of its registered agent at that address is Corporation Service Company

THIRD: The purpose of the corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

FOURTH: The corporation shall have the authority to issue 1,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share.

FIFTH: The name and mailing address of the incorporator are as follows:

Stephen W. Rubin, Esq.
c/o Proskauer Rose LLP
1585 Broadway
New York, New York 10036

SIXTH: Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the corporation under the provisions of §291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the corporation under the provisions of §279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the corporation, as the case may be, and also on the corporation.

SEVENTH: A director of this corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for the breach of any fiduciary duty as a director, except in the case of (a) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) under section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or (d) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. Any repeal or modification of this Article by the stockholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

EIGHTH: The corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, as the same is now or may hereafter be in effect, indemnify each person (including the heirs, executors, administrators and other personal representatives of such person) against expenses including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed suit, action or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative in nature or otherwise) in which such person may be involved by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving any other incorporated or unincorporated enterprise in such capacity at the request of the corporation.

NINTH: Unless, and except to the extent that, the by-laws of the corporation shall so require, the election of directors of the corporation need not be by written ballot.

TENTH: The corporation hereby confers the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws of the corporation upon the directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 13th day of January, 1998.

/s/ Stephen W. Rubin

OF
AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES OF WEST VIRGINIA, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle, State of Delaware.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, either within or outside of the State of Delaware, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, of ten percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after three years from its date, unless such proxy provides for a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors shall appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the State of Delaware. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any three (3) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram on twenty-four (24) hours' notice, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Vice President of the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there is any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by him in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its organization and the words "Corporate Seal, Delaware". The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Delaware for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stock holders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT
OF
AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES, INC.

The undersigned corporation, in order to amend its Restated Certificate of Incorporation, hereby certifies as follows:

FIRST: The name of the corporation (the "Corporation") is:

AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES, INC.

SECOND: The Corporation hereby amends its Restated Certificate of Incorporation as follows:

Article FOURTH is hereby amended to read, in its entirety, as follows:

"FOURTH: The total number of shares of capital stock which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is twenty-five million (25,000,000) shares, consisting of twenty million (20,000,000) shares of common stock, par value one cent ($0.01) per share ("Common Stock"), and five million (5,000,000) shares of preferred stock, par value ($0.01) per share ("Preferred Stock").

A. Recapitalization: The number of presently outstanding shares of Common Stock (418,446.079831 shares of Class A Common Stock with a par value of $.01 per share and 2,065.15 shares of Class B Common Stock with a par value of $.01 per share) shall be reclassified and changed on the basis of (i) 13.5 shares of Common Stock for every one (1) share of Class A Common Stock presently outstanding and (ii) 13.5 shares of Common Stock for every one (1) share of Class B Common Stock presently outstanding, with the result that (X) the 418,446.079831 presently outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock shall be converted into a total of 5,649,022.07771 outstanding shares of Common Stock and (Y) the 2065.15 presently outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock shall be converted into a total of 27,879.525 outstanding shares of Common Stock.

B. Preferred Stock. The Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time in one or more series. The Board of Directors is hereby authorized, by filing a certificate pursuant to the applicable law of the State of Delaware, to establish from time to time the number of shares to be included in each such series, and to fix the designation, powers, preferences and rights of the shares of each such series and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, including but not limited to the fixing or alteration of the dividend rights, dividend rate, conversion rights, voting rights, rights and terms of redemption (including sinking fund provisions), the redemption price or prices, and the liquidation preferences of any wholly unissued series of shares of Preferred Stock, or any of them; and to increase or decrease the number of shares of any series subsequent to the issue of the shares of that series, but not below the number of shares of such series then outstanding. In case the number of shares of any series shall be so decreased, the shares constituting such decrease shall resume the status which they had prior to the adoption of the resolution originally fixing the number of shares of such series."

THIRD: The written amendment effected herein was authorized by the written consent, setting forth the action so taken, of the stockholders of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon pursuant to Sections 228(a) and 242 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and written notice has been given as provided in Section 228(d) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Corporation has caused this Amendment to the Corporation's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to be signed by its Vice President this 30th day of May, 1996.

RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES, INC.

AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES, INC., a corporation incorporated in the State of Delaware, hereby certifies that (a) this Corporation's present name is American Disposal Services, Inc., (b) its Certificate of Incorporation was originally filed with the Secretary of State on November 7, 1995, (c) this Restated Certificate of Incorporation has been duly adopted by written consent of the Board of Directors of the Corporation (no shares of capital stock having been issued as of the date hereof) in accordance with the provisions of Sections 241 and 245 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, and (d) the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of this Corporation, as amended to the date of filing of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation and including amendments set forth herein but not separately filed, is restated, integrated and amended in full to read as follows:

FIRST: The name of the Corporation is AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES, INC.

SECOND: The registered office of the Corporation is to be located at 1013 Centre Road, Wilmington, New Castle County, Delaware 19805-1297. The name of its registered agent at that address is The Prentice-Hall Corporation System, Inc.

THIRD: The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

FOURTH: (a) Capital Stock.

(i) Number and Designation of Shares. The Corporation is authorized to issue three classes of stock designated "Class A Common Stock," "Class B Common Stock" and "Preferred Stock," respectively. The total number of shares of Class A Common Stock authorized to be issued is 890,000 and each such share shall have a par value of one cent ($.01). The total number of shares of Class B Common Stock authorized to be issued is 10,000 and each such shares shall have a par value of one cent ($.01). The total number of shares of Preferred Stock authorized to be issued is 100,000 and each such share shall have a par value of one dollar ($1.00).

(b) Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

(i) Rights and Privileges Generally; Voting. The shares of class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock shall be identical in all respects and shall have equal rights and privileges, except as to voting rights. Each holder of shares of Class A Common Stock shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each share thereof held, upon each matter submitted to a vote of the stockholders of the Corporation. Each holder of shares of Class B common Stock shall be entitled to no votes for each share thereof held, except as otherwise provided by the Delaware General Corporation Law or any other applicable statute. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the holders of shares of Class B Common Stock shall have no right to nominate any person to the board of directors of the Corporation, but shall be entitled to notification as to any meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation and may attend such meetings.

