PROXY STATEMENT

We furnish this proxy statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for use at our 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, or any postponement or adjournment of the meeting. We will hold the annual meeting at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, May 11, 2004 on the 7th Floor of the AutoNation Tower, 110 S.E. 6th Street, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301.

We mailed this proxy statement, the notice of annual meeting, the proxy card and our annual report to our stockholders on or about April 1, 2004.

Record Date

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 18, 2004 may vote at the annual meeting.

Shares Outstanding and Voting Rights

The only voting stock of our company currently outstanding is our common stock. As of the close of business on March 18, 2004, there were 155,329,770 shares of common stock outstanding. Each share of common stock issued and outstanding is entitled to one vote on each of the matters properly presented at the annual meeting.

Proxy Procedure

Proxies properly executed and returned in a timely manner will be voted at the annual meeting according to the voting instructions noted on the proxies. Proxies without voting instructions will be voted to elect the individuals nominated as directors in this proxy statement, for the proposal set forth in the notice of annual meeting, and in the best judgment of the persons acting under the proxies on other matters presented for a vote. Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power, at any time before it is voted, to revoke it in person at the annual meeting, by written notice to the secretary of our company at the address above, or by delivery to the secretary of our company of a later-dated proxy.

The inspector of elections appointed for the meeting will tabulate the votes cast by proxy or in person at the annual meeting. The inspector will count these votes in determining whether or not a quorum is present. A majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the annual meeting. Abstentions and broker shares, which are shares held in street name, that are voted as to any matter at the meeting will be included in determining the number of shares present or represented at the annual meeting. Broker shares that are not voted on any matter at the annual meeting will not be included in determining the number of shares present or represented at the annual meeting.

Our 401(k) Plan provides that the trustee of the 401(k) Plan shall vote the number of shares of our common stock allocated to a participant's account as instructed by the participant. Courts have held that trustees are required to follow participants' instructions unless they determine that doing so would breach their fiduciary responsibilities under the Employee Retirement Income Security of 1974, as amended. Voting instruction forms are being mailed to all participants in the 401(k) Plan. If a participant also owns shares outside the 401(k) Plan, the participant must return both the proxy card and the voting instruction forms as indicated on those forms.

Voting Requirements

Each director will be elected by the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast by the shares of common stock present at the annual meeting, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on the election of directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of our common stock present at the annual meeting, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote, is required (a) to approve the adjournment of the annual meeting to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes present at the annual meeting, either in person or by proxy, to elect directors and (b) to approve any other matter duly brought to a vote at the annual meeting.

Broker shares that are not voted on a particular proposal at the annual meeting will have no effect on that matter. Abstentions from voting on a particular proposal will have the effect of votes against the particular proposal.

Costs of Solicitation

Our board of directors will solicit proxies by mail. Our directors, officers and a small number of other employees of our company may also solicit proxies personally or by mail, telephone, or otherwise. We will not compensate these persons for their solicitation. We will request brokerage firms, banks, fiduciaries, voting trustees or other nominees to forward the soliciting material to each beneficial owner of stock held of record by them. We have hired The Altman Group, Inc. to coordinate the solicitation of proxies by and through these holders for a fee of approximately $5,000.00 plus expenses. We will bear the entire cost of the solicitation.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The board of directors develops our business strategy, establishes our overall policies and standards, and reviews the performance of management in executing our business strategy and implementing our policies and standards. We keep directors informed of our operations at meetings and through reports and analyses presented to the board of directors and committees of the board. Significant communications between the directors and management also occur apart from meetings of the board of directors and committees of the board.

Corporate Governance, Board Committees and Meetings

The board of directors held five meetings and took two actions by unanimous written consent during 2003. Each incumbent director attended at least 80% of the total number of meetings of the board of directors and the total number of meetings held by all committees of the board on which he served. One director attended our 2003 annual of stockholders.

On July 29, 2003, the board of directors approved Corporate Governance Guidelines for our company. The Corporate Governance Guidelines set forth the role and functions of the board of directors, director qualifications and guidelines with respect to board of director meetings and committees of the board, among other things. The Corporate Governance Guidelines are available to view at our website, www.republicservices.com, and are included herein as Appendix A.

On July 29, 2003, the board of directors approved our Code of Ethics. The Code of Ethics sets forth standards of conduct applicable to our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer to promote honest and ethical conduct, full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure, and compliance with applicable governmental rules and regulations. Our Code of Ethics is available to view at our website, www.republicservices.com, and is included herein as Appendix B.

The board of directors has established four committees: the executive committee, the audit committee, the compensation committee, and the nominating and corporate governance committee. Committee member appointments are re-evaluated annually and approved by the board of directors at its next regularly scheduled meeting that follows the annual meeting of stockholders. Information regarding each of the current committees is as follows:

The executive committee consists of Messrs. O'Connor, Hudson and Huizenga. Mr. Huizenga is not standing for re-election as a director and will no longer serve on the executive committee. The executive committee has full authority to exercise all the powers of the board of directors between meetings of the board of directors, except as reserved by the board of directors.

The executive committee does not have the power to elect or remove executive officers, approve a merger of our company, recommend a sale of substantially all of our assets, recommend a dissolution of our company, amend our certificate of incorporation or by-laws, declare dividends on our outstanding securities, or, except as authorized by the board of directors, issue any common stock or preferred stock. The board of directors has given the executive committee authority to approve acquisitions, borrowings, guarantees or other transactions not involving more than $50 million in cash, securities or other consideration. The executive committee took nine actions by unanimous written consent during 2003.