(ii) Conversion of Class B Common Stock. In the event the holder of any shares of the Class B Common Stock is a person other than (A) Internationale Nederlanden (U.S.) Capital Corporation ("ING"), (B) a financial institution that is or becomes a party to a credit or loan agreement with the Corporation (a "Lender") or (C) an "affiliate" on ING or a Lender, such holder shall have the right to convert at such holder's option all or any number of such shares of Class B Common Stock into an equal number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of Class A Common Stock; provided such conversion ratio shall be appropriately adjusted so as to avoid any dilution in the relative rights of the Class B Common Stock to the Class A Common Stock in the event of any subdivision (by stock split or otherwise), combination (by reverse stock split or otherwise) or reclassification of the Class A Common Stock.

As used herein, the term "affiliate" of any person or entity means any other person or entity directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under direct or indirect common control with such person or entity, any member of the immediate family of such person or any person who is the executor, administrator or other personal representative of such person.

The holder of any shares of Class B Common Stock may exercise the conversion right provided herein by giving written notice (the "Class B Conversion Notice") to the Corporation stating the number of shares of Class B Common Stock to be converted (the "Class B Conversion Shares") and the name or names in which the stock certificate or stock certificates for the shares of Class A Common Stock are to be delivered. The Class B Conversion Notice shall be accompanied by the stock certificate or stock certificates representing the Class B Conversion Shares, duly endorsed to the Corporation or accompanied by a written instrument of transfer.

Conversion of the Class B Common Stock into Class A Common Stock shall be deemed to have been effected on the date the Class B Conversion Notice is delivered to the Corporation. Within ten business days after receipt of the Class B Conversion Notice, the Corporation shall issue and deliver by hand against a signed receipt therefor or by United States registered mail, return receipt requested, to the address designated by the holder of the Class B Conversion Shares in the Class B Conversion Notice, a stock certificate or stock certificates of the Corporation representing the number of shares of Class A Common Stock to which such holder is entitled. In the event that only a portion of the number of shares of Class B Common Stock represented by a stock certificate surrendered for conversion shall be Class B Conversion Shares, the Corporation shall issue and deliver in the manner aforesaid to the holder of the stock certificate so surrendered for conversion a new stock certificate for the number of unconverted shares of class B Common Stock.

(c) Preferred Stock. The Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time in one or more series. The Board of Directors is hereby authorized, by filing a certificate pursuant to the applicable law of the State of Delaware, to establish from time to time the number of shares to be included in each such series, and to fix the designation, powers, preferences and rights of the shares of each such series and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, including but not limited to the fixing or alteration of the dividend rights, dividend rate, conversion rights, voting rights, rights and terms of redemption (including sinking fund provisions), the redemption price or prices, and the liquidation preferences of any wholly unissued series of shares of Preferred Stock, or any of them; and to increase or decrease the number of shares of any series subsequent to the issue of the shares of that series, but not below the number of shares of such series then outstanding. In case the number of shares of any series shall be so decreased, the shares constituting such decrease shall resume the status which they had prior to the adoption of the resolution originally fixing the number of shares of such series.

FIFTH: A director of this corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for the breach of any fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (a) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) under section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or (d) for any transaction from which the director personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which he was not legally entitled.

SIXTH: The Corporation shall indemnify each officer or director of the Corporation and the legal representatives thereof, including but not limited the heirs, executors and administrators thereof, who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action, suit, or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) (hereinafter, "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she or a person for whom he or she is the legal representative is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent, of another corporation, or any partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against expenses (including attorneys' fees) judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such proceeding; provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. Such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer, and shall inure to the benefit of his or her legal representatives. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except as provided in this Article, the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that, if the General Corporation Law requires that the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer in his or her capacity as a director or officer of the Corporation (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such person while a director or officer, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding may be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article or otherwise, then such advancement of expenses shall be subject to the receipt of such undertaking. The right to indemnification pursuant to this Article is intended to be retroactive and shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be available with respect to events occurring prior to the adoption hereof and shall continue to exist after any future rescission or restrictive modification hereof with respect to any alleged cause of action that accrues, or any other incident or matter that occurs, prior to such rescission or modification. The indemnification provided for in this Certificate of Incorporation shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

SEVENTH: Unless, and except to the extent that, the by-laws of the Corporation shall so require, the election of directors of the corporation need not be by written ballot.

EIGHTH: The board of directors may from time to time adopt, amend or repeal the by-laws of the Corporation, subject to the power of the stockholders to adopt any by-laws or to amend or repeal any by-laws adopted, amended or repealed by the board of directors.

NINTH: Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the Corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the Corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the Corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of §291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of §279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the Corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the Corporation, as the case may be, and also on the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed this Restated Certificate of Incorporation of American Disposal Services, Inc., and acknowledge, under penalties of perjury, that this instrument is the act and deed of the Corporation and that the facts stated herein are true.

New York, New York 10036

SIXTH: The corporation is to have perpetual existence.

SEVENTH: Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the corporation under the provisions of §291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the corporation under the provisions of §279 of Title 8 of the Delaware code order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the corporation, as the case may be, and also on the corporation.

EIGHTH: A director of this corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for the breach of any fiduciary duty as a director, except in the case of (a) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) under section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or (d) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. Any repeal or modification of this Article by the stockholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

NINTH: The corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, as the same is now or may hereafter be in effect, indemnify each person (including the heirs, executors, administrators and other personal representatives of such person) against expenses including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed suit, action or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative in nature or otherwise) in which such person may be involved by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving any other incorporated or unincorporated enterprise in such capacity at the request of the corporation.

TENTH: Unless, and except to the extent that, the by-laws of the corporation shall so require, the election of directors of the corporation need not be by written ballot.

ELEVENTH: The corporation hereby confers the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws of the corporation upon the directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 7th day of November, 1995.

AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS
OF
AMERICAN DISPOSAL SERVICES, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, of ten percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as may be allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III
DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as may be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI
NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

OF
AMERICAN DISPOSAL TRANSFER SERVICES OF ILLINOIS, INC.

The undersigned incorporator, in order to form a corporation under the General Corporation Law of Delaware, certifies as follows:

FIRST: The name of the corporation is:

“American Disposal Transfer Services of Illinois, Inc.”

SECOND: The registered office of the corporation is to be located at 1013 Centre Road, Wilmington, Delaware, 19805-1297, New Castle County. The name of its registered agent at that address is Corporation Service Company

THIRD: The purpose of the corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

FOURTH: The corporation shall have the authority to issue 1,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share.

FIFTH: The name and mailing address of the incorporator are as follows:

Stephen W. Rubin, Esq.
c/o Proskauer Rose LLP
1585 Broadway
New York, NY 10036

SIXTH: Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the corporation under the provisions of §291 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the corporation under the provisions of §279 of Title 8 of the Delaware Code order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as the said court directs. If a majority in number representing three fourths in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the stockholders or class of stockholders of the corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of the corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the said compromise or arrangement and the said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the court to which the said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the corporation, as the case may be, and also on the corporation.

SEVENTH: A director of this corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for the breach of any fiduciary duty as a director, except in the case of (a) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) under section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or (d) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. Any repeal or modification of this Article by the stockholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

EIGHTH: The corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, as the same is now or may hereafter be in effect, indemnify each person (including the heirs, executors, administrators and other personal representatives of such person) against expenses including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed suit, action or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative in nature or otherwise) in which such person may be involved by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving any other incorporated or unincorporated enterprise in such capacity at the request of the corporation.

NINTH: Unless, and except to the extent that, the by-laws of the corporation shall so require, the election of directors of the corporation need not be by written ballot.

TENTH: The corporation hereby confers the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws of the corporation upon the directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 2nd day of February, 1998.

/s/ Stephen W. Rubin

Sole Incorporator

OF
AMERICAN DISPOSAL TRANSFER SERVICES OF ILLINOIS, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle, State of Delaware.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, either within or outside of the State of Delaware, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, of ten percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after three years from its date, unless such proxy provides for a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors shall appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed with or without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all the then issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the State of Delaware. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any three (3) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram on twenty-four (24) hours' notice, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Vice President of the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there is any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by him in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI
NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its organization and the words "Corporate Seal, Delaware". The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Delaware for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stock holders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Athena Amaxas, Incorporator

OF
AMERICAN MATERIALS RECYCLING CORP.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, often percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as may be allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III
DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as maybe determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V

STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI
NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, often percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as may be allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III
DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as may be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V
STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI

NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director, member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS
OF
AMERICAN TRANSFER COMPANY, INC.
(hereinafter called the "Corporation")

ARTICLE I
OFFICES

Section 1. Registered Office. The registered office of the Corporation shall be at such location as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

Section 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the state of incorporation, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE II
MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the stockholders for the election of directors or for any other purpose shall be held at such time and place, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The Annual Meetings of Stockholders shall be held on such date and at such time as shall be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors and stated in the notice of the meeting, at which meetings the stockholders shall elect Directors in accordance with Section 1 of Article III of these Bylaws, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. Written notice of the Annual Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, Special Meetings of Stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, if there is one, the President, the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board of Directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Board of Directors for adoption) or by the owner or owners, at the time of such call for a Special Meeting, often percent (10%), or more, of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. Written notice of a Special Meeting stating the place, date and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be given not less than ten (10) (unless a longer period is required by law) nor more than sixty (60) days (unless a longer period is required by law) before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. Business transacted at all Special Meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days (or any shorter period required by law), or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5. Voting. Unless otherwise required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, (i) any question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock represented and entitled to vote thereat, and (ii) each stockholder represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the capital stock entitled to vote thereat held by such stockholder. Such votes may be cast in person or by proxy but no proxy shall be voted on or after eleven (11) months from its date, unless such proxy provides for and, applicable state law allows for, a longer period. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, or the officer of the Corporation presiding at a meeting of stockholders, in his discretion, may require that any votes cast at such meeting shall be cast by written ballot.

Section 6. List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The officer of the Corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days (or any longer period required by law) prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder of the Corporation who is present.

Section 7. Stock Ledger. The stock ledger of the Corporation shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list required by Section 6 of this Article II or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

Section 8. Election Inspectors. Prior to any meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors may appoint one (1) or more inspectors who shall ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each; determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots; count all votes and ballots; determine and retain for a reasonable time period a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors; certify the determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and the count of all votes and ballots; and perform such other duties and actions as may be requested by the Board of Directors or required by law. No such election inspector need be a stockholder of the Corporation.

Section 9. Organization and Conduct of Meetings. Each meeting of the stockholders shall be called to order and thereafter chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if there is one; or, if not, or if the Chairman of the Board is absent or so requests, then by the President; or if the Chairman of the Board and the President are unavailable, such other officer of the Corporation or such stockholder as may be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's Secretary shall act as secretary of each meeting of the stockholders; in the Secretary's absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a stockholder or not) to act as secretary for the meeting. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, and subject to any state law restrictions or requirements, the chairman of a meeting shall, among other things, have absolute authority to fix the period of time allowed for the registration of stockholders and the filing of proxies, to determine the order of business to be conducted at such meeting and to establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal, or question and answer portions thereof).

Section 10. Action by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation may be effected either at an Annual or Special Meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation or by unanimous written consent of the stockholders (or such lesser percentage of stockholders as maybe allowed by state law).

ARTICLE III
DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number and Election of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors, who shall serve one-year terms, consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than nine (9) directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office. A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Directors of the Corporation may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, subject only to limitation provided by law.

Section 2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office, provided that a quorum is present, and any other vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Section 3. Duties and Powers. The business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 4. Meetings. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either outside of or within the state of incorporation. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, if there is one, the President or any two (2) directors. Notice thereof stating the place, date and hour of the meeting shall be given to each director either by mail not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the date of the meeting, by telephone, electronic facsimile or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours' before the date of the meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, at all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 6. Actions of Board. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all the members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee.

Section 7. Meetings by Means of Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time or limited by applicable state law, members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or any committee designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 7 of this Article III shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 8. Committees. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one (1) or more committees, each committee to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the members of any such committee, to fill vacancies and to discharge any such committee.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors shall be reimbursed by the Corporation for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, and shall receive such other compensation as maybe determined by the Board of Directors from time to time by majority vote.

Section 10. Interested Directors. Unless otherwise permitted in applicable state law, no contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose if (i) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee, in good faith, authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or (ii) the material facts as to his or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the stockholders. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IV
OFFICERS

Section 1. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors and shall, at a minimum, include a President and a Secretary. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may also choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors (who must be a director), a Treasurer, an Executive Vice President and one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers and other officers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders of the Corporation nor, except in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, need such officers be directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Election and Compensation. The Board of Directors, at its first meeting held after each Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shall elect the officers of the Corporation, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors; and all officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The salaries and any bonuses or other compensation of all officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that such officer is also a director of the Corporation.