The audit committee consists of Messrs. Croghan (Chairman), Nutter, Rodriguez and Sorensen. The four members of the audit committee meet the independence, education and experience requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the rules and regulations promulgated in accordance therewith, and the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. Our board has also determined that Mr. Croghan is an "audit committee financial expert" within the meaning of Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Act of 1934, as amended.

The audit committee assists the board of directors in monitoring (a) the integrity of our financial statements, (b) our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, and (c) the independence and performance of our internal and external auditors. Furthermore, the audit committee has the ultimate authority and responsibility to select, evaluate and, where appropriate, terminate and replace the independent auditor. The audit committee operates under a written charter adopted by the board of directors. This charter was amended and restated by our board of directors during 2002, 2003 and again in 2004. A copy of our current Audit Committee Charter is available to view at our website, www.republicservices.com, and is included herein as Appendix C. The audit committee held seven meetings and took one action by unanimous written consent during 2003.

The compensation committee consists of Messrs. Sorensen (Chairman), Croghan, Nutter and Rodriguez. The four members of the compensation committee are independent as that term is defined under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the rules and regulations promulgated in accordance therewith, and in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

The compensation committee reviews our company's compensation philosophy and programs, exercises authority with respect to the payment of salaries and incentive compensation to directors who are not members of the compensation committee and to executive officers, and administers our company's stock incentive plan. The compensation committee operates under a written charter adopted by the board of directors. A copy of our compensation committee charter is available to view at our website, www.republicservices.com and is included herein as Appendix D. The compensation committee held six meetings during 2003.

The nominating and corporate governance committee was formed in late 2002, although previously our audit committee also had responsibility as our nominating committee. The nominating and corporate governance committee consists of Messrs. Rodriguez (Chairman), Croghan, Nutter and Sorensen. The four members of the nominating and corporate governance committee are independent as that term is defined under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the rules and regulations promulgated in accordance therewith, and in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

The nominating and corporate governance committee is responsible for soliciting recommendations for candidates for the board of directors, developing and reviewing background information for such candidates, and making recommendations to the board of directors with respect to candidates for directors proposed by shareholders. In evaluating candidates for potential director nomination, the nominating and corporate governance committee will consider, among other things, candidates that are independent, if required, who possess personal and professional integrity, have good business judgment, and have relevant business and industry experience, education and skills, and who would be effective as a director in conjunction with the full board in collectively serving the long-term interests of our shareholders in light of the needs and challenges facing the board of directors at the time. All candidates will be reviewed in the same manner, regardless of the source of recommendation. Mr. O'Connor is nominated for election to our board of directors at each annual meeting of stockholders pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement with us. See "Executive Compensation-Employment Agreements," elsewhere in this proxy statement.

During 2004, our board of directors voted to increase the number of directors by one to a total of seven directors, which resulted in a vacancy on the board. In filling this vacancy, our nominating and corporate governance committee paid a fee to a professional search firm to assist it in identifying, evaluating and conducting due diligence on potential appointees. The search firm identified and recommended Mr. Nutter and participated in various meetings of the nominating and corporate governance committee at which the appointment of Mr. Nutter was discussed. On February 12, 2004, Mr. Nutter was appointed to our board of directors to fill the vacancy and subsequent to that was appointed to our audit, compensation and nominating and corporate governance committees.

The board of directors has determined that our four non-management directors, Messrs. Croghan, Nutter, Rodriguez and Sorensen, have met the standards of independence as set forth in our Corporate Governance Guidelines, which are consistent with the listing standards established by the New York Stock Exchange.

In addition to the foregoing duties, the nominating and corporate governance committee is also responsible for developing and recommending to the board of directors a set of corporate governance principles applicable to us. The nominating and corporate governance committee operates under a written charter adopted by the board of directors. A copy of our nominating and corporate governance committee charter is available to view at our website, www.republicservices.com, and is included herein as Appendix E. The nominating and corporate governance committee will consider nominations from stockholders that are entitled to vote for the election of directors. The nominating and corporate governance committee held five meetings during 2003.

The non-management directors shall meet at least once per year in an executive session. The non-management directors shall elect a presiding director for each executive session at which the non-management directors meet. In 2003, our non-management directors met two times in executive session.

Our executive officers attend ISS-accredited seminars and continuing education programs relating to corporate governance matters.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following statement made by the compensation committee of the board of directors of Republic Services, Inc. shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under either of these acts.

Executive Compensation Policies

The compensation committee of the board of directors is responsible for reviewing and approving executive compensation, including base salaries, awards of stock options and restricted stock, and annual and long-term awards under the company's Executive Incentive Plan. The compensation committee currently consists of Mr. Sorensen, the Chairman of the committee, and Messrs. Croghan and Rodriguez, each of whom is a non-employee director of our company.

Our executive compensation packages are designed to attract, motivate and retain executive talent. In determining the compensation of our executive officers, the committee takes into account factors which it considers relevant. These factors include individual management performance during the year, consideration of industry trends and business conditions in general, as well as market compensation for executives of comparable background and experience.

During 2000, the committee engaged a compensation consulting firm to conduct a comprehensive review of executive compensation. This review was undertaken to determine whether the compensation packages afforded to our executive officers were competitive and/or complete when compared with similarly situated companies. During both 2002 and 2003, the committee engaged another compensation consulting firm to conduct further reviews of executive compensation. In both of these further reviews, the consulting firm was asked to review the current compensation packages for the company's top 25 officers and compare them with packages offered to officers at a targeted universe of peer group companies as established during the 2000 review. The analysis and development of findings entailed regular status review meetings with the committee. Ultimately, the consulting firm provided the committee with its findings and analysis, which were taken into account in determining the committee's policies and bases for compensating the company's executive officers and its chief executive officer.