Section 3. Voting Securities Owned by the Corporation. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Corporation may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation by the President or any Vice President, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Corporation may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Corporation might have exercised and possessed if present. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 4. Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is one, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors. Except where by law the signature of the President is required, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall possess the same power as the President to sign all contracts, certificates and other instruments of the Corporation which may be authorized by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws or by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. President. The President shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision of the business of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. The President shall execute all bonds, mortgages, contracts and other instruments of the Corporation requiring a seal, under the seal of the Corporation, except where required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except that the other officers of the Corporation may sign and execute documents when so authorized by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President. The President shall also perform such other duties and may exercise such other powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Presidents. At the request of the President or in his absence or in the event of his inability or refusal to act (and if there be no Chairman of the Board of Directors), the Executive Vice President, or if there is no Executive Vice President, the Vice President or the Vice Presidents if there are more than one (in the order designated by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. Each Vice President shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors from time to time may prescribe. If there is no Chairman of the Board of Directors and no Vice President, the Board of Directors shall designate the officer of the Corporation who, in the absence of the President or in the event of the inability or refusal of the President to act, shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President.

Section 7. Secretary. The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and all meetings of stockholders and record all the proceedings thereat in a book or books to be kept for that purpose; the Secretary shall also perform like duties for the standing committees when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or President, under whose supervision he shall be. If the Secretary shall be unable or shall refuse to cause to be given notice of all meetings of the stockholders and special meetings of the Board of Directors, and if there is no Assistant Secretary, then either the Board of Directors or the President may choose another officer to cause such notice to be given. The Secretary shall have custody of the seal of the Corporation and the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary, if there is one, shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it and when so affixed, it may be attested by the signature of the Secretary or by the signature of any such Assistant Secretary. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by his signature. The Secretary shall see that all books, reports, statements, certificates and other documents and records required by law to be kept or filed are properly kept or filed, as the case may be.

Section 8. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation and shall deposit all moneys and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall disburse the funds of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and the Board of Directors, at its regular meetings, or, from time to time, when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 9. Assistant Secretaries. Except as may be otherwise provided in these Bylaws, Assistant Secretaries, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Secretary, and in the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary.

Section 10. Assistant Treasurers. Assistant Treasurers, if there are any, shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, any Vice President, if there are any appointed, or the Treasurer, and in the absence of the Treasurer or in the event of his disability or refusal to act, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, an Assistant Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sum and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the Corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever land in his possession or under his control belonging to the Corporation.

Section 11. Other Officers. Such other officers as the Board of Directors may choose shall perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any other officer of the Corporation the power to choose such other officers and to prescribe their respective duties and powers.

ARTICLE V

STOCK

Section 1. Form of Certificates. Every holder of stock in the Corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate signed, in the name of the Corporation (i) by the President or any Vice President and (ii) by the Secretary or Treasurer of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by the holder in the Corporation.

Section 2. Signatures. Where a certificate is countersigned by (i) a transfer agent other than the Corporation or its employee, or (ii) a registrar other than the Corporation or its employee, any other signature on the certificate may be a facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

Section 3. Lost Certificates. The President or Secretary may direct a new certificate to be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors shall require and/or to give the Corporation a bond in such sum as it may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against the Corporation with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 4. Transfers. Stock of the Corporation shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by law and in these Bylaws. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the Corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by his attorney lawfully constituted in writing and upon the surrender of the certificate therefor, which shall be canceled before a new certificate shall be issued.

Section 5. Record Date. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action (unless a greater or lesser period is required by applicable state law). A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 6. Beneficial Owners. The Corporation shall be entitled to recognize the exclusive right of a person registered on its books as the owner of shares to receive dividends, and to vote as such owner, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law.

ARTICLE VI
NOTICES

Section 1. Notices. Whenever written notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, such notice may be given by mail, addressed to such director; member of a committee or stockholder, at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail. Unless otherwise limited by applicable state law, written notice may also be given personally or by electronic facsimile, telegram, telex or cable.

Section 2. Waivers of Notice. Whenever any notice is required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, as the same may be amended from time to time, to be given to any director, member of a committee or stockholder, a waiver thereof in writing, signed, by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE VII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Dividends. Dividends upon the capital stock of the Corporation, subject to the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation, as the same maybe amended from time to time, if any, may be declared by a decision of a majority of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting, and may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation. Before payment of any dividend, there may be set aside out of any funds of the Corporation available for dividends such sum or sums as the Board of Directors from time to time, in its absolute discretion, deems proper as a reserve or reserves to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the Corporation, or for any proper purpose, and the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, may modify or abolish any such reserve.

Section 2. Disbursements. All checks or demands for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a seal of the Corporation, which shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, and the state and year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 5. Gender. All words used in any gender in these Bylaws shall extend to and include all genders.

ARTICLE VIII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings other Than Those by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (a) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, (b) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 2. Power to Indemnify in Actions, Suits or Proceedings by or in the Right of the Corporation. Subject to Section 3 of this Article VIII, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Authorization of Indemnification. Any indemnification under this Article VIII (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (i) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) by the stockholders. To the extent, however, that a director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding described above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, without the necessity of authorization in the specific case.

Section 4. Good Faith Defined. For purposes of any determination under Section 3 of this Article VIII, a person shall be deemed to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, if his action is based on the records or books of account of the Corporation or another enterprise, or on information supplied to him by the officers of the Corporation or another enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Corporation or another enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Corporation or another enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser or other expert selected with reasonable care by the Corporation or another enterprise. The term "another enterprise" as used in this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall mean any other corporation or any partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise of which such person is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent. The provisions of this Section 4 of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to be exclusive or to limit in any way the circumstances in which a person may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be.

Section 5. Indemnification by a Court. Notwithstanding any contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII, and notwithstanding the absence of any determination thereunder, any director or officer may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of incorporation for indemnification to the extent otherwise permissible under Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII. The basis of such indemnification by a court shall be a determination by such court that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII, as the case may be. Neither a contrary determination in the specific case under Section 3 of this Article VIII nor the absence of any determination thereunder shall be a defense to such application or create a presumption that the director or officer seeking indemnification has not met any applicable standard of conduct. Notice of any application for indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 of this Article VIII shall be given to the Corporation promptly upon the filing of such application. If successful, in whole or in part, the director or officer seeking indemnification shall also be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such application.

Section 6. Expenses Payable in Advance. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article VIII.

Section 7. Nonexclusivity of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article VIII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, contract, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or pursuant to the direction (howsoever embodied) of any court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, it being the policy of the Corporation that indemnification of the persons specified in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article VIII shall be made to the fullest extent permitted by law. The provisions of this Article VIII shall not be deemed to preclude the indemnification of any person who is not specified in Section 1 or Section 2 of this Article VIII but whom the Corporation has the power or obligation to indemnify under the provisions of the applicable state law of the state of incorporation, or otherwise.

Section 8. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power or the obligation to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article VIII.

Section 9. Survival of Indemnification and Advancement of Expenses. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article VIII shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 10. Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article VIII to the contrary, except for proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification (which shall be governed by Section 5 of this Article VIII), the Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any director or officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized or consented to by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 11. Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article VIII to directors and officers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, or as otherwise provided in applicable state law, these Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws be contained in the notice of such meeting of stockholders or Board of Directors, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire Board of Directors then in office.

Section 2. Reference to Articles. Any reference herein made to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation shall be deemed to refer to its articles or certificate of incorporation and all and any amendments thereto as of any given time on file with the applicable state office of agency (or any successor thereto).

Section 3. Seniority. The Certificate of Incorporation and applicable state law shall in all respects be considered senior and superior to these bylaws, with any inconsistency to be resolved in favor of the Certificate or applicable state law, as the case may be, and the Bylaws shall be deemed to be amended automatically from time to time to eliminate any such inconsistencies which may then exist.

CERTIFICATE OF FORMATION
ANSON COUNTY LANDFILL NC, LLC

Pursuant to § 18-201, Delaware Code Annotated, the undersigned states as follows:

1. Name. The name of the limited liability company (the "Company") formed by this instrument is "Anson County Landfill NC, LLC".
2. Registered Office; Registered Agent. The address of the registered office of the Company in Delaware is Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, County of New Castle. The Company's registered agent at that address is The Corporation Trust Company.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, an authorized person of the Company, has caused this Certificate of Formation to be duly executed as of the 4th day of June, 1997.

Allied Waste North America, Inc.,
a Delaware corporation,
Member

By: /s/ Steven M. Helm
Its: Vice President — Legal

OPERATING AGREEMENT OF
ANSON COUNTY LANDFILL NC, LLC

This Operating Agreement is entered into as of June 5, 1997 by and between Allied Waste North America, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“N.A.”) and Allied Waste Landfill Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Holdings”), each individually referred to herein as a “Member,” and collectively as “Members.”

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS; THE COMPANY

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized words and phrases used in this Agreement shall have the meanings set forth in Section 9.12 hereof.

1.2 Formation. The parties hereby form the Company as a limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of the Act and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation.

1.3 Name. The name of the Company is ANSON COUNTY LANDFILL NC, LLC. The name of the Company may be changed upon the consent of the Members.

1.4 Purpose. The purpose of the Company is primarily to engage in and conduct the business of owning and operating landfills, and to engage in any other activity permitted under Delaware law and the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Company may do business.

1.5 Intent. It is the intent of the Members that the Company shall always be operated in a manner consistent with its treatment as a “partnership” for federal and state income tax purposes. It also is the intent of the Members that the Company not be operated or treated as a “partnership” for purposes of Section 303 of the federal Bankruptcy Code. No Member shall take any action inconsistent with the express intent of the parties hereto.

1.6 Office. The registered office of the Company within the State of Delaware shall be Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, County of New Castle. The registered office may be changed to any other place within the State of Delaware upon the consent of the Members. The Company may maintain a registered office in any state within which it does business at any location approved by the Members.

1.7 Registered Agent for Service of Process. The name and address of the registered agent for service of legal process on the Company in Delaware are The Corporation Trust Company, Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware. The Company’s agent for service of legal process may be changed upon the consent of the Members.

1.8 Term. The term of the Company shall commence on the date the Certification of Formation is filed in Delaware, and shall continue in perpetuity until the Company is dissolved as set forth in this Agreement.

1.9 Certificate of Formation. The Members shall cause a Certificate of Formation to be filed in the State of Delaware. The Members shall file any amendments to the Certificate of Formation deemed necessary by them to reflect amendments to this Agreement adopted by the Members in accordance with the terms hereof. Upon the approval of the Certificate of Formation, or any amendments thereto, by the Members in accordance with this Agreement, any Member or a designee of a Member shall be authorized to execute and file such instruments with the appropriate state agencies.

SECTION 2. MEMBERS; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; LOANS

2.1 Members. The name, address and Percentage Interest of each Member are set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement.

2.2 Contributions of Members. The Members shall contribute to the Company the cash or other assets set forth in Exhibit A to this Agreement. In conjunction with such contributions, each Member shall receive a credit to its Capital Account equal to its Capital Contribution and a Percentage Interest in the Company as set forth on Exhibit A.

2.3 Additional Capital Contributions. No Member shall be obligated to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company, except upon the unanimous written consent of the Members.

2.4 Limitations Pertaining to Capital Contributions.

(a) Return of Capital. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, no Member shall withdraw any Capital Contributions or any money or other property from the Company without the written consent of the other Member. Under circumstances requiring a return of any Capital Contributions, no Member shall have the right to receive property other than cash, unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing by the Members at the time of such distribution.

(b) Liability of Members. No Member shall be liable for the debts, liabilities, contracts or any other obligations of the Company. Except as agreed upon by the Members, and except as otherwise provided by the Act or by any other applicable state law, the Members shall be liable only to make their Capital Contributions as provided in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 hereof and shall not be required to make any other Capital Contributions or loans to the Company. No Member shall have any personal liability for the repayment of the Capital Contributions or loans of any other Member.

(c) No Third Party Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or will be deemed to benefit any creditor of the Company, and no creditor of the Company will be entitled to require any Member to solicit or demand Capital Contributions from any other Member.

(d) Withdrawal. Except as provided in Section 7 hereof, no Member may voluntarily or involuntarily withdraw from the Company or terminate its interest therein without the prior written consent of the other Member. Any Member who withdraws from the Company in breach of this Section 2.4(d):

(i) shall be treated as an assignee of a Member's interest, as provided in the Act;

(ii) shall have no right to participate in the business and affairs of the Company or to exercise any rights of a Member under this Agreement or the Act; and

(iii) shall continue to share in distributions and allocations from the Company, on the same basis as if the Member had not withdrawn, provided that any damages to the Company as a result of such withdrawal shall be offset against amounts that would otherwise be distributed to such Member. The right to share in distributions granted under this Section 2.4(d) shall be in lieu of any right the withdrawn member may have under Section 18-604 of the Act to receive a distribution or payment of the fair value of its interest in the Company.

2.5 Member Loans. Upon the approval of the Members, any Member may make loans ("Member Loans") to the Company, which shall bear interest and be repaid on such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the Members. No Member shall be required to make a Member Loan unless such Member has agreed to make such Member Loan.