The general structure of each executive compensation package remains primarily weighted toward incentive forms of compensation so that an executive officer's interests are aligned with the interests of the company's stockholders. The compensation packages have been designed based on recommendations received from the compensation consulting firm and are generally designed as follows:

1. Salary. The company's executive officers received salary increases effective as of August 1, 2003. These increases were designed to maintain base compensation for the company's executive officers in a competitive range with its peer group companies.

2. Stock Options and Restricted Stock. The annual grants of options under the company's stock incentive program in comparison to the peer group were considered more heavily weighted relative to the overall compensation package given to the company's executive officers and were reduced accordingly for 2000 and subsequent years.

Table of Contents

During 2003, we granted options to purchase 180,000 shares of the company's common stock to some of the company's executive officers under the company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan. We granted these options at an exercise price of $19.23 per share. The exercise price of these options is based on the closing price of our common stock on the date of grant. These options vest at the rate of 25% per year in each of the four years following the date of grant and expire ten years from the date of grant.

3. Executive Incentive Plan. The Executive Incentive Plan authorizes the granting of annual awards and long-term awards to executive officers selected from time to time by the compensation committee to participate in the plan. Annual awards are designed to recognize the annual achievement by a participant of short-term goals and objectives of the company. Long-term awards are designed to recognize the impact of the participant upon the achievement by the company of longer term success in enhancing shareholder values.

Annual Awards. For 2003, our executive officers were eligible to receive annual awards under our Executive Incentive Plan based upon achieving predetermined levels of (a) earnings per share and (b) free cash flow. Free cash flow is defined as cash provided by operating activities less purchases of property and equipment, plus proceeds from the sale of property and equipment. During 2003, we achieved only the predetermined level of free cash flow. Our executive officers were granted bonuses accordingly.

Long-Term Awards. Long-term awards under the Executive Incentive Plan are based on three-year rolling performance periods of three calendar years each. A new performance period begins on January 1 of each year, and payouts with respect to each performance period are scheduled following the end of each applicable three-year period. The payouts are based upon achieving predetermined levels of (a) cash flow value creation, which we define as net income plus after-tax interest expense plus depreciation, depletion, amortization and accretion less capital charges (net average assets multiplied by our targeted weighted-average cost of capital), and (b) return on invested capital. The committee believes using these variables serves to align management's interests with the company's stockholders. The committee also believes these variables tie long-term compensation more directly to actual executive performance rather than measures based upon the vagaries of the stock market.

In 2002, after determining that one-time charges incurred in the fourth quarter of 2001 would preclude the executives from achieving the performance targets set at the beginning of 2001 for the three-year period ending December 31, 2003, the compensation committee revised the three-year performance period to a two-year performance period ending December 31, 2003 (thus eliminating the impact of 2001) and reduced the potential awards for such two-year performance period to equal two-thirds of the amounts originally granted for the three-year period. In 2003, the compensation committee also established new long-term targets and awards for a new three-year period ending December 31, 2005.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

In determining the 2003 compensation paid to Mr. O'Connor, our Chief Executive Officer, the committee took into account his abilities, business experience and performance during the 2002 fiscal year. The committee's assessment of Mr. O'Connor's performance included expanding our business, continuing to integrate acquired businesses, increasing profitability and maximizing stockholder value. During 2003, Mr. O'Connor received a salary of $811,032. Mr. O'Connor also received options to purchase 60,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $19.23 per share. Under the Executive Incentive Plan, Mr. O'Connor received an annual award of $294,002 and a long-term award in the amount of $350,224. The committee believes that tying Mr. O'Connor's remuneration to the objectives described above, including the performance of our common stock, will enhance our company's long-term performance and stability by providing Mr. O'Connor with an incentive to meet these objectives.

Compensation Deduction Limitation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code imposes a limitation on the deductibility of nonperformance-based compensation in excess of $1 million paid to named executive officers. The committee believes that the company should be able to continue to manage its executive compensation program for named executive officers so as to preserve the related federal income tax deductions.

Summary

The committee believes that the company's executive compensation policies and programs serve the interests of the stockholders and the company effectively. The committee believes that the compensation packages provided to our named executive officers provide motivation for executives to contribute to the company's overall success and enhance stockholder value. The committee will continue to monitor the effectiveness of the company's compensation programs and will recommend changes, when appropriate, to meet the company's needs.

Compensation of Directors

During 2003, we paid each of our non-employee directors and those directors who are not full-time members of the company's management a $30,000 annual retainer, an additional annual retainer of $10,000 for each board committee chairmanship held and $1,000 for each board or committee meeting attended. In addition, under our 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, each non-employee director and those directors who are not full-time members of the company's management received immediately exercisable options to purchase 10,000 shares of our common stock.

During 2003, our board of directors engaged a firm to conduct a review of compensation payable to our directors. After reviewing the recommendation of such firm and considering the effect of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act regarding the increased level of responsibility, liability and time commitment for directors, the board of directors decided to increase the annual retainer for our non-employee directors and those directors who are not full-time members of the company's management to $40,000 and to pay $1,500 to each non-employee director for each board or committee meeting attended. These increases to director compensation became effective January 1, 2004. The annual retainer for each board committee chairmanship remained $10,000.