SECTION 3. DISTRIBUTIONS

Except as otherwise provided in Section 8 hereof, Net Cash Flow, if any, shall be distributed to the Members in proportion to their Percentage Interests, at such times as may be determined by the Members.

SECTION 4. ALLOCATIONS

4.1 Capital Accounts. A capital account shall be maintained for each Member in accordance with the Regulations, under uniform policies established by the Members.

4.2 Profits and Losses. Unless otherwise required by Code Sections 704(b), 704(c) or Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, all Profits, Losses and items thereof for each fiscal year of the Partnership shall be allocated to the Partners in proportion to their Percentage Interests.

SECTION 5. MANAGEMENT

5.1 General Management Structure. Unless specifically provided otherwise herein, all decisions and actions concerning the Company and its affairs, and all matters requiring the consent or approval of the Members under this Agreement, shall be made or taken upon concurrence of a Majority in Interest of the Members. The Members shall devote such time and effort as is necessary for the management of the Company and the conduct of its business, but shall not be required to devote their full time efforts to the Company. Any party dealing with the Company shall be permitted to rely absolutely on the signature of any Member as binding on the Company, without any duty of further inquiry regarding any approval of the Members required under this Agreement.

5.2 Delegation of Authority to Officers. The Members may designate one or more Persons as officers of the Company. The officers shall have the authority to act for and bind the Company to the extent of the authority granted to them in resolutions duly adopted by the Members on behalf of the Company. The officers of the Company may include a president, vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the Members deem appropriate. The officers of the Company will be entitled to such compensation for their services as the Members may reasonably determine from time to time.

5.3 Communications. The Members shall promptly advise and inform each other of any transaction, notice, event or proposal directly relating to the management and operation of the Company or to its assets which does or could materially affect, either adversely or favorably, the Company, its business or its assets.

5.4 Indemnification. The Company, its receiver or its trustee shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Members and their officers and directors (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses, claims, costs, liabilities and damages incurred by them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed by them in connection with the business of the Company, including attorneys' fees incurred by them in connection with the defense of any action based on any such act or omission; provided, however, no Indemnified Party shall be indemnified from any liability for fraud, bad faith, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

SECTION 6. BOOKS AND RECORDS

6.1 Books and Records. The Company shall maintain and preserve at its office all accounts, books and other relevant Company documents. Each Member shall have the right, during ordinary business hours, to inspect and copy such Company documents.

6.2 Tax Matters. N.A. is hereby appointed on behalf of the Company as the "tax matters partner" under the Code.

SECTION 7. TRANSFER OF COMPANY INTERESTS; NEW MEMBERS

7.1 General. No Member shall sell, assign, pledge, hypothecate, encumber or otherwise voluntarily transfer by any means whatever ("Transfer") all or any portion of its interest in the Company without the consent of the other Member. A transferee of a Member's interest in the Company will be admitted as a Substituted Member only pursuant to Section 7.3 hereof. Any purported Transfer which does not comply with the provisions of this Section 7 shall be void and shall not cause or constitute a dissolution of the Company.

7.2 Assignee of Member's Interest. If, pursuant to a Transfer of an interest in the Company by operation of law and without violation of Section 7.1 hereof (or pursuant to a Transfer that the Company is required to recognize notwithstanding any contrary provisions of this Agreement), a Person acquires an interest in the Company, but is not admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to Section 7.3 hereof, such Person:

- (a) shall be treated as an assignee of a Member's interest, as provided in the Act;
- (b) shall have no right to participate in the business and affairs of the Company or to exercise any rights of a Member under this Agreement or the Act; and
- (c) shall share in distributions and allocations from the Company with respect to the transferred interest, on the same basis as the transferring Member.

7.3 Substituted Members. No Person taking or acquiring, by whatever means, the interest of any Member in the Company shall be admitted as a substituted Member in the Company (a "Substituted Member") without the written consent of all Members, which consent may be withheld or granted in the sole and absolute discretion of each Member.

SECTION 8. DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

8.1 Dissolution. The Company shall dissolve upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

- (a) The sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets and the collection of the proceeds of such sale;
 - (b) The unanimous election by the Members to dissolve the Company;
 - (c) The death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of any member (a "Dissolution Event") if within 90 days after the occurrence of any such Dissolution Event, a Majority in Interest of the remaining Members affirmatively elects not to continue the Company; or
 - (d) The entry of a decree of dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act.

8.2 Winding Up.

(a) General. Following the dissolution of the Company, as provided in Section 8.1 hereof, the remaining Member(s) may participate in the winding up of the Company as provided in Section 18-803 of the Act. The Company shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up of its business, but the Company's separate existence shall continue until a certificate of cancellation has been filed with the Delaware Secretary of State or until a decree dissolving the Company has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Liquidation and Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the remaining Member(s), or court-appointed trustee, if there are no remaining Members, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and assets, and such assets shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof. During the period of liquidation, the business and affairs of the Company shall continue to be governed by the provisions of this Agreement, with the management of the Company continuing as provided in Section 5 hereof. The proceeds from liquidation of the Company's property, to the extent sufficient therefor, shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (i) To the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities, including those to Members who are creditors, to the extent permitted by law, and the establishment of any necessary reserves;
- (ii) To the Members in satisfaction of any Member Loans which have not been satisfied pursuant to Section 8.2(b)(i); and
- (iii) To the Members in accordance with Section 3.

Notwithstanding anything in Section 4 hereof to the contrary, any Profits, Losses and items thereof of the Company for the taxable year in which the liquidation of the Company occurs shall be allocated among the Members so as to adjust the Capital Accounts of the Members as closely as possible to distributions of such liquidation proceeds pursuant to the priorities set forth in this Section 8.

8.3 Certificate of Cancellation. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefor and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Members, a certificate of cancellation shall be executed and filed by the Members with the Delaware Secretary of State.

SECTION 9. MISCELLANEOUS

9.1 Notices. Any notice, payment, demand or communication required or permitted to be given by any provision of this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally to the Person to whom the same is directed, or sent by facsimile transmission, or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed as follows: if to the Company, to the Company at the address set forth in Section 1.6 hereof, or to such other address as the Company may from time to time specify by notice to the Members in accordance with this Section 9.1, or, if to a Member, to such Member at the address for such Member set forth on Exhibit A to this Agreement, or to such other address as the Member may from time to time specify by notice to the Company and the other Members in accordance with this Section 9.1. Any such notice shall be effective upon actual receipt thereof.

9.2 Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Members and their respective heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors, transferees and assigns; provided that this Section 9.2 shall not be deemed (a) to authorize any Transfer not otherwise permitted under this Agreement, (b) to confer upon the assignee of a Member's interest any rights not specifically granted under this Agreement, or (c) to supersede or modify in any manner any provision of Section 7 hereof.

9.3 Construction. Every covenant, term and provision of this Agreement shall be construed simply according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any Member.

9.4 Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to describe, interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

9.5 Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement.

9.6 Additional Documents. Each Member, upon the request of the other Member, agrees to perform all further acts and execute, acknowledge and deliver any documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

9.7 Variation of Pronouns. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the Person or Persons may require.

9.8 Delaware Law. The laws of the State of Delaware shall govern the validity of this Agreement, the construction of its terms and the interpretation of the rights and duties of the Members.

9.9 Waiver of Action for Partition. Each of the Members waives any right that it may have to maintain any action for partition with respect to any of the Company's property.

9.10 Counterpart Execution. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all of the Members had signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute one agreement.

9.11 Sole and Absolute Discretion. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all actions which any Member may take and all determinations which any Member may make pursuant to this Agreement may be taken and made at the sole and absolute discretion of such Member.

9.12 Glossary. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings specified in this Section:

“Act” means the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, as set forth in Del. Code Ann. Tit. 6, § 18-101, et. seq., as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Agreement” means this Operating Agreement, as amended from time to time. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto” and “hereunder,” refer to this Agreement as a whole, unless the context otherwise requires.

“Capital Account” means the capital account maintained for each Member in accordance with Section 4.1 hereof.

“Capital Contribution” means, with respect to any Member, the amount of money and the net fair market value of property (other than money) contributed to the Company by such Member.

“Certificate of Formation” has the meaning given that term in Section 1.9 hereof.

“Code” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law).

“Company” means the limited liability company formed pursuant to this Agreement and any limited liability company continuing the business of this Company in the event of dissolution as herein provided.

“Majority in Interest of the Members” means Members owning a simple majority of the Percentage Interests in the Company held by all Members.

“Member” means any Person identified as a Member in the heading to this Agreement. BYLAWS OF APACHE JUNCTION LANDFILL CORPORATION

Offices

Section 1.1 The principal office of the Corporation shall be, until changed by the Board of Directors, at P.O. Box 4710, 3690 South Cactus, Apache Junction, Arizona 85260. The Corporation may also have offices and branch offices at such other places within and without the State of Arizona as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE 2

Shareholders Meetings

Section 2.1 Place. Except as hereinafter provided, any annual or special meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such place within or without the State of Arizona as may be selected by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors fails to designate a place for the meeting to be held, then the same shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation. Special meetings called for the purpose of removing directors shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Arizona or in the city or county in the State of Arizona in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located.

Section 2.2 Date of Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the 30th day in the month of December in each year at such time as may be specified in the notice of meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a holiday, such annual meeting shall be held on the next business day.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.4 Notice of Shareholders' Meetings, Annual or Special. Written or printed notice of each meeting of shareholders shall be delivered or given either personally or by mail to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Any notice of a shareholders' meeting given by mail shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid and addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation.

Section 2.5 Persons Authorized to Give Notice. Notice of an annual meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation shall be given or delivered by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors.

Section 2.6 Written Waiver of Notice. Any notice required by these Bylaws may be waived by any person entitled thereto signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 2.7 Waiver of Attendance. Attendance of a shareholder at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a shareholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 2.8 Quorum. A majority of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at any meeting, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. Every decision of a majority of such quorum shall be valid as a corporate act unless a larger vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or by law. If the holders of the number of shares necessary to constitute a quorum shall fail to attend in person or by proxy, a majority in interest of the shareholders present in person or by proxy shall have the right successively to adjourn the meeting to a specified date not longer than ninety (90) days after such adjournment. No notice need be given of such adjournment to shareholders not present at the meeting.

Section 2.9 Persons Authorized to Convene Meetings. Every meeting shall be convened by the President, the Secretary or some other officer or other person designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.10 Shareholder Action Without Meeting. Any action required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws to be taken at a meeting of shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the shareholders at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meetings of the shareholders.

ARTICLE 3

Voting Procedure

Section 3.1 List of Voters. The officer having charge of the transfer book for shares of the Corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting at least ten (10) days before such meeting. Said list shall be arranged in alphabetical order with the address of and the number of shares held by each shareholder. Said list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to the meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the Corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Said list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at any meeting.

Section 3.2 Inspectors. At any meeting called for the election of directors, if the presiding officer of the Corporation or a majority in number of shares present at such meeting desire, the President or other person presiding at the meeting shall appoint not less than two (2) persons, who are not directors, as inspectors to receive and canvass the votes given at such meeting and certify the result to him. Any inspector, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe the following oath before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear, that I will execute the duties of an inspector of the election now to be held with strict impartiality, and according to the best of my ability."

Section 3.3 Record Date/Close of Transfer Books. The Board of Directors shall have the power to close the stock transfer books of the Corporation for a period not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or, in lieu thereof, to fix in advance a date not exceeding seventy (70) days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting. If the Board of Directors shall not have closed the transfer books or fixed a record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, a meeting of shareholders, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the close of business of the 20th day preceding the date of the meeting shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting; except that if, prior to the meeting, written waivers of notice of the meeting are signed and delivered to the Corporation by all of the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened, only the shareholders who are shareholders of record at the time the meeting is convened shall be entitled to vote at the meeting, and any adjournment of the meeting.

Votes

Section 4.1 Eligible Votes. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share entitled to vote under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall be entitled to one vote (or a fractional vote for each fractional share) on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders. No cumulative voting shall be permitted with respect to the election of directors or any other matter.

Section 4.2 Proxies. A shareholder may vote, with respect to any matter, including but not limited to the election of directors, which may come before a meeting of shareholders, either in person, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by applicable law, by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only so long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power of attorney. The interest with which it is coupled need not be an interest in the shares themselves. In any case in which application law requires, as a condition to the validity of a proxy, that it provide that it is revocable, a proxy which does not provide that it is revocable shall be wholly invalid, and not valid but revocable.

Section 4.3 Corporate Shareholders. Shares of stock of the Corporation standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provisions, as the Board of Directors of such corporation may determine.

Section 4.4 Deceased Shareholders. Shares of stock standing in the name of a deceased person may be voted by his personal representative, either in person or by proxy.