In addition to the retainer and meeting fees that we pay our non-employee directors and those directors who are not full-time members of the company's management, during 2004, under our 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, we will make an initial grant of 5,000 deferred stock units to each non-employee director upon joining the board. We will thereafter make annual grants of 3,000 deferred stock units to our non-employee directors and those directors who are not full-time members of the company's management, each of whom remains a member of our board. The deferred stock units are deferred until the director's board service ends. As of March 15, 2004, we have granted 3,000 deferred stock units to each of our non-employee directors and those directors who are not full-time members of the company's management, except for Mr. Nutter, who received 5,000 deferred stock units upon his appointment to the board in February 2004. We also reimburse our non-employee directors and those directors who are not full-time members of the company's management for reasonable expenses incurred for attending board of director and committee meetings. We have not adopted any other policies regarding directors' compensation and benefits.

Employment Agreements

James E. O'Connor. We entered into a three-year employment agreement with James E. O'Connor to serve as our President and Chief Executive Officer, effective as of October 25, 2000 and as amended on January 31, 2003. - Mr. O'Connor will be paid the balance of all amounts credited to his deferred compensation account.

Upon a change of control, as defined in the agreement, if, within two years after the change of control, Mr. O'Connor's employment is terminated by us without cause or if Mr. O'Connor terminates his employment with good reason, then we are required to pay Mr. O'Connor:

- the severance payments described above, paid in a single lump sum, and
- three times the maximum annual bonus that Mr. O'Connor would have been eligible to receive in the fiscal year when the termination occurred, paid in a single lump sum.

Under the agreement, Mr. O'Connor is subject to confidentiality obligations, as well as non-compete and non-solicitation covenants, for a three-year period following the termination of his employment.

Stock Incentive Plan

In July 1998, we adopted the Republic Services, Inc. 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, which was amended and restated on March 6, 2002 and was further amended and restated on January 29, 2004, to provide for the grant of options to purchase shares of common stock, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and deferred stock to employees, non-employee directors and consultants who are eligible to participate in the Stock Incentive Plan. The Stock Incentive Plan provides for the grant of options or other equity securities to employees, non-employee directors and independent contractors at the discretion of our board of directors. We have reserved 20,000,000 shares of common stock for issuance under the Stock Incentive Plan.

In May 2002, our stockholders approved and adopted an amendment and restatement of our Stock Incentive Plan to, among other things, increase the number of shares of our common stock subject to the Stock Incentive Plan to 27,000,000 shares. The amendment and restatement also eliminates the eligibility of consultants and independent contractors as participants in the Stock Incentive Plan.

As of March 15, 2004, we had options to purchase 12,602,276 shares of our common stock outstanding under our 1998 Stock Incentive Plan. Beginning in 2004, in addition to prior option grants, we also grant restricted stock to our executive officers and deferred stock units to our directors who are not full-time members of the company’s management.

During 2004, we have granted options to purchase 1,547,500 shares of our common stock, 79,500 shares of restricted stock and 20,000 deferred stock units. 5,859,148 shares remain available for grants and awards under our 1998 Stock Incentive Plan.

Executive Incentive Plan

The Executive Incentive Plan authorizes the granting of annual awards and long-term awards to executive officers selected from time to time by the compensation committee to participate in the plan. Annual awards are designed to recognize the annual achievement by a participant of short-term goals and objectives of the company. Long-term awards are designed to recognize the impact of the participant upon the achievement by the company of longer term success in enhancing shareholder values.

Annual Awards. Our executive officers are eligible to receive annual awards under our Executive Incentive Plan based upon achieving predetermined levels of (a) earnings per share and (b) free cash flow. Free cash flow is defined as cash provided by operating activities less purchases of property and equipment, plus proceeds from the sale of property and equipment.

Long-Term Awards. Long-term awards under the Executive Incentive Plan are based on three-year rolling performance periods of three calendar years each. A new performance period begins on January 1 of each year, and payouts with respect to each performance period are scheduled following the end of each applicable three-year period. The payouts are based upon achieving predetermined levels of (a) cash flow value creation, which we define as net income plus after-tax interest expense plus depreciation, depletion, amortization and accretion less capital charges (net average assets multiplied by our targeted weighted-average cost of capital), and (b) return on invested capital. The committee believes using these variables serves to align management's interests with the company's stockholders. The committee also believes these variables tie long-term compensation more directly to actual executive performance rather than measures based upon the vagaries of the stock market.

In 2002, after determining that one-time charges incurred in the fourth quarter of 2001 would preclude the executives from achieving the performance targets set at the beginning of 2001 for the three-year period ending December 31, 2003, the compensation committee revised the three-year performance period to a two-year performance period ending December 31, 2003 (thus eliminating the impact of 2001) and reduced the potential awards for such two-year performance period to equal two-thirds of the amounts originally granted for the three-year period.

401(k) Plan

We have adopted a 401(k) Savings and Retirement Plan that qualifies for preferential tax treatment under section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Under the plan, all of our employees who are not covered by a collective bargaining agreement may participate in the plan following 90 days of service with the company. Our employees are permitted to contribute up to 15% of their salaries (up to a maximum contribution of $13,000 per year, and an additional $3,000 for employees who are 50 years old or older). We match one-half of the first four percent of an employee's contributions under the plan in shares of our common stock. The match is made on a quarterly basis and is fully vested when made.

Deferred Compensation Plan

In 2003, we amended the Republic Services, Inc. Deferred Compensation Plan. This plan provides an opportunity for our key employees and non-employee directors to make pre-tax payroll-deducted salary, stock grant and/or annual or long-term award deferrals to the respective plans at the beginning of each plan year at any percentage up to 90% for every compensation category, and for some compensation categories, up to 100%.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan

We have adopted the Republic Services, Inc. Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan. All of our employees who work at least 20 hours per week and have worked for us at least three months may voluntarily participate in the plan. During specified offering periods, these eligible employees may, through payroll deductions, buy whole and fractional shares of our common stock at a purchase price equal to 85% of the lower of (1) the fair market value of our common stock on the first day of the offering period and (2) the fair market value of our common stock on the last day of the offering period. Employees may sell the common stock purchased under the plan after they have owned the shares for at least 180 consecutive days.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Before our initial public offering on July 1, 1998, we had been a wholly-owned subsidiary of AutoNation. AutoNation currently owns no shares of our common stock. Mr. Huizenga is a member of the board of directors of AutoNation. As a result, the following transactions between our company and AutoNation may be deemed to be intercompany or related party transactions.

Separation and Distribution Agreement

The Separation and Distribution Agreement that we entered into with AutoNation in June 1998 provided for the principal corporate transactions required to effect our separation from AutoNation, and for other arrangements governing the future relationship between our company and AutoNation. The agreement provides for indemnification by each party in favor of the other party with respect to specified matters relating to the Separation and Distribution Agreement, our initial public offering and the secondary offering of our common stock owned by AutoNation. The Separation and Distribution Agreement also provides for indemnifications between our company and AutoNation regarding contingent liabilities primarily relating to our respective businesses or otherwise assigned to our company, and provides that the parties will each have the exclusive right to any benefit received with respect to any contingent gain that primarily relates to the business of that party, or that is expressly assigned to that party.

Tax Indemnification and Allocation Agreement

In connection with our separation from AutoNation, we entered into a Tax Indemnification and Allocation Agreement with AutoNation that provides that AutoNation will indemnify us for income taxes that we might incur with respect to certain internal restructuring transactions that we entered into in June 1998 in connection with our initial public offering.

Table of Contents

We were included in AutoNation's consolidated group for federal income tax purposes for periods during which AutoNation beneficially owned at least 80% of the total voting power and value of our outstanding common stock. Each corporation that is a member of a consolidated group during any portion of the group's tax year is jointly and severally liable for the federal income tax liability of the group for that year. We and our subsidiaries stopped being members of AutoNation's consolidated group when we became a public company in July 1998. The Tax Indemnification and Allocation Agreement allocates tax liabilities between AutoNation and our company during the periods when we were included in AutoNation's consolidated group, and provides each company rights of indemnification.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Our audit committee has chosen the firm of Ernst & Young LLP as independent public accountants of our company and its subsidiaries for the year ending December 31, 2004. Ernst & Young has been serving our company in this capacity since June 2002. Representatives of Ernst & Young are expected to be present at the annual meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so, and are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

As previously reported in our Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Commission on June 24, 2002, on June 21, 2002 we dismissed our independent public accountants, Arthur Andersen, LLP and engaged the services of Ernst & Young LLP as our new independent public accountants for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002. These actions followed our decision to seek proposals from independent accountants to audit our financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002. The decision to dismiss Arthur Andersen and retain Ernst & Young was approved by our board of directors upon the recommendation of our Audit and Nominating Committee.

None of the audit reports of Arthur Andersen on our consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 contained an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion nor was any such audit report qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001, and the subsequent interim period through June 21, 2002, there were no disagreements between us and Arthur Andersen on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to Arthur Andersen's satisfaction, would have caused Arthur Andersen to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports.

None of the reportable events described under Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K occurred within the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001, or within the interim a period through June 21, 2002.

A letter from Arthur Andersen to the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding our change of certifying account is attached as Exhibit 16.1 to our Current Report on Form 8 filed on June 21, 2002.

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001, and the subsequent interim period through June 21, 2002, the Company did not consult with Ernst & Young regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

Table of ContentsAudit Fees

The following table presents the aggregate fees billed to us by Ernst & Young for the audit of our annual financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 and other services provided during those periods:

	2002	2003
Audit Fees	$576,571	$669,491
Audit-Related Fees	65,086	56,644
Tax Fees	—	—
All Other Fees	—	—
	$641,657	$726,135

Fees for audit services include fees associated with the annual audit, the review of our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q (except for the first quarter report of 2002, which was reviewed by our prior public accountant), comfort letters, and statutory audits required internationally. Audit-related fees primarily include accounting consultation related to adoption of new pronouncements and employee benefit plan audits.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

Our audit committee pre-approves all fees to be paid to our independent public accountants in accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the rules and regulations promulgated in accordance therewith.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The following statement made by the audit committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under either of these acts.

Management is responsible for the company's internal controls, financial reporting processes and compliance with laws and regulations and ethical business standards. The independent auditor is responsible for performing an independent audit of the company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and issuing a report thereon. The audit committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes on behalf of the board of directors.

In this context, the audit committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The audit committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).

In addition, the audit committee has received from the independent auditors the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and discussed with them their independence from the company and its management. The audit committee has considered whether the independent auditors' provision of audit-related and other non-audit services to the company is compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence.

Finally, the audit committee has evaluated the independent auditors' role in performing an independent audit of the company's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and applicable professional and firm auditing standards, including quality control standards. The audit committee has received assurances from the independent auditors that the audit was subject to its quality control system for its accounting and auditing practice in the United States. The independent auditors have further assured the audit committee that its engagement was conducted in compliance with professional standards and that there was appropriate continuity of personnel working on the audit, availability of national office consultation to conduct the relevant portions of the audit, and availability of personnel at foreign affiliates to conduct the relevant portions of the audit.