Section 4.5 Conservators and Trustees. Shares standing in the name of a conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) may be voted by such fiduciary, either in person or by proxy, but no conservator or trustee (other than a trustee in bankruptcy) shall be entitled, as such fiduciary, to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Section 4.6 Receivers and Trustees in Bankruptcy. Shares standing in the name of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may be voted by such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do is conferred by applicable law or is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver or trustee in bankruptcy was appointed.

Section 4.7 Pledges. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

ARTICLE 5

Board of Directors

Section 5.1 Management and Number. The property, business and affairs of the Corporation shall be controlled and managed by a Board of Directors consisting of three members, none of whom need be shareholders or residents of any particular state. Unless fixed by the Articles of Incorporation, the number of directors may at any time be increased or decreased by amendment of these Bylaws. Any changes in the number of directors effected by an amendment to these Bylaws shall be reported to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) calendar days following such change.

Section 5.2 Election and Vacancies. Each director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified or until his death, resignation or removal. Vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors to constitute the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, until the next election of directors by the shareholders at an annual meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 5.3 Quorum. A majority of the full Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board, such meeting may be adjourned any number of times, without further notice, by a majority of the directors present.

Section 5.4 Place/Manner of Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that in the event of adjournment of said annual meeting of the Board of Directors the meeting may be reconvened at any place within or without the State of Arizona, as may be designated by the directors adjourning said meeting. All regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation or at such other place within or without the State of Arizona as may be designated by the Board of Directors or the officer calling the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members of the Board of Directors may participate in any regular or special meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in any such meeting by such means shall constitute presence and attendance at such meeting for all purposes.

Section 5.5 Time of Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of the shareholders, except that if a quorum cannot then be assembled, said meeting shall be adjourned until such time as a quorum may be assembled, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the annual meeting of shareholders. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently and at such times as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon call of the Chairman of the Board (if one be elected), the President, or a majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.6 Notice. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director, by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission addressed to him at his usual business address at least five (5) days prior to the meeting in case of notice by mail at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting in case of notice by telegram or facsimile transmission, or by communicating notice to a director directly (and not through a secretary, family member or other person), either orally or in writing at a face-to-face meeting or by telephone, at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting. A notice given by mail, telegram or facsimile transmission shall be deemed given to any director when directed to such director at his address or (in the case of notice by facsimile transmission) facsimile transmission number as it appears in the records of the Corporation and when deposited in the United States Mail, postage prepaid, when delivered to an appropriate telegraph office, charges prepaid, or when the sender's facsimile transmission equipment indicates that transmission has been completed, as the case may be. Neither the business to be transacted nor the purpose of any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 5.7 Waiver. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Notice may also be waived by a director by signing a waiver of notice before or after the time of said meeting. Any waiver of notice by either of the means specified in this Section 5.7 shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of said notice.

Section 5.8 Action by Directors Without Meeting. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors at a meeting duly held. The Secretary shall file such consents with the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.9 Compensation. The compensation of the directors may be set from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, and a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude a director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 5.10 Removal. At a meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose, directors may be removed in the following manner. Such meeting shall be held at the registered office or principal business office of the Corporation in the State of Arizona or in the city or county in the State of Arizona in which the principal business office of the Corporation is located. One or more directors or the entire Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors; provided, however, that if less than the entire Board is to be removed and if the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him in then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors.

Committees

Section 6.1 Executive Committee. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, may designate two or more directors to constitute an Executive Committee, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution and in any subsequent resolution delegating additional authority or revoking any previous delegation of authority, shall have and exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation. The designation of such an Executive Committee and the delegation thereto of authority by the Board of Directors shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by law.

Section 6.2 Other Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors to constitute such other committees not having or exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation, but to deal with, address and study specific subjects or issues and to make reports and recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect thereto, all as specified by the Board.

Section 6.3 Committee Procedure. The majority of all the members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may fix its rules of procedure, determine its action and fix the time and place (whether within or without the State of Arizona) of its meetings and specify what notice thereof, if any, shall be given, unless the Board of Directors shall provide otherwise by resolution. Members of the Executive Committee or any other committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Actions taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, shall have the power to fill vacancies, to appoint one or more directors to serve as alternate members of the Executive Committee or other committees, and, at any time, to abolish the Executive Committee or any other committee or remove any directors therefrom, either with or without cause.

Section 6.4 Action by Unanimous Consent. Any action which is required to be or may be taken at a meeting of the Executive Committee or any other committee of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by all of the directors who are members of said committee. Each such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the committee. Such a consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the members of the committee taken at a meeting thereof.

ARTICLE 7

Officers

Section 7.1 Required and Permitted Officers. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a President, a Secretary and such other officers, including a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, and other assistant officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time elect. If more than one Vice President be elected, the Board may determine the seniority of each of said Vice Presidents. Any two or more offices may be held by the same individual.

Section 7.2 Election and Term. The President and Secretary shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the shareholders and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may elect other officers at any meeting of the Board. Any such other officers shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.3 Removal. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served by such removal, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights of the person so removed under any contract between such person and the corporation, except to the extent provided in any such contract.

Section 7.4 Vacancies. In case any office shall become vacant by reason of death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the directors then in office, although less than a majority of the entire Board of Directors, may, by a majority vote of those voting, choose a successor or successors for the unexpired term.

Section 7.5 Compensation of Officers. The Board of Directors, or such officer as it may designate, may fix the compensation for the officers of the Corporation and may fix the compensation for such other officers and agents as may from time to time be appointed.

Section 7.6 Bond. The Board of Directors, by resolution, may require any and all of the officers to give bond to the Corporation, with sufficient surety or sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and to comply with such other conditions as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 8

Duties of Officers

Section 8.1 Chairman of the Board. If a Chairman of the Board be elected, he shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors at which he may be present. The Board of Directors may delegate such other authority and assign such additional duties to the Chairman of the Board, other than those conferred by law exclusively upon the President, as it may from time to time determine. The Board also may designate the Chairman of the Board as the chief executive officer of the Corporation, with all of the powers otherwise conferred upon the President of the Corporation.

The Board also may provide that the Chairman of the Board shall have the powers of the chief executive officer coextensively with the President, or it may, from time to time, divide the powers, responsibilities, duties and authority of the chief executive officer between the Chairman of the Board and the President.

Section 8.2 The President. Unless the Board otherwise provides, the President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation with such general executive powers and duties of supervision and management as are usually vested in the chief executive officer of a corporation.

He shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect, subject to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers to any other officer or officers of the Corporation.

He shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, at meetings of the Board of Directors.