In reliance on the reviews, discussions and evaluations referred to above, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in the company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. By recommending to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be so included, the audit committee is not opining on the accuracy, completeness or presentation of the information contained in the audited financial statements.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The board of directors currently consists of seven members. The board of directors, upon recommendation of the nominating and corporate governance committee, and with respect to Mr. O'Connor, also in accordance with the terms of his employment agreement, has designated the persons named below as nominees for election as directors, for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders in the year 2005. All nominees are currently serving as directors. Mr. Huizenga is not standing for re-election as a director. As a result, until his vacancy is filled, our board will consist of only six members. It is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy to vote the proxies they receive for the election of the nominees named below, unless a particular proxy withholds authorization to do so or provides other contrary instructions. Each of the nominees has indicated that he is willing and able to serve as a director. If before the annual meeting any nominee becomes unable to serve, an event which is not anticipated by the board of directors, the proxies will be voted for the election of whomever the board of directors may designate.

APPENDIX A

Republic Services, Inc.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Republic Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), has developed, and the Board has adopted, the following Corporate Governance Guidelines (the “Guidelines”) to assist the Board in the exercise of its responsibilities and to serve best the interests of the Company and its stockholders. These Guidelines should be interpreted in the context of all applicable laws and the Company’s Certificate of Incorporation (as amended and restated), bylaws, and other corporate governance documents. These Guidelines are intended to serve as a flexible framework within which the Board may conduct its business and not as a set of legally binding obligations. These Guidelines are subject to modification from time to time by the Board as the Board may deem appropriate and in the best interests of the Company or as required by applicable laws, regulations and rules to which the Company may be subject.

Role of Board and Management

The business and affairs of the Company are managed under the direction of the Board of Directors, which is the ultimate decision-making body of the Company except with respect to those matters reserved to the shareholders. The Board establishes overall corporate policies, selects and evaluates the Company’s senior management team, which is charged with the conduct of the Company’s business, and acts as an advisor and counselor to senior management. The Board also reviews the Company’s business strategy and the performance of management in executing the Company’s business strategy and managing the Company’s day-to-day operations.

Selection and Composition of the Board

Board Size

The number of Directors serving on the Board should permit diversity of experience without hindering effective discussion, diminishing individual accountability or exceeding a number that can function efficiently as a body. The Board will periodically review the size of the Board, and determine the size that is most effective in relation to future operations.

Director Qualifications Standards

Nominees for Director shall be selected from a pool of candidates having a successful career and the highest level of integrity. From this pool, Directors shall be selected on the basis of, among other things, broad experience; wisdom; integrity; ability to make independent analytical inquiries; understanding of the Company’s business environment; and willingness and ability to devote adequate time to Board duties; all in the context of assessing the needs of the Board at that point in time and with the objective of ensuring diversity in the background, experience and viewpoints of Board members. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be responsible for assessing the appropriate balance of skills and characteristics required of Board members.

Selection of Directors

The entire Board shall stand for election by the stockholders of the Company each year at the Company's annual meeting. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for identifying, evaluating and recommending candidates to the entire Board for nomination and election to the Board. Based on such recommendation, the entire Board shall be responsible for nominating members for election to the Board and for filling vacancies on the Board that may occur between annual meetings of stockholders.

Majority of Independent Directors

The Board shall be comprised of a majority of Directors who qualify as "independent" directors (the "Independent Directors") under the listing standards of The New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE").

Director Orientation and Continuing Education

The Company shall provide new Directors with a director orientation program to familiarize such Directors with, among other things, the Company's business, strategic plans, significant financial, accounting and risk management issues, compliance programs, conflicts policies, code of business conduct and ethics, corporate governance guidelines, principal officers, internal auditors and independent auditors. The Company shall provide opportunities for each Director to participate in continuing educational programs in order to maintain the skills and expertise to perform his or her responsibilities as a Director.

Director Stock Ownership

The Board believes that Directors should be stockholders and have a financial stake in the Company. While the Board does not believe it appropriate to specify the level of share ownership an individual Director should hold, it is anticipated that each Director will develop a meaningful ownership position in the Company over time, depending upon individual circumstances.

Retirement of CEO from Board upon Retirement from the Company

In order to retain freshness in the process and to give new management the unfettered ability to provide new leadership, the Board reserves the right to determine whether a retiring Chief Executive Officer of the Company ("CEO") shall be permitted to continue to serve on the Board following his or her retirement.

Term Limits

The Board does not believe it should limit the number of terms for which an individual may serve as a Director. Directors who have served on the Board for an extended period of time are able to provide valuable insight into the operations and future of the Company based on their experience with and understanding of the Company's history, policies and objectives. As an alternative to term limits, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, in conjunction with the Chairman, will formally review each Director's continuation on the Board every five years. This will also allow each Director the opportunity to conveniently confirm his or her desire to continue as a member of the Board.

Changes in Job Responsibilities of Directors

The Board does not believe that Directors who retire or change from the position they held when they came on the Board should necessarily leave the Board.

Board Role and Operation

Executive Sessions of Outside Directors

The non-management Directors shall meet in regularly scheduled executive sessions without management. The presiding Director for each executive session shall be rotated among the Committee chairs.

Board Contact with Senior Management

Board members shall have complete access to the Chairman and CEO and senior officers reporting directly to the CEO and, as necessary and appropriate, to the Company's outside advisors. Board members will use judgment to assure that this access is efficient and appropriate and not distracting to management and the business operation of the Company. Directors should refrain from giving strategic or operating direction to members of management outside the scope of full Board or committee responsibility and accountability.

Outside Communication

The Board believes that management speaks for the Company. In accordance with this philosophy, Directors should defer to the Chairman and CEO when requested to make any comments regarding the Company or its business.

Board Meetings

Frequency of Board Meetings

The Board shall meet at least four (4) times per fiscal year in accordance with a meeting schedule that is approved by the Board. The Board may also meet at such other times in meetings called in accordance with the Company's bylaws.

Selection of Agenda

The agenda for each Board meeting shall be determined by the Chairman and CEO and distributed in advance of the meeting to each Director. Each Director is encouraged to suggest specific agenda items.

Board Materials

Information and data are important to the Board's understanding of the Company's business and essential to prepare Board members for productive meetings. Presentation materials relevant to each meeting should generally be distributed in writing to the Board not less than three (3) business days' prior to the meeting unless doing so is not practicable or would compromise the confidentiality of competitive information. In the event of a pressing need for the Board to meet on short notice, it is recognized that written materials may not be available in advance of the meeting. Management will make every effort to provide presentation materials that are brief and to the point, yet communicate the essential information.

Meeting Attendance

A Director is expected to spend the time and effort necessary to properly discharge such Director's responsibilities. Accordingly, a Director is expected to regularly attend meetings of the Board and committees on which such Director sits, with the understanding that on occasion a Director may be unable to attend a meeting. A Director who is unable to attend a meeting is expected to notify the Chairman of the Board or the chair of the appropriate committee in advance of such meeting.

Board Committees

Committee Structure

It is the general policy of the Board that major decisions be considered by the Board as a whole, subject to applicable law. As a consequence, the committee structure of the Board is limited to those committees considered to be basic to or required for the operation of the Company as a publicly owned entity. The Company shall have four (4) standing committees: Audit Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, Compensation Committee, and Executive Committee. The duties for each of these committees shall be outlined in the charter for each committee and by resolution of the Board. From time to time, the Board may form other committees (or subcommittees) or disband a current committee depending on circumstances. Each of the Board's committees shall have the power and authority to engage independent counsel and other advisors, at the expense of the Company, as it determines necessary to carry out its duties.

Composition and Qualifications of Members

Each of the Audit Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Compensation Committee shall consist solely of Independent Directors. In addition, the composition of the Audit Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Compensation Committee shall be reviewed by the Board annually to assure that members are qualified in accordance with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

Assignment

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, after consultation with the Chairman and CEO, shall recommend to the Board for approval, and the Board shall approve, all assignments of committee members, including designations of the chairs of the committees.

Committee Reports

The chair of each committee shall report to the full Board, at each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board or whenever else deemed appropriate by such committee chair, with respect to those matters considered and acted upon by his or her committee.

Table of Contents

Leadership Evaluation

Evaluating Board Performance

The Board shall be responsible for annually conducting a self-evaluation of the Board as a whole and of the Board committees. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be responsible for establishing the evaluation criteria, including criteria for determining whether the Board and Board committees are functioning effectively, and implementing the process for such evaluation.

Board Compensation

The Compensation Committee shall review on an annual basis an independent analysis of director compensation practices at other U.S. public companies of comparable size and scope to the Company. The Company's director compensation program should be designed to attract and retain Directors who have the talent and experience necessary to advance the Company's long-term interests, with the general objective of providing Directors with compensation that is customary in comparison to practices at similar companies. The Company's director compensation program should also include appropriate compensation for committee chairs and members, in light of their additional commitment and contribution to the Company and the Board. Changes in director compensation, if any, should come at the suggestion of the Compensation Committee, but with full discussion and concurrence by the Board.

CEO Evaluation

The Compensation Committee is responsible for setting annual and long-term performance goals for the CEO and for evaluating his performance against such goals. The Compensation Committee meets annually with the CEO to receive his recommendations concerning such goals. The chair of the Compensation Committee then meets with the CEO to evaluate his or her performance against such goals. The Compensation Committee also is responsible for setting annual and long-term performance goals and compensation for, and evaluating the performance against such goals by, the other senior executive officers of the Company.

Succession Planning and Management Development

The CEO will report annually to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board on the Company's program for succession and management development. CEO succession is a Board-driven, collaborative process. Although the current CEO has an important role to play, the Board must be responsible for the plan for succession while collaborating with the CEO in deciding the timing and the necessary qualifications for making a final decision.

Codes of Conduct and Ethics

All Directors, officers and employees shall comply with the Company's codes of conduct and ethics, which provide that the Company will conduct business according to high moral and ethical principles and in compliance with applicable law. The Board does not intend to grant waivers under any code of conduct or ethics policy for any Director or executive officer.

Review of These Guidelines

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall review these Guidelines annually, or more frequently as appropriate, in comparison to the governance standards identified by leading governance authorities and the evolving needs of the Company and shall determine whether or not an amendment to these Guidelines should be recommended to the Board. Upon recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee, the Board shall consider and adopt amendments to these Guidelines as appropriate.

Adoption

The Board of Directors of Republic Services, Inc., upon recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, approved and adopted these Corporate Governance Guidelines on July 29, 2003.

APPENDIX B

Republic Services, Inc.

Code of Ethics

Introduction

The Board of Directors of Republic Services, Inc. (the “Company”) has developed and adopted this Code of Ethics applicable to its Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), its Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”), and its Chief Accounting Officer (“CAO”) to promote honest and ethical conduct, full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure, and compliance with applicable governmental rules and regulations.

Honest and Ethical Conduct

The CEO, CFO and CAO each owe a duty to the Company to act with the highest sense of integrity. Integrity requires, among other things, being honest and candid within the constraints of Company confidentiality. Deceit and subordination of principle are inconsistent with integrity, which requires observing both the form and the spirit of technical and ethical accounting standards.

A “conflict of interest” occurs when an individual’s private interest interferes or appears to interfere with the interests of the Company. Service to the Company should never be subordinated to personal gain and advantage. If the CEO, CFO or CAO becomes aware of a personal conflict of interest or is concerned that a conflict of interest might develop, he or she is required to discuss the matter with Chairman of the Audit Committee.

Disclosure

The CEO, CFO and CAO, among others, are responsible for taking all steps reasonably necessary to cause the disclosure in the Company’s periodic reports to be full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable. The CEO, CFO and CAO are required to familiarize themselves with the disclosure requirements applicable to the Company as well as the business and financial operations of the Company.

In the performance of their duties, the CEO, CFO and CAO are prohibited from knowingly misrepresenting facts. The CEO, CFO or CAO will be considered to have knowingly misrepresented facts if he or she knowingly:

- makes, or permits or directs another to make, materially false or misleading entries in an entity’s financial statements or records;
- fails to correct materially false and misleading financial statements or records;
- signs, or permits another to sign, a document containing materially false and misleading information; or
- falsely responds, or fails to respond, to specific inquiries of the Company’s external auditors.

The CEO, CFO and CAO, among others, have a supervisory role over the preparation of the financial disclosure in the periodic reports required to be filed by the Company.

Table of Contents

Adequate supervision includes closely reviewing and critically analyzing the financial information to be disclosed.

It is the responsibility of the CEO, CFO and the CAO promptly to bring to the attention of the Disclosure Committee any material information of which he or she may become aware that affects the disclosures made by the Company in its public filings or otherwise assist the Disclosure Committee in fulfilling its responsibilities.

The CEO, CFO and CAO shall promptly bring to the attention of the Disclosure Committee and the Audit Committee any information he or she may have concerning:

- significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect the Company's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data; or
- any fraud, whether or not material, or any actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships, involving any management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's financial reporting, disclosures or internal controls.

Compliance

It is the Company's policy to comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. It is the personal responsibility of the CEO, CFO and CAO to adhere to the standards and restrictions imposed by those laws, rules and regulations, and in particular, those relating to accounting and auditing matters. The CEO, CFO and CAO shall promptly bring to the attention of the General Counsel or CEO and to the Audit Committee any information he or she may have concerning evidence of a material violation of the securities or other laws, rules or regulations applicable to the Company and the operation of its business, by the Company or any agent thereof, or of a violation of this Code of Ethics.

Accountability

The Board of Directors shall determine, or designate appropriate persons to determine, appropriate actions to be taken in the event of violations of this Code of Ethics by the CEO, CFO or CAO. Such actions shall be reasonably designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote accountability for adherence to this Code of Ethics, and shall include written notices to the individual involved that the Board has determined that there has been a violation, censure by the Board, demotion or re-assignment of the individual involved, suspension with or without pay or benefits (as determined by the Board) and termination of the individual's employment. In determining what action is appropriate in a particular case, the Board of Directors or such designee shall take into account all relevant information, including the nature and severity of the violation, whether the violation was a single occurrence or repeated occurrences, whether the violation appears to have been intentional or inadvertent, whether the individual in question had been advised prior to the violation as to the proper course of action and whether or not the individual in question had committed other violations in the past.

The Committee shall have the authority to engage independent legal counsel or other advisers to assist the Committee as the Committee may, in its discretion, determine to be necessary to carry out its duties. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for the payment of compensation to such counsel or other advisers and for the Committee’s ordinary administrative expenses that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company’s outside counsel or independent auditor to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee.

The Committee shall make regular reports to the Board on the Committee’s activities.

The Committee shall:

(1) At the completion of the annual financial statements audit, review with management and the independent auditor:

- (3) Review analyses prepared by management and/or the independent auditor of significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the Company's financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative methods under generally accepted accounting principles on the financial statements.
- (4) Review with management the Company's systems of internal control.
- (5) Review with management and the independent auditor the Company's quarterly financial statements and related disclosure, including disclosure under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, prior to the filing of its Form 10-Q.
- (6) On a quarterly basis, discuss the following with management and the independent auditor, if applicable:

 - (b) Any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees which have a significant role in the Company's internal controls.
- (7) Establish procedures for: (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters; (ii) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters; and (iii) the receipt and treatment of any evidence of a violation of the securities laws or breach of fiduciary duty brought to the Committee's attention by the Company's in-house or external securities counsel.
- (8) Meet periodically with management and the independent auditor to review the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures. Discuss guidelines and policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management.

Review with the independent auditor any disclosed relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the independent auditor. Receive and review any other certifications or documentation and take other appropriate action as may be necessary to ensure that the independent auditor meets the independence standard required by law. Advise the Board of any actions necessary to satisfy the Board as to the independence of the independent auditors

(16) At least annually obtain and review a report by the independent auditor describing the firm's internal quality-control procedures, any material issues raised in the most recent internal quality-control review or peer review of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by the government or professional authorities, within the
